Women Elizabeth Teresa Howe,2016-04-08 Women s life writing in general has too often been ignored dismissed or relegated to a separate category in those few studies of the genre that include it The present work addresses these issues and offers a countervailing argument that focuses on the contributions of women writers to the study of autobiography in Spanish during the early modern period There are indeed examples of autobiographical writing by women in Spain and its New World empire evident as early as the fourteenth century Memorias penned by Do a Leonor L pez de Cord ba and continuing through the seventeenth century Cartas of Sor Juana In s de la Cruz What sets these accounts apart the author shows are the variety of forms adopted by each woman to tell her life and the circumstances in which she adapts her narrative to satisfy the presence of male critics whether ecclesiastic or political actual or imagined who would dismiss or even alter her life story Analyzing how each of these women viewed her life and conversely how their contemporaries both male and female received and sometimes edited her account Howe reveals the tension in the texts between telling a life and telling a lie Autobiography on the Spectrum Beth A. Myers, 2019-05-17 Autobiography on the Spectrum challenges prevailing notions about autism by offering a critically unconventional perspective the viewpoint of adolescents who are themselves on the spectrum Examining a year long inquiry Myers highlights the autobiographical works of the students through writing photography poetry art and more She argues that autistic youth are not being accurately depicted in current research not because they are unable to represent their own experiences but because their experiences are not always valued In contrast this book explores how autistic youth can and do represent themselves and shows educators how to create a space for the voices of these students Offering a deep look into a world that is rarely seen Autobiography on the Spectrum is a critical resource for teacher preparation and professional learning in any field that interacts with individuals with autism or other disabilities A powerful counternarrative to deficit perspectives that characterize autism in terms of deficiency and disease Curt Dudley Marling professor emeritus Boston College This book's needs to be in the hands of teachers everywhere Douglas Biklen dean emeritus Syracuse University School of Education and co producer of Academy Award nominated documentary Autism is a World This important book illustrates many ways educators can expand how they listen to autistic children and adolescents Paula Kluth consultant author and independent scholar Making Connections Mary Kennedy, Cathy Lubelska, Val Walsh, 1993 First Published in 1993 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company Write That Memoir Right Now Kim Brittingham, 2013-01-01 If you want to put your life story down in words where do you start Exactly what story are you hoping to tell How are you going to fill hundreds of pages How do you plan it out Memoirist blogger and writing teacher Kim Brittingham shares her insight into getting started with your writing and crafting your memoir Starting with the basic questions every writer should ask themselves such as why do you want to write a memoir what story do you want to tell what form should your story take who is the audience and most importantly why does anyone care Kim shares her experience and her wisdom reviewing key aspects of the writing process including characterization plotting theme focus point of view editing and revising And she adds extra information on the business of getting published and ways to get your story read The Routledge Introduction to American Life Writing Amy Monticello, Jason Tucker, 2023-07-31 The stories of lived experience offer powerful representations of a nation's complex and often fractured identity Personal narratives have taken many forms in American literature From the letters and journals of the famous and the lesser known to the memoirs of former slaves to hit true crime podcasts to lyric essays to the curated archives we keep on social media life writing has been a tool of both the influential and the disenfranchised to spark cultural and political evolution to help define the larger identity of the nation and to claim a sense of belonging within it Taken together individual stories of real American lives weave a tapestry of history humanity and art while raising questions about the veracity of memory and the slippery nature of truth This volume surveys the forms of life writing that have contributed to the richness of American literature and shaped American discourse It examines life writing as a rhetorical tool for social change and explores how technological advancement has allowed ordinary Americans to chronicle and share their lives with others
