1901 A Novel:

In Darkest James Robin P. Hoople, 2000 In July of 1906 Archibald Henderson could pronounce with perfect confidence that Henry James was a master impressionist But as short a time as six years earlier James's critics lacked this term in their vocabulary and struggled with the sophisticated art of James's developing impressionistic literary technique In Darkest James discusses the reviewer's frustrated often irritated and even anguished attempts to render a satisfactory account of the sequence of artifacts in which James moved toward the perfection of his craft BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

H.G. Wells on Film Don G. Smith, 2010-09-01 One of the most influential thinkers of his era H G Wells is primarily known for his science fiction writings that looked ahead in time to teach and warn These novels and stories inspired many filmmakers to bring his visions if often greatly altered or misfocused to life on screen He himself wrote screenplays and closely supervised the production of some of his work This book is a study of every theatrically released film from 1909 to 1997 that is based even loosely on the writings of H G Wells including The Time Machine The Island of Dr Moreau The Invisible Man The War of the Worlds The First Men in the Moon The Food of the Gods and The Empire of the Ants to name a few For each film the author discusses the circumstances surrounding its creation its plot how it compares with the literary work its production and marketing and its strengths and weaknesses based on aesthetic qualities

Library Bulletin Mechanics' Institute (San Francisco, Calif.), 1898 Irish Novels 1890-1940 John Wilson Foster, 2008-02-21 Studies of Irish fiction are still scanty in contrast to studies of Irish poetry and drama Attempting to fill a large critical vacancy Irish Novels 1890-1940 is a comprehensive survey of popular and minor fiction mainly novels published between 1890 and 1922 a crucial period in Irish cultural and political history Since the bulk of these sixty odd writers have never been written about certainly beyond brief mentions the book opens up for further exploration a literary landscape hitherto neglected perhaps even unsuspected This new landscape should alter the familiar perspectives on Irish literature of the period first of all by adding genre fiction science fiction detective novels ghost stories New Woman fiction and Great War novels to the Irish syllabus secondly by demonstrating the immense contribution of women writers to popular and mainstream Irish fiction Among the popular and prolific female writers discussed are Mrs J H Riddell B M Croker M E Francis Sarah Grand Katharine Tynan Ella MacMahon Katherine Cecil Thurston W M Letts and Hannah Lynch Indeed a critical inference of the survey is that if there is a discernible tradition of the Irish novel it is largely a female tradition A substantial postscript surveys novels by Irish women between 1922 and 1940 and relates them to the work of their female antecedents This ground breaking survey should also alter the familiar perspectives on the Ireland of 1890-1922 Many of the popular works were problem novels and hence throw light on contemporary thinking and debate on the Irish Question After the Irish Literary Revival and creation of the Free State much popular and mainstream fiction became a lost archive neglected evidence indeed of a lost Ireland

Ramón Del Valle-Inclán: The works of Valle-Inclán Robert Lima, 1999

Published by Boydell Brewer Inc The Rise and Fall of American Science Fiction, from the 1920s to the 1960s Gary Westfahl, 2019-10-04 By examining important aspects of science fiction in the twentieth century this book explains how the genre evolved to its current state Close critical attention is given to topics including the art that has accompanied science fiction the subgenres of space opera and hard science fiction the rise of SF anthologies and the burgeoning impact of the marketplace on authors Included are in depth studies of key texts that contributed to science fiction s growth including Philip Francis Nowlan s first Buck Rogers story the first published stories of A E van Vogt and the early juveniles of Isaac Asimov Arthur C Clarke and Robert Heinlein Frank Norris Remembered Jesse S. Crisler, Joseph R. McElrath, Jr., 2013-05-31 Frank Norris Remembered is a collection of reminiscences by Norris s contemporaries friends and family that illuminate the life of one of America s most popular novelists Considering his undergraduate education spent studying art at Acad mie Julian in Paris and creative writing at Harvard and his journalism career reporting from the far reaches of South Africa and Cuba it is difficult to fathom how Frank Norris also found time to compose seven novels during the course of his brief life But despite his adventures abroad Norris turned out novels at a dizzying pace He published Moran of the Lady Letty in 1898 McTeague early in 1899 Blix later that year A Man s Woman in February 1900 and The Octopus the first in his ultimately unfinished Epic of the Wheat trilogy in 1901 By informing his novels with his own experiences abroad Norris composed works that were politically charged and culturally relevant and that made considerable contributions to the character of American literature in the twentieth century Frank Norris died at the age of thirty two in 1902 from peritonitis resulting from a burst appendix leaving behind a wife a daughter and an unfinished series of novels two of which The Pit and Vandover and the Brute were published posthumously The aim of Frank Norris Remembered edited by Jesse S Crisler and Joseph R McElrath Jr is to re create the short spectacular life of this American author through the eyes of those who knew him best The fifty reminiscences included in this book feature the voices of Frank N Doubleday William Dean Howells Hamlin Garland Norris s wife Jeannette and many others who were lucky enough to form a relationship with this vital twentieth century American author artist and adventurer The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film Alan Goble, 2011-09-08 No detailed description available for The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film The Book Lover's Guide to Florida Kevin M. McCarthy, 1992 Here is the book lover s literary tour of Florida an exhaustive survey of writers books and literary sites in every part of the state The state is divided into ten areas and each one is described from a literary point of view You will learn what authors lived in or wrote about a place which books describe the place what important movies were made there even the literary trivia which the true Florida book lover will want to know You can use the book as a travel guide to a new way to see the state as an armchair guide to a better understanding of our literary heritage or as a guide to what to read next time you head to a bookstore or library Publisher Bulletin , 1895 Consists of accessions and books in foreign languages Sex, Law, and Sovereignty in French Algeria, 1830-1930 Judith Surkis, 2019-12-15 This is a masterful study of the ways in which sex and law were inextricably intertwined in the elaboration of French rule in Algeria Its great virtue is to demonstrate in careful detail with an impressive range of material from court records to novels exactly how the conquest of Algeria repeatedly challenged the very ideals of the secular universalism in whose name colonization was carried out Joan Wallach Scott author of Sex and Secularism During more than a century of colonial rule over Algeria the French state shaped and reshaped the meaning and practice of Muslim law by regulating it and circumscribing it to the domain of family law while applying the French Civil Code to appropriate the property of Algerians In Sex Law and Sovereignty in French Algeria 1830-1930 Judith Surkis traces how colonial authorities constructed Muslim legal difference and used it to deny Algerian Muslims full citizenship In disconnecting Muslim law from property rights French officials increasingly attached it to the bodies beliefs and personhood Surkis argues that powerful affective attachments to the intimate life of the family and fantasies about Algerian women and the sexual prerogatives of Muslim men supposedly codified in the practices of polygamy and child marriage shaped French theories and regulatory practices of Muslim law in fundamental and lasting ways Women's legal status in particular came to represent the dense relationship between sex and sovereignty in the colony This book also highlights the ways in which Algerians interacted with and responded to colonial law Ultimately this sweeping legal genealogy of French Algeria elucidates how the Muslim question in France became and remains a question of sex

Disabilities of the Color Line Dennis Tyler, 2022-02-15 Rather than simply engaging in a triumphalist narrative of overcoming where both disability and disablement are shunned alike Disabilities of the Color Line argues that Black authors and activists have consistently avowed disability as a part of Black social life in varied and complex ways Sometimes their affirmation of disability serves to capture how their bodies minds and health have been and are made vulnerable to harm and impairment by the state and society Sometimes their assertion of disability symbolizes a sense of commonality and community that comes not only from a recognition of the shared subjection of Blackness and disability but also from a willingness to imagine and create a world distinct from the dominant social order Through the work of David Walker Henry Box Brown William and Ellen Craft Charles Chesnutt James Weldon Johnson and Mamie Till Mobley this book examines how Black writer activists have engaged in an aesthetics of redress modes of resistance that show how Black communities have rigorously acknowledged disability as a response to forms of racial injury and in the pursuit of racial and disability justice

The Reel Middle Ages Kevin J. Harty, 2015-08-13 Those tales of old King Arthur Robin Hood The Crusades Marco Polo Joan of Arc have been told and retold and the tradition of their telling has been gloriously upheld by filmmaking from its very inception From the earliest of Georges Melies's films in 1897 to a 1996 animated Hunchback of Notre Dame film has offered not just fantasy but exploration of these roles so vital to the modern psyche St Joan has undergone the transition from peasant girl to self-assured saint and Camelot has transcended the soundstage to evoke the Kennedys in the White House Here is the first comprehensive survey of more than 900 cinematic depictions of the European Middle Ages date of
