Creating Media Culture Sage Library Of Social Research V 149:

Creating Media Culture Robert P. Snow,1983-05 An analysis of each of the major mass media Newspapers books and magazines radio television and cinema are each analyzed in a separate chapter to show the satisfactions they provide the way they structure content and thus the ways in which they structure the way audiences view the world Appendices show how media affect our concept of the self and how advertisers use this power to link self image to the products they sell

List of Documents and Publications in the Field of Culture, 1981-1983 Unesco,1985 A London Bibliography of the Social Sciences ,1931 Vols 1 4 include material to June 1 1929 List of Documents and Publications in the Field of Mass Communication Unesco,1983 Accession List Canadian Radio-Television and Telecommunications Commission. Library,1983 The Racial Dynamics of Reporting Africa Omega Douglas,2025-05-21 This book critically considers how and why centring race in the analysis of journalism deepens our understanding of how race is constructed and experienced in society In doing so it offers a theoretical framework for unpacking and dismantling racism within journalism practice and representation Linking race critical post and decolonial theories to the structural constructivist framework of journalistic field theory this book examines the role of Black journalists and INGOs in reporting on sub Saharan Africa in dominant British news organisations This study goes beyond journalistic representation to consider the racial dynamics informing the production of Western news and the complex relations between journalists of colour and the institutional culture of dominant Western news organisations Through a case study and in depth original interviews the author addresses the racialisation of mainstream UK news production and news representations of Africa and shows how and why mediated racialised discourses occur and recur as well as what to do about them Advancing studies of race representation Black identities and journalism studies The Racial Dynamics of Reporting Africa contributes to decolonising journalism media and communication studies It is recommended reading for students academics and practitioners in these areas The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2005 Behind the Black Robes H. Ted Rubin,1985-09 Rubin s book is a well written examination of the issues and conflicts that are faced by the juvenile courts on a daily basis it takes readers behind the scenes for a realistic analysis The opening chapter depicts an exchange that might occur between judge child parents lawyers probation officials and social workers during a typical day The bulk of the book contains chapters on five distinguished working juvenile judges describing the style of each A final chapter simulates a meeting between the five judges to discuss policy American Book Publishing Record ,2000 Media Power David L. Altheide,1985 Altheide deals with a very simple paradox in the past people communicated in order to get something done now they must first do something in order to communicate The role of the mass media in establishing shaping and maintaining basic communication formats is the main focus of his book He looks at how mass mediated versions of events differ from those experienced first hand and at what would happen if everyone had unlimited access to television broadcasting facilities Using specific examples and case studies of current events Altheide examines the impact and implications of the mass media on a range of phenomena from international relations down to self concept This book is an important complement to that whol The Politics of Planning and Development Anthony James Catanese,1984 Survey Research by Telephone James H. Frey,1989-07 The telephone survey is now the dominant survey technique When the first edition of this volume was published many researchers were making the transition from mail to face to face interviewing to telephone surveys However much material from the first edition remains applicable today Additional material in this second edition includes a summary of changes in telephone surveys that have occurred during the last five years The author also analyzes the comparative advantages and disadvantages of mail face to face and telephone surveys and discusses the legal and ethical dilemmas raised by technological and methodological developments in telephone survey research Family Violence Richard J. Gelles,1987-10 Since its publication in 1979 Family Violence has proved to be one of the most popular volumes for professional and text use in its area The second edition reflects new concerns of family violence studies and advances in Gelles own work It includes topics that have emerged since the first edition such as elder abuse and adolescent to parent violence as well as the discovery by Gelles and his colleagues of a drastic drop in the incidence of family violence over the last decade Managing Without Managers Shan Martin,1983-04 A management consultant proposes an entirely original approach to the streamlining of public enterprise In her view workers with practical experience often know what needs to be done far better than managers She shows how management often fails in its role as source of ideas how management has grown disproportionately and how its power to make decisions has been eroded She proposes a new model in which the people who are responsible for the work are also the people who do it raises some provocative questions and presents some thoughtful arguments in support of the idea of eliminating some of the excessive layers of management in the public service American Political Science Review Vol 78 Creative Interviewing Jack D. Douglas,1985 Creative Interviewing is an extension of Douglas successful book Investigating Social Research SAGE 1976 Using new research and a distinct theoretical approach Douglas takes a fresh look at one of the social researcher s most widely used tools interviewing Moving away from more trad Neighborhoods Howard W. Hallman,1984 Hallman s in depth study begins with the basic definition that a neighbourhood is both a physical place and a social community Neighbourhoods are analysed as personal arenas where individuals perform certain classes of action e g shopping social communities where individuals work together in groups and take part in some form of collective life physical places where certain amenities are e g houses and hospitals which give an area a cohesiveness as a whole political communities of varying degrees of intensity and as little economies where people buy houses rent houses employ each other etc Making Sales Robert C. Prus,1989 Later Life Families Timothy H. Brubaker,1985-01-01 Brubaker focuses on family relationships during the later stages of the family life cycle and reviews research studies on family patterns in later life The author concludes that the later life family is alive and well but that it necessarily reflects the changes and problems associated with ageing He identifies the aspects of family relationships that require support and assistance and suggests future solutions for providing such support Books in Print ,1991

Teledemocracy F. Christopher Arterton, 1987-07 Professor Arterton presents systematic empirical research on whether direct citizen participation can be successfully mobilized through electronic media Teledemocracy offers a new approach to political communication by emphasizing participation rather than behaviour The book reviews the relationship between the communications revolution and the political process
