Research in Education ,1971 Supporting Children's Well-Being During Early Childhood Transition to School Tatalović Vorkapić, Sanja,LoCasale-Crouch, Jennifer,2020-10-23 Life transitions differ concerning the intensity of the change and the intensity of the child s reaction to that change For most children the first and most significant transition is from the family home to an institution of early care and education which includes preschool These transitions can also include children's passage from kindergarten to elementary school However the intensity of the child's reaction is related to the size of the change that is happening and also to who or what is involved in that change and the importance a child attributes to that someone or something Supporting Children's Well Being During Early Childhood Transition to School is an essential scholarly publication that examines evidence based practices and approaches that fully support a child's well being during transition periods in early childhood It serves as a resource to rethink contemporary transition theoretical models research studies and applied practices Featuring a wide range of topics such as emotional competency language learners and professional development this book is ideal for academicians psychologists early childhood educators daycare centers curriculum designers policymakers researchers education professionals and students Projects to Advance Creativity in Education, 1969 Resources in Education, 2001-10 Early Childhood Centers United States. General Accounting Office, 1995 This report discusses the services disadvantaged children need to prepare for school the extent to which they receive these services from early childhood centers defined as providing child development parent and health and nutrition services and the reasons early childhood centers may not deliver all the services these children need Chapter 1 describes the objectives scope and methodology of the study and the funding of early childhood programs by federal and state governments Chapter 2 discusses the full range of services needed to prepare children for school developmentally appropriate high quality services parent services and health care and nutrition services Chapter 3 presents two reasons why most disadvantaged children do not receive these services they do not attend early childhood centers and if they do attend early childhood programs the centers that they attend may provide only limited services The limited number of places available in the centers limited subsidies and narrow program missions are discussed in chapter 4 as barriers which impede centers efforts to provide services to disadvantaged children The last chapter suggests changes required in the areas of funding and program missions so that the first national education goal by the year 2000 all children will enter school ready to learn can be met This report contains seven appendices including description of selected federal programs that provide early childhood services case studies of early childhood programs in four states technical description of national data analyses standards that apply to early childhood centers and Department of Education comments Early Childhood Centers DIANE Publishing Company, 1995-08 Early Prevention of Adult Antisocial Behaviour David P. Farrington, Jeremy W. Coid, 2003-04-17 This book presents a comprehensive summary of how well adult crime antisocial behaviour and antisocial personality disorder can be prevented by interventions applied early in life It reviews important childhood risk and protective factors for these adult outcomes and the alternative strategies of primary prevention targeting the whole community and secondary prevention targeting persons identified as high risk are discussed The book also contains extensive information about prevention programmes in pregnancy and infancy pre school programmes parent education and training programmes and school programmes including the prevention of bullying There is special emphasis on preventing the intergenerational transmission of antisocial behaviour by focusing on family violence and a special review of whether risk factors and prevention programmes have different effects for females compared to males Cost benefit analyses of early prevention programmes are also reviewed leading to the conclusion that adult antisocial behaviour can be prevented both effectively and cost efficiently Research in Education ,1972 Native Women United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Indian Affairs (1993-),2012 The Hidden History of Head Start Edward Zigler,Sally J. Styfco,2010-05-07 Currently enrolling approximately 900 000 poor children each year Head Start has served 25 million children and their families since it was established 44 years ago Presidents and policymakers have embraced and scorned it At times scientists have misguided it and the media has misunderstood it Despite its longevity and renown much of Head Start s story has never been disclosed to the general public The Hidden History of Head Start is a detailed account of this remarkable program Surveying projects that were forerunners of Head Start its birth during the Johnson administration its fate during the presidency of George W Bush and the many years between as well as what the future may hold in store for Head Start Edward Zigler and Sally Styfco offer an inside view of the program s decades of service detailing the ever changing waves of politics ideology science media interest and public mood that oftentimes threatened the program s very existence Providing a balanced assessment of Head Start s effectiveness which has been a matter of debate since its inception the authors also strive to answer questions that continue to pervade discussions about the program and its future For example why is Head Start a leader of early childhood services still struggling to prove itself Why does it serve such a narrow segment of the population And how can Head Start continue its mission as universal preschool becomes a reality The Hidden History of Head Start will be of great importance to those who shape Head Start s future and to those who wish to develop research and implement new early childhood programs Students historians and scholars in the fields of early intervention and developmental science as well as policymakers will find here an invaluable resource as well as a fascinating chronicle of one of the foremost social programs in US history Parents as Partners in Education Eugenia Hepworth Berger,2004 This text uniquely provides comprehensive coverage of the history of parenting and parent school collaboration current issues and immigration trends affecting American schools and communities diverse family structures and many techniques that teaching professionals can use to engage family members of all children more completely as partners in education Chapters on working with families of children with special needs and on child abuse are remarkable aspects of this text BOOK JACKET Cognitive-Behavioral Interventions for Emotional and Behavioral Disorders Matthew J. Mayer,Richard Van Acker,John E. Lochman,Frank M. Gresham,2011-03-22 Evidence based and practical this book presents state of the science approaches for helping K 12 students who struggle with aggressive behaviors anxiety depression ADHD and autism It explains the fundamentals of cognitive behavioral intervention and reviews exemplary programs that offer powerful ways to reach at risk children and adolescents Leading authorities thoroughly describe the process of assessment treatment planning implementation and program evaluation What makes the book unique is its focus on the nitty gritty of school based intervention including how to integrate mental health services into the special education system overcome obstacles and provide needed skills to school personnel
