Creating Wine James Simpson,2011-10-16 James Simpson shows how the wine industry was transformed in the decades leading up to the First World War      The Sober Revolution Joseph Bohling,2018-12-15 Burgundy Bordeaux Champagne The names of these and other French regions bring to mind time honored winemaking practices Yet the link between wine and place in French known as terroir was not a given In The Sober Revolution Joseph Bohling inverts our understanding of French wine history by revealing a modern connection between wine and place one with profound ties to such diverse and sometimes unlikely issues as alcoholism drunk driving regional tourism Algeria s independence from French rule and integration into the European Economic Community In the 1930s cheap mass produced wines from the Languedoc region of southern France and French Algeria dominated French markets Artisanal wine producers worried about the impact of these inferior products on the reputation of their wines created a system of regional appellation labeling to reform the industry in their favor by linking quality to the place of origin At the same time the loss of Algeria once the world s largest wine exporter forced the industry to rethink wine production Over several decades appellation producers were joined by technocrats public health activists tourism boosters and other dynamic economic actors who blamed cheap industrial wine for hindering efforts to modernize France Today scholars food activists and wine enthusiasts see the appellation system as a counterweight to globalization and industrial food But as The Sober Revolution reveals French efforts to localize wine and integrate into global markets were not antagonistic but instead mutually dependent The time honored winemaking practices that we associate with a pastoral vision of traditional France were in fact a strategy deployed by the wine industry to meet the challenges and opportunities of the post 1945 international economy France s luxury wine producers were more market savvy than we realize      Wine and Culture Rachel E. Black,Robert C. Ulin,2013-08-29 This collection of essays by leading scholars explores the cultural social and historical issues which inform the production and consumption of wine It covers the latest ethnography theoretical and ethnohistorical research on wine throughout the globe      Food and Landscape: Proceedings of the 2017 Oxford Symposium on Food and Cookery Mark McWilliams,2018-07-01 The proceedings of the 2017 Oxford Symposium on Food and Cookery includes 43 essays by international scholars The topics included agro ecology food sovereignty and economic democracy in the agricultural landscape argued by Colin Tudge James Rebanks on family life as a hill farmer in the Lake District and many talks that illustrate Catalan historian Joseph Pla s axiom that Cuisine is the landscape in a saucepan      The Rise of Napa Valley Wineries Mark Gudgel,2023-05-08 A wine country odyssey In 1976 the picturesque agrarian Napa Valley was all but unknown to those who didn t live there That changed dramatically when Steven Spurrier and Patricia Gallagher decided to host a blind tasting of American and French wines in Paris When wines from California defeated those of France the world was shocked an industry reawakened and Napa Valley exploded in a frenzy of growth and development Families who had farmed for generations battled to hang onto their land and many paid a steep price as the area transformed into one of the world's premier wine growing regions Join author Mark Gudgel as he explores the trials and tribulations of Napa's meteoric rise to prominence Negotiating Values in the Creative Industries Brian Moeran, Jesper Strandgaard Pedersen, 2011-05-19 Fairs festivals and competitive events play a crucial role in the creative industries yet their significance has been largely overlooked This book explores the role of such events through a series of studies that include some of the most iconic fairs and festivals in the world It brings together a team of distinguished scholars to examine art fairs biennales auctions book fairs television programming markets film festivals animation film festivals country music festivals fashion weeks wine classifications and wine tasting events This diverse set of studies shows that such events serve a variety of purposes as field configuring events FCEs as a way of ritualising industry practices and as tournaments of values where participants negotiate different cultural values to resolve economic issues Suitable for academics and practitioners this book presents a fascinating perspective on the role and importance of fairs festivals and competitive events in the creative industries Dutch Neorealism, Cinema, and the Politics of Painting, 1927-1945 Stephanie Lebas Huber, 2024-08-12 This study offers a radically new perspective on Dutch Neorealism one that emphasizes the role of film as an apparatus the effects of which when emulated in painting can reproduce the affective experience of film watching More of a tendency than a tightly defined style or ism Neorealism is the Dutch variant of Magic Realism an uncanny mode of figurative painting identified with Neue Sachlichkeit in Germany and Novecento in Italy Best represented by the Dutch artists Pyke Koch Carel Willink Charley Toorop Raoul Hynckes Dick Ket and Wim Schuhmacher Neorealism as demonstrated in this book depicted societal disintegration and allegories of looming disaster in reaction to the rise of totalitarian regimes and eventually the Nazi Occupation of The Netherlands The degree to which these artists exhibited either revolutionary or reactionary sentiments usually corresponding with their political affiliation is one of the central problematics explored in this text The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history World War II history and film studies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license The Booklovers' Guide to Wine Patrick Alexander, 2017-09-19 A delightfully informative guide to two of the world's most rewarding pleasures fine wine and great literature that make for an irresistible pairing Nothing in the world is more satisfying to the soul than a glass of excellent cabernet sauvignon pinot grigio bordeaux or any number of fine varietals unless it's curling up by the fire with a truly exceptional novel history or collection of short fiction Now Patrick Alexander wine aficionado and author of The Illustrated Proust combines these unparalleled pleasures in a unique guidebook to delight connoisseurs of both Gatsby and the grape In The Booklovers Guide to Wine Alexander shares his passion for the culture and history of wine and his love of great authors and their enduring works Eschewing the traditional pairings of food and drink he explores instead the most pleasing combinations of reds whites and rosés with their most compatible writers be it Shakespeare with sherry Jane Austin with chardonnay or J R R Tolkien with albari o In addition he examines the most interesting and thought provoking wine references in literature while providing an intriguing history of the beloved beverage from biblical times to the latest trends Chock full of intriguing facts expert opinions and entertaining anecdotes The Booklovers Guide to Wine is a book to be savored by anyone who appreciates the complexity of a full bodied shiraz or the unmistakable flavor of a great author

The Business of Wine Geralyn G. Brostrom, Jack Brostrom, 2008-12-30 Wine has been a beverage staple since ancient times especially in Europe Today's global wine business is thriving and American consumption of wine has increased dramatically in recent years with the health benefits touted in the media More Americans are becoming interested in learning about wine and they are taking winery tours and attending wine tastings The Business of Wine An Encyclopedia is a necessary part of wine education for everyone from the curious consumer to the oenophile or business student and industry professional It appeals to even the casual browser who wants to be more informed about wine terminology such as terroir or varietal labeling or what constitutes a Pinot Grigio or a Cabernet Sauvignon More than 140 entries illuminate the regions grapes history wine styles business elements events people companies issues and more that are crucial to the wine industry Today's wine industry is an unusually complex network of interrelated businesses that collectively serve to produce wine and get it into the hands of consumers all over the world This A Z encyclopedia shows how production distribution and sales segments work together to bring wine to the public and describes the trade in wine and its related subsidiary elements Written by a host of wine professionals this is the most up to date source to understand what goes into the enjoyment of a glass of wine An appendix with industry data sidebars and a selected bibliography complement the A Z entries
