1935 A Memoir:

1935 Sam Cornish,1990 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Summary of Progress of the Geological Survey ... and Museum of Practical Geology Geological Survey of Great Britain,1934 A new series embracing annual scientific results and certain administrative statistics Gordon Bunshaft and SOM Nicholas Adams,2019-10-11 This nuanced portrait of Gordon Bunshaft and his work for the architecture firm SOM explores his role in defining the built aesthetic of corporate America Jewish Daily Life in Germany, 1618-1945 Marion A. Kaplan,2005-03-03 From the seventeenth century until the Holocaust Germany's Jews lurched between progress and setback between fortune and terrible misfortune German society shunned Jews in the eighteenth century and opened unevenly to them in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries only to turn murderous in the Nazi era By examining the everyday lives of ordinary Jews this book portrays the drama of German Jewish history the gradual ascent of Jews from impoverished outcasts to comfortable bourgeois citizens and then their dramatic descent into genocidal torment during the Nazi years Building on social economic religious and political history it focuses on the qualitative aspects of ordinary life emotions subjective impressions and quotidian perceptions How did ordinary Jews and their families make sense of their world How did they construe changes brought about by industrialization How did they make decisions to enter new professions or stick with the old juggle traditional mores with contemporary ways The Jewish adoption of secular modern European culture and the struggle for legal equality exacted profound costs both material and psychological Even in the heady years of progress a basic insecurity informed German Jewish life Jewish successes existed alongside an antisemitism that persisted as a frightful leitmotif throughout German Jewish history And yet the history that emerges from these pages belies simplistic interpretations that German antisemitism followed a straight path from Luther to Hitler Neither Germans nor Jews can be typecast in their roles vis vis one another Non Jews were not uniformly antisemitic but exhibited a wide range of attitudes towards Jews Jewish daily life thus provides another vantage point from which to study the social life of Germany Focusing on both internal Jewish life family religion culture and Jewish community and the external world of German culture and society provides a uniquely well rounded portrait of a world defined by the shifting sands of inclusion and exclusion The Great War in Russian Memory Karen Petrone,2011-07-14 Karen Petrone shatters the notion that World War I was a forgotten war in the Soviet Union

Although never officially commemorated the Great War was the subject of a lively discourse about religion heroism violence and patriotism during the interwar period Using memoirs literature films military histories and archival materials Petrone reconstructs Soviet ideas regarding the motivations for fighting the justification for killing the nature of the enemy and the qualities of a hero She reveals how some of these ideas undermined Soviet notions of military honor and patriotism while others reinforced them As the political culture changed and war with Germany loomed during the Stalinist 1930s internationalist voices were silenced and a nationalist view of Russian military heroism and patriotism prevailed

Breadlines Knee-Deep in Wheat Janet Poppendieck, 2014-04-26 At no time during the Great Depression was the contradiction between agriculture surplus and widespread hunger more wrenchingly graphic than in the government's attempt to raise pork prices through the mass slaughter of millions of unripe little pigs This contradiction was widely perceived as a paradox In fact as Janet Poppendieck makes clear in this newly expanded and updated volume it was a normal predictable working of an economic system rendered extreme by the Depression The notion of paradox however captured the imagination of the public and policy makers and it was to this definition of the problem that surplus commodities distribution programs in the Hoover and Roosevelt administrations were addressed This book explains in readable narrative how the New Deal food assistance effort originally conceived as a relief measure for poor people became a program designed to raise the incomes of commercial farmers In a broader sense the book explains how the New Deal years were formative for food assistance in subsequent administrations it also examines the performance or lack of performance of subsequent in kind relief programs Beginning with a brief survey of the history of the American farmer before the depression and the impact of the Depression on farmers the author describes the development of Hoover assistance programs and the events at the end of that administration that shaped the historical moment seized by the early New Deal Poppendieck goes on to analyze the food assistance policies and programs of the Roosevelt years the particular series of events that culminated in the decision to purchase surplus agriculture products and distribute them to the poor the institutionalization of this approach the results achieved and the interest groups formed The book also looks at the takeover of food assistance by the U S Department of Agriculture and its gradual adaptation for use as a tool in the maintenance of farm income Utilizing a wide variety of official and unofficial sources the author reveals with unusual clarity the evolution from a policy directly responsive to the poor to a policy serving mainly democratic needs

Quite A Good Time to be Born David Lodge, 2015-01-29 I drew my first breath on the 28th of January 1935 which was quite a good time for a future writer to be born in England The only child in a lower middle class London family David Lodge inherited his artistic genes from his musician father and his Catholic faith from his Irish Belgian mother Four years old when World War II began David grew to maturity through decades of great social and cultural change giving him plenty to write about Candid witty and insightful Quite a Good Time to be Born illuminates a period of transition in British society and charts the evolution of a writer whose works have become classics in his own lifetime      Black Liberation/red Scare Gerald Horne,1994-07 Black Liberation Red Scare is a study of an African American Communist leader Ben Davis Jr 1904 64 Though it examines the numerous grassroots campaigns that he was involved in it is first and foremost a study of the man and secondarily a study of the Communist party from the 1930s to the 1960s By examining the public life of an important party leader Gerald Horne uniquely approaches the story of how and why the party rose and fell Ben Davis Jr was the son of a prominent Atlanta publisher and businessman who was also the top African American leader of the Republican party until the onset of the Great Depression Davis was trained for the black elite at Morehouse Amherst and Harvard Law School After graduating from Harvard he joined the Communist party where he remained as one of its most visible leaders for thirty years In 1943 after being endorsed by his predecessor Adam Clayton Powell Jr he was elected to the New York City Council from Harlem and subsequently reelected by a larger margin in 1945 Davis received support from such community figures as NAACP leader Roy Wilkins boxer Joe Louis and musician Duke Ellington While on the council Davis fought for rent control and progressive taxation and struggled against transit fare hikes and police brutality With the onset of the Red Scare and the Cold War Davis like the Communist party itself was marginalized The Cold War made it difficult for the U S to compete with Moscow for the hearts and minds of African Americans while they were subjected to third class citizenship at home Yet in return for civil rights concessions African American organizations such as the NAACP were forced to distance themselves from figures such as Ben Davis In 1949 he was ousted unceremoniously and perhaps illegally from the City Council He was put on trial jailed in 1951 and not released until 1956 when the civil rights movement was gathering momentum His friendship with the King family based upon family ties in Atlanta was the ostensible cause for the FBI surveillance of Dr Martin Luther King Jr and COINTELPRO the counterintelligence program of the FBI which was aimed initially at the CP USA made sure to keep a close eye on Davis as well But when the civil rights movement reached full strength in the 1960s Davis s controversial appearances at college campuses helped to set the stage for a new era of activism at universities Davis died in 1964 According to Horne the time has now come when he along with his good friend Paul Robeson and W E B DuBois should be regarded as a premier leader of African Americans and the U S Left during the twentieth century BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved      Letters of Heinrich and Thomas Mann, 1900-1949 Thomas Mann,Heinrich Mann,1998-01-01 Presents the correspondence of Thomas and Heinrich Mann      Memoirs of the British Astronomical Association British Astronomical Association,1951      Memoir ,1948      Experiment Station Record United States. Office of Experiment Stations,1936      Ezra Pound as Literary Critic Emeritus Professor K K Ruthven,K. K. Ruthven,2002-01-08 Bringing some of the insights of modern critical theory to bear on a great deal of information about Pound s activities as a literary critic some of it made available only recently K K Ruthven provides a provocative re reading of a major modernist writer who dominated the discourse of modernism      Finding a Way to the Heart Jarvis Brownlie,Valerie

J. Korinek,2012-10-30 When Sylvia Van Kirk published her groundbreaking book Many Tender Ties in 1980 she revolutionized the historical understanding of the North American fur trade and introduced entirely new areas of inquiry in women s social and Aboriginal history Finding a Way to the Heart examines race gender identity and colonization from the early nineteenth to the late twentieth century and illustrates Van Kirk s extensive influence on a generation of feminist scholarship

Mission Life in Cree-Ojibwe Country Elizabeth Bingham Young,E. Ryerson Young,2014-12-28 In May of 1868 Elizabeth Bingham Young and her new husband Egerton Ryerson Young began a long journey from Hamilton Ontario to the Methodist mission of Rossville For the next eight years Elizabeth supported her husband s work at two mission houses Norway House and then Berens River Unprepared for the difficult conditions and the eight months long winter and unimpressed with eating fish twenty one times a week the young Upper Canada wife rose to the challenge In these remote outposts she gave birth to three children acted as a nurse and doctor and applied both perseverance and determination to learning Cree while also coping with poverty and short supplies within her community Her account of mission life as seen through the eyes of a woman is the first of its kind to be archived and now to appear in print Accompanying Elizabeth s memoir and offering a counterpoint to it are the reminiscences of her eldest son Eddie Born at Norway House in 1869 and nursed by a Cree woman from infancy Eddie was immersed in local Cree and Ojibwe life culture and language in many ways exemplifying the process of reverse acculturation often in evidence among the children of missionaries Like those of his mother Eddie s memories capture the sensory and emotional texture of mission life providing a portrait that is startling in its immediacy Skillfully woven together and meticulously annotated by Jennifer Brown these two remarkable recollections of mission life are an invaluable addition to the fields of religious missionary and Aboriginal history In their power to resurrect experience they are also a fascination to read
