Fleet of Ships Syd C. Heal,1999 While the extent of Canada s war production effort 1939 1945 is fairly well known to Canadians one aspect of it has largely escaped notice This is the construction in Canadian shipyards from a standing start in 1941 of 402 merchant ships most of them 10 000 ton cargo ships On a comparative scale it was a feat rivaling that of the United States This book describes the technical factors involved in the design of these ships their construction and operation A Great Fleet of Ships explains how and why this potential merchant fleet existing at the war s end was so quickly dispersed with Canada s merchant marine all but vanishing after 1950 Heal discusses the reasons and methods of its disposal and also provides an insightful look at the complex subjects of marine underwriting and chartering These are aspects of merchant shipping seldom discussed in this light The Royal Navy in World War II Derek G. Bibliographie de la Vie Militaire Au Canada, 1867-1995 O. A. Cooke,Canada. Department of National Defence. Directorate of History and Heritage,1997 Canadian military history and military matters have not been well represented in general in retrospective bibliographies of Canadian or in international military bibliographies What has been attempted in this document is a bibliography of published primary sources and secondary works on Canadian military topics excluding poetry and fiction covering the period from Confederation to the present Entries in the bibliography represent printed monographs books and pamphlets and serial titles The prime criteria of inclusion were that the work be chiefly or uniquely both Canadian and military in its contents Many in house publications of the training pamphlet or regulations type have been included but only insofar as they tell us something of the armed forces themselves rather than details of tactical doctrine or of pieces of equipment Works by or about Canadians serving with the armed forces of other countries have been included as well as materials relating to the military history of Newfoundland since 1867
