1989 The Year The World Changed The Fall Of Communism:

Making Sense of Contemporary British Muslim Novels Claire Chambers, 2019-04-23 This book is the sequel to Britain Through Muslim Eyes and examines contemporary novelistic representations of and by Muslims in Britain. It builds on studies of the five senses and sensuous geographies of postcolonial Britain and charts the development since 1988 of a fascinating and important body of fiction by Muslim identified authors. It is a selective literary history exploring case study novelistic representations of and by Muslims in Britain to allow in depth critical analysis through the lens of sensory criticism. It argues that for authors of Muslim heritage in Britain writing the senses is often a double edged act of protest. Some of the key authors excoriate a suppression or cover up of non heteronormativity and women's rights that sometimes occurs in Muslim communities. Yet their protest is especially directed at secular culture's ocularcentrism and at successive British governments' efforts to surveil control and suppress Muslim bodies.

The Oxford Handbook of Postwar European History Dan Stone, 2012-05-17 The postwar period is no longer current affairs but is becoming the recent past. As such it is increasingly attracting the attentions of historians. Whilst the Cold War has long been a mainstay of political science and contemporary history, recent research approaches postwar Europe in many different ways, all of which are represented in the 35 chapters of this book. As well as diplomatic, political, institutional, economic and social history, the The Oxford Handbook of Postwar European History contains chapters which approach the past through the lenses of gender, espionage, art and architecture, technology, agriculture, heritage, postcolonialism, memory and generational change, and shows how the history of postwar Europe can be enriched by looking to disciplines such as anthropology and philosophy. The Handbook covers all of Europe with a notable focus on Eastern Europe. Including subjects as diverse as the meaning of Europe and European identity, southern Europe after dictatorship, the cultural meanings of the bomb, the 1968 student uprisings, immigration, Americanization, welfare, leisure, decolonization, the Wars of Yugoslav Succession and coming to terms with the Nazi past, the thirty five essays in this Handbook offer an unparalleled coverage of postwar European history that offers far more than the standard Cold War framework. Readers will find self contained state of the art analyses of major subjects, each written by acknowledged experts, as well as stimulating and novel approaches to newer topics. Combining empirical rigour and adventurous conceptual analysis, this Handbook offers in one substantial volume a guide to the numerous ways in which historians are now rewriting the history of postwar Europe.

Jews and Poles in the Holocaust Exhibitions of Kraków, 1980-2013 Janek Gryta, 2020-02-27 This book offers a unique approach to memory studies by focusing on local memory work conducted across the divide of the fall of Communism, whereas other histories have consistently used 1989 as a watershed moment. By examining the ways in which the Holocaust has been exhibited in Kraków, it investigates the impact local memory work has had on Polish collective memory and problematizes the importance of the fall of Communism for memory work. Using the Polish case study, it contributes to international debates on the nature of urban memory. It brings to the fore the role of mid ranking governmental and municipal activists for local remembrance investigates the relationship between the form and the content of the exhibitions and highlights the importance of authenticity and emotional evocations for Holocaust remembrance In particular it focuses on the emergence of cosmopolitan memory of the Holocaust a process with local Krak w sources DPs Mark Wyman,2014-12-02 Wyman has written a highly readable account of the movement of diverse ethnic and cultural groups of Europe s displaced persons 1945 1951 An analysis of the social economic and political circumstances within which relocation resettlement and repatriation of millions of people occurred this study is equally a study in diplomacy in international relations and in social history A vivid and compassionate recreation of the events and circumstances within which displaced persons found themselves of the strategies and means by which people survived or did not and an account of the major powers in response to an unprecedented human crisis mark this as an important book Choice The Oxford Handbook of the History of Communism S. The One-Hundred-Year Contest David Wen Zhong,2023-08-16 Zhong s latest book The One Hundred Year Contest Can America Defeat Communism is an account of America s encounters with communism after its rise and the history of its frequent failures America s encounter with communist headwinds began with the founding of the Soviet Union In 1921 the Chinese Communist Party was founded and communist forces expanded into China Successive presidents of the United States were ambiguous and vague in their understanding of the Chinese Communist Party which led to the gradual expansion of communist power It has been over 100 years since the Bolsheviks second revolution in Russia in 1917 when Lenin seized power The United States founded on democracy and freedom to fight against communism is to blame for its misjudgment which has led to a wave of communism that is still going strong today Why did communism bring such a profound disaster to humankind Looking at it from a historical perspective Zhong Wen presents the contest between the United States and communism over the past 100 years so that people can recognize the nature of communism Today China and the United States have entered the nuclear age The results of nuclear war cannot be compared to the disasters brought to humankind by the Cold War and the hot wars

Embracing the Black Swan Khalil Dindarian,2023-07-31 Our world is becoming ever more complex Among the geopolitical and macroeconomic issues currently facing mankind with serious ramifications for our future are digitalization and technology climate change and globalization Political upheaval wars natural disasters economic recessions and pandemics have all had massive negative impacts on our society In this new world various governmental and organizational decisionmakers including managers international agencies NGOs political leaders economists science technology innovators and medical professionals must all learn to anticipate and deal with these emergent risks the integration of which along with the management of black swan events has assumed paramount importance This is the huge challenge now facing us This book aimed at both academics and practitioners shows how a framework for resilience can be created to help modern organizations to not only survive but to thrive The author considers some of the organizations and bodies that can be said to be highly resilient and examines how Resilience Thinking affects different disciplines and environments He addresses the question of how resilience works and how it is applied in practice The relationship between resilience and other knowledge areas such as complexity theory strategy and risk management from both top down and bottom up perspectives is examined Situations are identified where there is a particular need for resilience and an overview of the best ways of implementing a resilience process is offered

Why Communism Did Not Collapse Martin K.

Dimitrov,2013-07-31 This volume brings together a distinguished group of scholars working to address the puzzling durability of communist autocracies in Eastern Europe and Asia which are the longest lasting type of non democratic regime to emerge after World War I The volume conceptualizes the communist universe as consisting of the ten regimes in Eastern Europe and Mongolia that eventually collapsed in 1989 91 and the five regimes that survived the fall of the Berlin Wall China Vietnam Laos North Korea and Cuba The essays offer a theoretical argument that emphasizes the importance of institutional adaptations as a foundation of communist resilience In particular the contributors focus on four adaptations of the economy of ideology of the mechanisms for inclusion of potential rivals and of the institutions of vertical and horizontal accountability The volume argues that when regimes are no longer able to implement adaptive change contingent leadership choices and contagion dynamics make collapse more likely Changing Relations Between Churches in Europe and Africa Katharina Kunter,Jens Holger Schøjrring,2008 Proceedings from the conference Changing relationships between churches in Africa and Europe in the 20th century Christian identity in the times of political crises which took place October 8 12 2005 at Makumira University College of Tumbaini University in Tanzania Revolution And Transition In East-central Europe David Mason,2018-10-08 Eastern and Western Europe continue to change in their relationship to one another and in their ongoing dynamic with the post Soviet states Economic development electoral upheaval and the Bosnian crisis all color the transition from communism to democracy and from a Cold War outlook to a new global order still taking shape In this fully revised and updated edition of his popular and critically acclaimed text David Mason brings the revolutionary events of 1989 into context with the transitional yet turbulent 1990s We see new parties new politics new constitutions and new opportunities in light of economic shock therapies left turns in recent elections and dissolving sovereignties and alliances Despite savage ethnic conflict economic scarcity and political insecurity Mason shows us that East Central Europe is consolidating and reemerging as a region to be reckoned with on the global stage Change Forces in Post-Communist Eastern Europe John P. Anchan,Michael Fullan,Eleoussa Polyzoi,2003-12-16 In this work the authors explore the complex nature and process of change in a selection of former communist countries including Russia Czech Republic Hungary Romania and East Germany The Army of Excellence John L. Romjue,1993 Asia and the Decline of Communism Young C. Kim,Gaston Joseph Sigur, The monumental events that have hastened the collapse of communism in Europe have inevitably raised major concerns about the future of Communist regimes and systems in Asia What are the prospects for reform there What do the changes in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union signify for Asia What effect would the decline of communism in Asia have on superpower relations and relations with non Communist Asian countries This volume examines these and other related questions and includes leading scholars on Chinese Japanese and Korean affairs as well as contributions by selected foreign specialists who provide their perspectives and analyses The first part offers commentary on the nature of political changes in the former Communist bloc and their implications for selected Asian countries Essays in the second part assess the likely impact of political developments on China North and South Korea Japan and Taiwan and on Japanese Soviet relations and U S Japanese economic and security relations Young C Kim and Gaston J Sigur The Walls Came Tumbling Down Gale Stokes,2012 Gale Stokes The Walls Came Tumbling Down offered one of the most respected interpretations of the East European revolutions of 1989 for many years It provides a sweeping yet vivid narrative of the two decades of developments that led from the Prague Spring of 1968 to the collapse of communism in 1989 Highlights of that narrative include among other things discussions of Solidarity and civil society in Poland Charter 77 and the Velvet Revolution in Czechoslovakia and the bizarre regime of Romania s Nicolae Ceauescu and his violent downfall In this second edition now appropriately subtitled Collapse and Rebirth in Eastern Europe Stokes not only has revised these portions of the book in the light of recent scholarship but has added three new chapters covering the post communist period including analyses of the unification of Germany and the collapse of the Soviet Union narratives of the admission of many of the countries of the region to the European Union and discussion of the unfortunate outcomes of the Wars of Yugoslav Succession in the Western Balkans

Castro's Final Hour Andres Oppenheimer,1993-10-29 Reported from inside Cuba by Pulitzer Prize winning reporter Andres Oppenheimer Castro s Final Hour chronicles the dramatic events that have crippled the more than three decades old Marxist regime of Fidel Castro From the execution of the country s most celebrated Army general in 1989 to the devastating effects of the loss of all Soviet aid the picture Oppenheimer paints is extraordinarily detailed and engrossing revealing a country on the brink of disaster He uncovers Castro s never before reported efforts to radicalize Noriega s regime in Panama the failure of his Zero Option plan to restore economic stability without outside aid and tells how in a last ditch attempt to save the country from its dire slide Castro s top aides pushed a plan to strip him of some of his powers Including exclusive interviews with Soviet officials Latin American leaders including Daniel Ortega and Manuel Noriega as well as the top echelon of current Cuban leadership and Fidel s dissident daughter Alina Castro s Final Hour is a compelling and intimate portrait of the Cuban leader and an authoritative evaluation of what the future may hold for his country Encyclopedia of
