Creation Story:

A Dictionary of Creation Myths David Adams Leeming, David Adams (Professor of English and Comparative Literature Leeming, University of Connecticut), 1994 The Story of Creation Calum M. Carmichael, 2019-06-07 Calum Carmichael asserts that biblical texts both in the Old and New Testaments which have been the subject of interpretation for centuries are themselves often the products of the ancient authors interpretation of still other literary compositions Claiming that parts of the Bible constitute major and very early examples of exegesis Carmichael demonstrates that the author of the story of creation in Genesis 1 produced his work in reaction to troubling issues that arose in the story of the exodus The author of John s Gospel in turn recounted the life of Jesus in light of the story of creation Pointing out that much of modern literary criticism has roots in biblical hermeneutics Carmichael turns his attention to the richness and complexity of the ancient world s own modes of interpretation By doing so he is able to uncover the heretofore unrecognized influence of the exodus story on the creation story and of the creation story on John s Gospel Carmichael first shows how the author of the seven day scheme of creation in Genesis produced it in response to his reading of the exodus story which was centuries old in his time He then shows the extent to which the author of John s Gospel was influenced by first century cosmological speculation Philo s in particular In the first five chapters of his gospel the author elaborated the details of the creation story to present in allegorical fashion incidents from the life of Jesus Living in The Story Charlotte Vaughan Coyle, 2021-08-26 What kind of book is the Bible Is it a rulebook or a guidebook for moral living Is it a history book or a book filled with fascinating and sometimes fantastic stories Did humans write the Bible or did God somehow speak a perfect message that the authors transcribed Many people have asked these questions about the nature of this beautiful odd comforting disturbing book the church calls its Holy Scripture Charlotte Vaughan Coyle shares her own journey to make sense of the Bible in this read through the Bible in a year project She discovered that the crucial work of asking hard questions and even arguing with the Bible revealed the Scriptures to be a symphony of polyphonic voices a work of art that paints an alternative vision of reality a complex novel like story unavoidably embedded in its own culture and time and yet able to give witness to the God beyond history who has acted and continues to act within history With the heart of a pastor and the passion of a preacher Rev Coyle invites seekers and students both church and un church to strap on their scuba gear and join her for a deeper dive beneath the surface of this immense colorful mysterious world of the Bible The Creation Story for Children Helen Haidle, 2009-08-01 In the beginning God created with these words the Bible powerfully sets in motion our praise to the Creator for His awesome work Written and illustrated by David and Helen Haidle The Creation Story for Children is filled with vibrant images of the week of Creation Illustrated throughout with unique full color artwork Innovatively highlighting the unique design of twenty creatures Developed to help young learners begin to grasp the greatness of God Perfect as part of an education program or as a treasured gift this book will be an incredible addition to your school church or home library

God and the History of the Universe Jarvis Streeter, 2016-03-22 The popular belief that a scientific understanding of reality is incompatible with a Christian one is simply wrong. Some Christian understandings of reality do conflict with some scientific understandings. But a thoroughly rational Christian understanding of the origin and history of the universe will be informed by the best scientific theories and the facts founded on them. This book weaves a narrative of the origin and history of the universe from the perspective of contemporary science with a Christian understanding of God and of God's role in the origin and history of the universe. At the center of this integrated narrative is the view that God, who is pure unbounded Love, is Creator; the zest for life in the universe comes from God, and God is the source of Truth, Beauty, and Goodness in the universe. God is amazed and delighted at what God and the world has created. God is saddened by ways creatures have fallen short of pure unbounded Love, Truth, Beauty, and Goodness, and God's pure unbounded Love keeps on trying to persuade all creatures toward Truth, Beauty, and Goodness.

Psychological and Philosophical Studies of Jung's Teleology Garth Amundson, 2024-04-11 This important new volume addresses an underappreciated dimension of Jung's work: his concept of the teleology or future orientation of psychic reality. The work, authored by an international group of Jungian scholars, expands upon the socio-cultural psychological, therapeutic, and philosophical import of this key pillar of the Jungian oeuvre, offering a compelling alternative to current culturally dominant ideas about how change occurs. The book addresses varied aspects of his teleological thought generally and its application to the psychotherapeutic endeavor specifically, engaging Freudian, neo-Freudian, and related theoretical orientations in an informed dialogue about the critical issue of the emergent unfolding of subjectivity in treatment. This is an illuminating read for those interested in the study of Jungian theory, psychoanalysis, social psychology, religion, transpersonal psychology, indigenous wisdom traditions, and philosophical metapsychology.

Christianity, Second Edition Brian J. Walsh,2014-09-01 Where is Western culture going What should Christians think about it Those who already ask these questions often come up with confused answers Those who do not are arguably living in a fool's paradise or a fool's hell In this second edition of Subversive Christianity Brian Walsh returns to the themes of cultural discernment that he unpacked more than twenty years ago In a new Postscript Walsh revisits Francis Fukuyama Bruce Cockburn and the prophet Jeremiah and asks Where are we now In light of 9/11 and the world economic crisis of 2008 how do we discern the times and what does that discernment tell us about the calling of the church Wholeness Richard C.

Prust,2004 The notion of a person is in deep philosophical trouble And this has posed a deepening crisis for believers Christian beliefs are after all irreducibly about persons In response to this situation Prust proposes a new way to reason about persons one based on identifying persons as characters of action Employing a phenomenology of action he calls character logic he develops a powerful new tool for thinking through some of the intractable dilemmas that have long befuddled belief Can we avoid being arbitrary and parochial in claiming that God is the only source of moral value Can we reconcile natural evil in the world with God's absolute power Can we continue to honor the historicity of faith-based claims in the face of critical history Can our personal life be eternal when neither timeless nor everlasting life is conceivable Can we accept our personal mortality and still affirm our destiny as eternal Wholeness: The Character Logic of Christian Belief argues that character logic shows us a reasonable way to think about persons one that puts theology on a new footing and gives affirmative answers to all these questions Christian Ethics David S. Cunningham,2008-03-03 A biblical historical philosophical and theological guide to the field of Christian ethics Written in an accessible and animated style this is the essential text for students of Ethics God's EPIC Adventure Winn Griffin,2007-10 Griffin uses Bishop Tom Wright's five act play model as a way of presenting Scripture as a full length story in order to assist the reader in a better reading experience of the text Christian

Creation: Myth or Miracle? Dr. Barry A. Bunting,2019-03-11 The question this work addresses is this given our current state of knowledge are any of the major religion's creation accounts accurate or are they all myths and fables that don't hold up to close examination This work makes three assumptions Assumption no 1 If there is a creator and he provided a creation account then he should be able to get it right After all he was supposed to be there Assumption no 2 If there is a creator then one of the four major religions each of which has survived a thousand years or more is the most likely place to look for a legitimate creation account a message from our creator It is safe to say any creator capable of creating us and the universe we live in should be capable of accurately revealing his existence Assumption no 3 If we do find an ancient pre science creation account that makes a substantial number of scientific factually accurate statements not just a few lucky guesses but facts that were unknowable at the time the account was written then we can reasonably conclude there must be a creator who revealed these facts

Divine Violence and the Christus Victor Atonement Model Martyn J. Smith, 2016-09-23 In this book Martyn Smith addresses the issue of God's violence and refuses to shy away from difficult and controversial conclusions Through his wide ranging and measured study he reflects upon God and violence in both biblical and theological contexts assessing the implications of divine violence for understanding and engaging with God's nature and character Jesus too through his dramatic actions in the temple is presented as one capable of exhibiting a surprising degree of violent behavior in the furtherance of God's purposes Through a reappropriation of the ancient Christus Victor model of atonement with its dramatic representation of God's war with the Satan Smith proposes that Christian understanding of both God and salvation has to return to its long neglected past in order to move forward both biblically and dynamically into the future
