A History of Art History Christopher S. Wood, 2021-03-02 In this authoritative book the first of its kind in English Christopher Wood tracks the evolution of the historical study of art from the late middle ages through the rise of the modern scholarly discipline of art history Synthesizing and assessing a vast array of writings episodes and personalities this original and accessible account of the development of art historical thinking will appeal to readers both inside and outside the discipline The book shows that the pioneering chroniclers of the Italian Renaissance Lorenzo Ghiberti and Giorgio Vasari measured every epoch against fixed standards of quality Only in the Romantic era did art historians discover the virtues of medieval art anticipating the relativism of the later nineteenth century when art history learned to admire the art of all societies and to value every work as an index of its times The major art historians of the modern era however Jacob Burckhardt Aby Warburg Heinrich W Ifflin Erwin Panofsky Meyer Schapiro and Ernst Gombrich struggled to adapt their work to the rupture of artistic modernism leading to the current predicaments of the discipline Combining erudition with clarity this book makes a landmark contribution to the understanding of art history from book jacket Rome Marcia B.

Rome and The Guidebook Tradition Anna Blennow, Stefano Fogelberg Rota, 2019-04-01 To this day no comprehensive academic study of the development of guidebooks to Rome over time has been performed This book treats the history of guidebooks to Rome from the Middle Ages up to the early twentieth century It is based on the results of the interdisciplinary research project Topos and Topography led by Anna Blennow and Stefano Fogelberg Rota From the case studies performed within the project it becomes evident that the guidebook as a phenomenon was formed in Rome during the later Middle Ages and early Renaissance The elements and rhetorical strategies of guidebooks over time have shown to be surprisingly uniform with three important points of development a turn towards a more user friendly structure from the seventeenth century and onward the so called Baedeker effect in the mid nineteenth century and the introduction of a personalized guiding voice in the first half of the twentieth century Thus the guidebook tradition is an unusually consistent literary oeuvre which also forms a warranty for the authority of every new guidebook In this respect the guidebook tradition is intimately associated with the city of Rome with which it shares a constantly renovating yet eternally fixed nature
