translated into their mother tongues Author Dr Sumani Sule Saa employs Professor Lamin Sanneh's groundbreaking hermeneutic of mission as translation as a grid to examine the effect of Bible translation on the lives of these two very important language groups Sule Saa first presents a brief history of the Dagomba and Konkomba and describes their very different societal structures He analyses early Christian mission involvement and documents the role of two Bible translation agencies among these people groups Through a number of case studies he illustrates the positive impact of the Bible in their mother tongues Woven throughout Dr Sule Saa discusses to what degree the Christian faith has been indigenised into the ethos and behaviour of the Dagomba and Konkomba Theological students and those interested in missions will find this book relevant as it deals with missiological issues and serves as a reference on the establishment of Christianity among the Dagomba and Konkomba Its multi disciplinary approach will also appeal to a wider audience

Making a Difference in a Globalized World Laurie A. Occhipinti, 2014-07-22 Every year an estimated 1.6 million Americans participate in short term mission trips spending over one billion dollars figures that have increased exponentially in the last two decades About one third of U.S. congregations sponsor such trips each year While they are referred to as mission trips many trips focus not on conversion or evangelism but on service projects building a playground providing medical care or serving free meals to the poor Short term mission participants have a genuine desire to transform conditions of poverty yet they don't always know how to go about it many people involved in short term mission work virtually reinvent the wheel when they design and plan their service projects Making a Difference in a Globalized World Short term Missions that Work is a guide to leaders of such trips The book presents clear insight and research from anthropologists and development professionals and encourages individuals to lead mission trips that make a greater impact on the communities that they are serving The text provides a framework for planning short term mission trips foundation for planning personal anecdotes and case studies and practical suggestions for volunteer opportunities This handbook is a vital resource for any potential mission volunteers or organizers

Churches That Make a Difference Ronald J. Sider, Philip N. Olson, Heidi Rolland Unruh, 2002-04-01 Churches over the past generations have been weakened by a failure to meet both the physical and spiritual needs of their communities Many have adopted a narrow vision focusing on only one aspect of ministry But in today's environment of faith based opportunities many Christians are eager to start reaching out to their world with both Good News and good works and therefore they are searching for appropriate ways to integrate both into their ministry In Churches That Make a Difference best selling author Ron Sider and his coauthors give those involved in community outreach a comprehensive resource for developing holistic ministry a balance of evangelism and social outreach Illustrations and helpful organizational tips detail the how to's of an effective holistic ministry Case studies that show how different churches across the United States reach out to their communities provide a variety of ideas and practical applications User friendly tools are included as well for congregational studies surveys evaluations and community assessments The authors draw on extensive experience with church ministries and faith based organizations as they share the life changing vision and biblical mandate for living the whole gospel Church leaders will be encouraged in their process of developing and maintaining a holistic ministry and local churches will rediscover a passion for loving the whole person the way Jesus did Make A Difference With Your Marketing: Teach Yourself Jonathan Gabay,2010-02-26 Make a Difference with your Marketing will help you take your marketing skills to a whole new level By honing your imaginative skills and instilling great creative planning into your marketing you can be sure that the results will keep you ahead of the competition Your author Jonathan Gabay is one of the country s most respected creative brand consultants and currently works with some of the world s biggest brand names Author of no less than 13 books and Course Director at the C I M Chartered Institute of Marketing Jonathan s unparalleled insight and experience will provide you with all you need to target brand market and sell like you never have before NOT GOT MUCH TIME One and five minute introductions to key principles to get you started AUTHOR INSIGHTS Lots of instant help with common problems and quick tips for success based on the author s many years of experience TEST YOURSELF Tests in the book and online to keep track of your progress EXTEND YOUR KNOWLEDGE Extra online articles at www.teachyourself.com to give you a richer understanding of marketing FIVE THINGS TO REMEMBER Quick refreshers to help you remember the key facts TRY THIS Innovative exercises illustrate what you ve learnt and how to use it Schools That Make a Difference Norman Henchey,Society for Advancement of Excellence in Education,2001 This report provides an analysis of a 2 year study of 12 urban public schools in Canada The purpose of the study was to examine the inner workings of secondary schools in low income settings that create high achievement for their students The schools were selected on the basis of their achievement on provincial school leaving examinations and their socioeconomic status which was based on parental income and education The sample included both high and low achieving schools to identify the factors that appeared to contribute to or inhibit student success The report begins with an overview of the study and a brief synopsis of recent school effectiveness and school improvement literature The characteristics of the schools and a brief portrait of each school are provided followed by an analysis of the patterns and behaviors found in the sample Case studies were prepared that used a qualitative method and a common framework The findings show that each school was trying to adapt to rapidly changing environments The common elements of success found among the schools were positive attitudes and high expectations strong and vigilant administration a focus on academic achievement and recognition of the need to be accountable for performance Contains 27 references RJM Strategy-specific Decision Making: A Guide for Executing Competitive Strategy William G.
