18 Poems From The Quechua:

18 Poems from the Quechua Mark Strand, 1971 International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa

Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today. Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets worldwide, this essential reference work provides truly international coverage. In addition to the well-known poets, talented up and coming writers are also profiled. Contents: Each entry provides full career history and publication details. An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners, organizations, magazines and publishers. A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes. The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate, Oxford University professors of poetry, poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature, winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes. The Precarious M. Catherine de Zegher, 1997 Two works in one: this is an exquisite art book offering the first comprehensive treatment of Vicuña's work in English. The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Literature Jay Parini, 2004 The Encyclopedia of American Literature gathers together 350 essays from over 190 leading scholars on the whole of American literature from European discovery to the present. At the core of the Encyclopedia lie 250 essays on poets, playwrights, essayists and novelists. Figures such as Whitman, Melville, Faulkner, Frost and Morrison are discussed in detail with each examined in the context of his or her times, an assessment of the writer's current reputation, a bibliography of major works and a list of major critical and biographical works about the writer. Fifty entries on major works such as Moby Dick, Song of Myself, Walden, The Great Gatsby, The Waste Land, Their Eyes Were Watching God, Death of a Salesman and Beloved place the work in its historical context and offer a range of possibilities with regard to critical approach. The Encyclopedia also contains essays on literary movements, periods and themes, pulling together a broad range of information and making connections between them. Each entry has its own primary and annotated secondary bibliography and a system of cross references helps readers locate information with ease. The Encyclopedia of American Literature is an outstanding reference source for students studying authors or particular pieces of literature, libraries looking for one comprehensive source and readers interested in American literature, its authors and its connection with various areas of study. Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1974 International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature. The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world, including many up and coming writers as well as established names. With over 8 000 entries, this updated edition features concise biographical information on novelists, authors, playwrights, columnists, journalists, editors and critics. Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence. Entries detailing career, works, published literary awards and prizes, membership and contact
