

In contrast, the reasons that do not seem to have a strong influential impact on the delay of ABAS implementation are the need to create a new IT system in order to process accruals data (Mean 3.00), the support and commitment of hospitals' Top Management team (Mean 2.63), and finally, the satisfaction of employees with the traditional budgetary cash accounting system (Mean 2.33).

Perceived Benefits of Accrual Based Accounting Systems (ABAS)

Table 6 presents the perceptions of financial managers and chief accountants regarding the usefulness of the new accounting system in producing and presenting adequate accounting information for decision-making purposes.

Respondents were asked to indicate the extent to which they agreed with each of the statements on a five point Likert scale, with a response of one (1) indicating strong disagreement and a response of five (5) indicating strong agreement.

Table 6. Results of respondents' perception regarding the usefulness of the financial information provided by Accrual based Accounting System (ABAS)
