If you like this book, write a review: Crafting Creativity & Creating Craft Courtney Lee Weida, 2014-11-04. This nine chapter volume explores creativity in art teaching through contemporary craft. A variety of artists, educators, and historians share with readers their wealth of practical resources and frameworks for utilizing craft media: fiber, ceramics, baskets, needlepoint, knitting, etc., and craft approaches: grassroots projects, digital communities, craftivism, etc., within contemporary K-12 art education, museum and community programming, and teaching artist residencies. Authors representing a variety of specialties in craft, art, and education examine the resurgence of the handmade and homemade in contemporary youth culture, digital implications of how we define and teach craft creatively, and the overlap of design, function, and beauty in artists' work. The anthology also describes the challenges and potentialities of working with craft in education settings, including the overarching craft of teaching practices. Each chapter provides a range of creative frameworks and practical models that educators can use comprehensively, from dynamic digital resources to community groups and lesson plans, and activities in craft with art classes and special needs classes. The book serves to propose a working definition and rationale of the functions of craft in daily life, popular and youth culture, and larger social issues, including craft, D I Y, and activism, craftivism. Crafting Identity Sandra Alföldy, 2005-07-26. By contrasting American experience with the Canadian context, which includes a unique Quebec identity and a Native dimension, Sandra Alföldy argues that the development of organizations, advanced education for craftspeople, and exhibition and promotional opportunities have contributed to the distinct evolution of professional craft in Canada over the past forty years. Alföldy focuses on 1964-74 and the debates over distinctions between professional, self-taught, and amateur craftspeople, and between one-of-a-kind and traditional craft objects. She deals extensively with key people and events, including American philanthropist

Aileen Osborn Webb and Canadian philanthropist Joan Chalmers the foundation of the World Crafts Council 1964 and the Canadian Crafts Council 1974 the Canadian Fine Crafts exhibition at Expo 67 and the In Praise of Hands exhibition of 1974 Drawing upon a wealth of previously unexploited materials this richly documented survey includes descriptions and illustrations of significant works and identifies the challenges that lie ahead for professional crafts in Canada
