The Proud Robot Henry Kuttner,2012-01-15 Gallagher s robot was a beautiful genius with a talent for troubleExcerptThings often happened to Gallagher who played at science by ear He was as he often remarked a casual genius Sometimes he d start with a twist of wire a few batteries and a button hook and before he finished he might contrive a new type of refrigerating unit At the moment he was nursing a hangover A disjointed lanky vaguely boneless man with a lock of dark hair falling untidily over his forehead he lay on the couch in the lab and manipulated his mechanical liquor bar A very dry Martini drizzled slowly from the spigot into his receptive mouth He was trying to remember something but not trying too hard It had to do with the robot of course Well it didn t matter Hey Joe Gallagher said The robot stood proudly before the mirror and examined its innards Its hull was transparent and wheels were going around at a great rate inside When you call me that Joe remarked whisper And get that cat out of here Your ears aren t that good They are I can hear the cat walking about all right What does it sound like Gallagher inquired interested Jest like drums said the robot with a put upon air And when you talk it s like thunder Joe s voice was a discordant squeak so Gallagher meditated on saying something about glass houses and casting the first stone He brought his attention with some effort to the luminous door panel where a shadow loomed a familiar shadow Gallagher thought It s Brock the annunciator said Harrison Brock Let me in The door s unlocked Gallagher didn t stir He looked gravely at the well dressed middle aged man who came in and tried to remember Brock was between forty and fifty he had a smoothly massaged cleanshaven face and wore an expression of harassed intolerance Probably Gallagher knew the man He wasn t sure Oh well
