Alexander Nesbitt, Modern Decorative Title Pages (Classic Reprint) George Arthur Stephen, 2016-09-05 Excerpt from Modern Decorative Title Pages Of the Decoration of Books Old and New is worth quoting His View is that a decorative end paper should be delicately suggestive of the character and contents of the book it may be considered as a kind of quadrangle forecourt or even a garden or grass plot before the door Having passed the end paper and read the half title we are supposed to pass on About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Decorative Illustration of Books Walter Crane, 2016-08-08 The papers that follow this need no explanation since they are directed towards special sides of the Arts and Crafts Mr Crane has put forward the aims of the Arts and Crafts Exhibition Society as an Exhibition Society therefore I need not enlarge upon that phase of this book But I will write a few words on the way in which it seems to me we ought to face the present position of that revival in decorative art of which our Society is one of the tokens And in the first place the very fact vi that there is a revival shows that the arts aforesaid have been sick unto death In all such changes the first of the new does not appear till there is little or no life left in the old and yet the old even when it is all but dead goes on living in corruption and refuses to get itself put quietly out of the way and decently buried So that while the revival advances and does some good work the period of corruption goes on from worse to worse till it arrives at the point when it can no longer be borne and disappears To give a concrete example in these last days there are many buildings erected which in spite of our eclecticism our lack of a traditional style are at least well designed and give pleasure to the eye nevertheless so hopelessly hideous and vulgar is general building that persons of taste find themselves regretting the brown brick box with its vii feeble and trumpery attempts at ornament which characterises the style of building current at the end of the last and beginning of this century because there is some style about it and even some merit of design if only negative Special Edition Using Microsoft Office 2003, Student-Teacher Edition Ed Bott, Woody Leonhard, 2002-02-08 The Student Teacher Edition of Microsoft Office 2003 is the best selling version
