Luce,1980-04 The Restoration Covenant Jamie L. Perez,2002 Noah was a man of his time He faced the same temptations and urges as his neighbors but with a difference He resisted those urges Instead of seeking instant gratification Noah was willing to wait He knew that the violence and wickedness around him brought no one any lasting pleasure as Cain had clearly illustrated Violence bred more violence until all hope of security and peace was lost Those who tried to resist it were either seduced into it or killed until only one righteous man remained If God were going to salvage mankind Noah was God s last hope This Bible study is designed to bring Noah s struggles and conflicts into your living room and into your heart You may rejoice with his victories and cry with his defeats but most importantly learn from his life God s commands were heart wrenching How could Noah willingly participate in God s plan His obedience would bring death to his family friends and society Almost everyone and everything he ever knew would be lost How could he live through such a great personal loss Gather your friends together This is an experience you will want to share Noah s legacy it is a story to remember Heart of Listening Hugh Milne,1998 This deluxe hardcover editions contains both Volume I and II of The Heart of Listening Milne a third generation Scottish osteopath begins by explaining the visionary approach to healing and how it may be applied to the realm of craniosacral work He explains the importance of meditation centering and the cultivation of heartfulness in the development of compassionate practice Milne introduces the reader to the story of visionary work its genesis evolution philosophy and practice and explains how a grounding in meditation sensitive touch and intuitive perception can lead to a remarkable unfoldment in skill development In the second volume Milne details the anatomy physiology energetics and techniques that are the essential core of visionary craniosacral work His particular genius lies in his ability to weave a delicate tapestry of narrative poetry and scientific fact into a fascinating and insightful exposition of the visionary healing arts
