Creation Of Israel:

The Creation of Israel Jim Whiting,2020-02-04 The formation of the State of Israel in 1948 is one of the most important events in recent History About 3 000 years ago Israel was a powerful nation But it soon fell from power and in the second century CE most Jews were forced out of their homeland Many went to Europe where they were subject to prejudice and persecution for centuries By far the worst case was the Holocaust in which six million Jews were killed Their suffering accelerated a move toward the development of a Jewish state in what came to be called Palestine However Palestine was the home to hundreds of thousands of Arabs Conflict between the two sides was inevitable Open warfare broke out after the United Nations voted to partition Palestine into a Jewish state and an Arab state Though the Israelis achieved their independence the region has never known true peace

The Narration of Creation R.E. Franzen M.Div. BCC,2025-01-26 Imagine sitting at the feet of Jesus with Him telling you His very own story of how He created you Who better to tell God s story about you than God Himself How do we hear the purity of that story The Narration of Creation shares a progression through God s revelation of the Genesis creation in a fresh inspirational way It describes two lenses in which we interpret through and the contrast between the two God intended His story to unfold from His perspective a top down perspective rather than from the usual ground up viewpoints This study reveals the very person and nature of God Himself and in doing so offers new contributions to our understanding of God s creation story Hearing the purity of the creation narrative allows you to discover your true identity find security and belonging and feel valued and loved beyond measure Uplifting and enlightening this devotional style study invites you to view the creation story through the lens of God s attributes and nature Trajectories Bryan C. Spencer,2018-03-02 Trajectories meets an urgent need in both undergraduate and graduate study of the Old Testament Too often Old Testament theology focuses on the end product and leaves the process obscured Each chapter of Trajectories provides a clear path connecting biblical research to theological conclusions The final chapter offers a step by step method for completing a thorough hermeneutical analysis framed within a discussion of the gospel message Trajectories also seeks to situate Old Testament theology in relation to global and generational trends influencing the church and evangelical theology The implications of globalization and the rise of millennials on Old Testament theology are critical and thought provoking topics for discussion Chapters in Trajectories are organized thematically so the textbook can serve as a companion study guide to courses in the Old Testament and New Testament In addition the exploration of topics allows each study to link to the New Testament Each chapter concludes with tangible applications for the contemporary Christian church and with questions for group discussion and reflection Creation, Covenant, and the Beginnings of Judaism Ari

Mermelstein,2014-10-13 This study examines the relationship between time and history in Second Temple literature Numerous sources from that period express a belief that Jewish history began with an act of covenant formation and proceeded in linear fashion until the exile an unprecedented event which severed the present from the past The authors of Ben Sira Jubilees the Animal Apocalypse and 4 Ezra responded to this theological challenge by claiming instead that Jewish history began at creation Between creation and redemption history unfolds as a series of static repeating patterns that simultaneously account for the disappointments of the Second Temple period and confirm the eternal nature of the covenant As iterations of timeless cyclical patterns the difficult post exilic present and the glorious redemption of the future emerge as familiar unremarkable and inevitable historical developments

Race J. Kameron Carter, 2008-09-02 In Race A Theological Account J Kameron Carter meditates on the multiple legacies implicated in the production of a racialized world and that still mark how we function in it and think about ourselves These are the legacies of colonialism and empire political theories of the state anthropological theories of the human and philosophy itself from the eighteenth century Enlightenment to the present Carter's claim is that Christian theology and the signal transformation it along with Christianity underwent is at the heart of these legacies In that transformation Christian anti Judaism biologized itself so as to racialize itself As a result and with the legitimation of Christian theology Christianity became the cultural property of the West the religious ground of white supremacy and global hegemony In short Christianity became white The racial imagination is thus a particular kind of theological problem Not content only to describe this problem Carter constructs a way forward for Christian theology Through engagement with figures as disparate in outlook and as varied across the historical landscape as Immanuel Kant Frederick Douglass Jarena Lee Michel Foucault Cornel West Albert Raboteau Charles Long James Cone Irenaeus of Lyons Gregory of Nyssa and Maximus the Confessor Carter reorients the whole of Christian theology bringing it into the twenty first century Neither a simple reiteration of Black Theology nor another expression of the new theological orthodoxies this groundbreaking book will be a major contribution to contemporary Christian theology with ramifications in other areas of the humanities
