Brown, 2016-09-16 As with previous editions the new Aesthetics A Reader in Philosophy of the Arts uses classic and contemporary readings of leading philosophers of the arts This Third Edition includes more than a dozen new essays either written or adapted especially for this volume Containing more than 90 essays in total the new edition offers generous choices for class readings thus minimizing supplementary material needed for required assignments and independent research In keeping with earlier editions the Third Edition is a large collection of essays most comparatively brief and organized first by groupings of art forms and then by general essays about the arts It attempts to keep pace with theorizing about those art forms not traditionally covered in most books on aesthetics like the jazz rock comics video games and even the aesthetics of junkyards

There is then an emphasis on the popular and mass arts and everyday aesthetics as well as on time honored problems in philosophy of the arts This edition which contains contributions by both analytic and continental philosophers expands upon offerings in non Western art and aesthetics Finally although intended to keep pace with topics and issues currently debated instructors and students will find in a special section key classic texts and Interpretation Eric Dayton, 1999-02-02 Art and Interpretation is a comprehensive anthology of readings on aesthetics. Its aim is to present fundamental philosophical issues in such a way as to create a common vocabulary for those from diverse backgrounds to communicate meaningfully about aesthetic issues. To that end, the editor has provided selections from a wide variety of challenging works in aesthetic theory, both classical and modern. The approach is often cross-disciplinary. Within the discipline of philosophy, it seeks to balance readings from the analytic tradition with continental European hermeneutical, postmodern, including deconstructionist and feminist readings. The anthology is thus broadly conceived, but by grouping the readings into sections such as Expression and Aesthetic object, Psychology and Interpretation, Marxist Theory and Culture, Gender and Difference, it aims as well to provide depth of coverage for each topic or issue. The book opens with a historical section containing substantial selections from Plato, Aristotle, Hume, Kant, Shelley, and Nietzsche; these readings introduce themes that recur and are developed in the remainder of the anthology.
