Creative Dramatics Vern Adix, 1986 Easy A Betty Kaklamanidou, 2018-04-24 Easy A 2010 is the last significant box office success in the high school teen movie subgenre and a film that has already been deemed a classic by many cultural commentators and popular film critics By applying interdisciplinary insight to a relatively overlooked movie in academic discussion Easy A The End of the High School Teen Comedy is the first in depth volume that places the movie within several key contexts and concepts of intertextuality gender genre and adaptation and social discourse Through the unpacking of a complex narrative that draws its plot from Nathaniel Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter 1850 and shares affinities with John Hughes paradigmatic films from the 1980s and key films from the 1990s this volume presents Easy A as a palimpsest for the millennial generation Clear and comprehensive the book argues that Easy A marks the end of the commercially successful high school teen comedy and discusses the reasons through a comparative synchronic and semi diachronic historical comparison of the film with contemporary cinematic texts and those of the 1980s and 1990s Points of Disruption in the Music Education Curriculum, Volume 2 Marshall Haning, Jocelyn A. Stevens, Brian N. Weidner, 2024-05-15 For decades scholars in the field of music education have recognized the need for growth and change in our approach to teaching music yet despite these calls for change the music education curriculum today remains remarkably similar to that of a century ago Points of Disruption in the Music Education Curriculum Volume 2 Individual Changes is one of two volumes that bring together applied suggestions analyses and best practices for disrupting cycles of replication in the curriculum of K 12 and collegiate music education programs in the United States and beyond considering disruption as a force for positive change Identifying specific strategies for interrupting or reimagining traditional practices the contributors provide music teachers and music educators with a variety of potential practical approaches to creating changes that foster a better musical education at all levels of the curriculum This second volume focuses on changes that can be implemented by individual educators covering topics including transcultural approaches student teacher power relations methods courses integrated music education and administrator support of teacher agency student teacher power relations and reimagining music education Bringing together 6 thought provoking chapters this book offers a diverse set of concrete strategies that will be useful to a wide range of music education stakeholders including teachers administrators and curriculum designers

Creativity for 21st Century Skills Jane Piirto, 2011-10-23 VERY practical on target for schools today good balance of theory with anecdotal connections At first I was worried about the time involved I discovered when given 5 minutes the time is a continuation to their work in progress Realizing that creativity does not have to consume large chunks of time is more meaningful than tokens I like the tone of the writing It feels like there is a conversation going on I like the stories of famous people and how their creativity influenced and changed their lives CREATIVITY FOR 21ST CENTURY SKILLS describes what many creative people really do when they create It focuses on the practical applications of a theoretical approach to creativity training the author has developed Many suggestions for enhancing creativity focus on ideas that are over 60 years old This new approach may be helpful for those seeking to develop 21st Century Skills of creativity Five core attitudes Naivet Risk taking Self Discipline Tolerance for Ambiguity and Group Trust Seven I s Inspiration Intuition Improvisation Imagination Imagery Incubation and Insight and several General Practices the use of ritual meditation solitude exercise silence and a creative attitude to the process of life with corresponding activities are described discussed and illustrated A discussion of how to be creative within an educational institution is also included JANE PIIRTO is Trustees Distinguished Professor at Ashland University Her doctorate is in educational leadership She has worked with students pre K to doctoral level as a teacher administrator and professor She has published 11 books both literary and scholarly and many scholarly articles in peer reviewed journals and anthologies as well as several poetry and creative nonfiction chapbooks She has won Individual Artist Fellowships from the Ohio Arts Council in both poetry and fiction and is one of the few American writers listed asboth a poet and a writer in the Directory of American Poets and Writers She is a recipient of the Mensa Lifetime Achievement Award of an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters was named an Ohio Magazine educator of distinction In 2010 she was named Distinguished Scholar by the National Association for Gifted Children Resources in Education ,2001-04
