World Silver and Monetary History in the 16th and 17th Centuries
Dennis O. Flynn, 2024-10-28 This collection reflects the evolution of a revisionist argument The price revolution was indeed a monetary phenomenon but Professor Flynn's position is not based upon mainstream monetary theory Silver mines financed the Spanish Empire and Japan's consolidation Ming China was the world's primary silver customer Europeans acted as middlemen globally including massive trade over the Pacific via Manila American mines nearly led to the destruction of nascent capitalism in Europe reverse of arguments by Hamilton Keynes Wallerstein and others Silver market disequilibrium caused silver's gravitation toward China bullion did not flow to Asia due to European trade deficits Such conclusions stem from application of the Doherty Flynn model developed in the mid 1980s Economic theory is normally applied to economic history in contrast development of the Doherty Flynn model was a response to inadequate conventional theory Theory emerged from history its application back to history yields startling historical reinterpretations

The Archaeology of Volga Bulgaria in the 10th to Early 13th Centuries Konstantin A. Rudenko,2024-11-18 This book focuses on Volga Bulgaria 10th to early 13th centuries the only Muslim state in Eastern Europe before 1300 For several centuries it operated as a bridge between the Christian West and the Muslim East As such it is widely believed that the colossal transit of oriental silver coin through the state was the foundation of the Bulgar economy

while Islam consolidated statehood in the Middle Volga region Drawing on the rich archaeological record Konstantin Rudenko argues against this view demonstrating that the Bulgar culture was instead formed on the basis of its own resources The Bulgars thus represent a unique example of relatively rapid change from nomadism to sedentism and urbanization with no significant influence from neighboring developed states Cultural syncretism therefore emerged as a key characteristic of Volga Bulgaria
