Working With Troubled Men Morley D. Glicken,2006-04-21 This book offers a concise readable research grounded synthesis of the special concerns mental health and other helping professionals need to address when working with men today and explains a wealth of effective gender specific approaches to assessment and intervention that result in more successful outcomes for male clients Many more women than men seek counseling and therapy and to some extent standard services have evolved in response to female styles of communicating and problem solving Practitioners frequently feel frustrated and baffled by their male clients because they seem unresponsive to treatment approaches that work so well for women But many men benefit from therapy when practitioners understand male socialization and the ways men communicate and problem solve Too many men today are doing badly and are in real need of help Almost half of America s male children grow up in single parent homes headed by mothers where they seldom have male mentors or role models Fewer men than women attend or graduate from college and increasing levels of binge drinking and date rape on campuses paint a discouraging picture of men on campus Male violence continues to be a serious problem in many American communities with male youth violence continuing at epidemic levels Men die younger than women overall and in much higher proportions from suicide homicide and cirrhosis of the liver

Guide to the Study of Ancient Magic David Frankfurter,2019-03-19 In the midst of academic debates about the utility of the term magic and the cultural meaning of ancient words like mageia or khesheph this Guide to the Study of Ancient Magic seeks to advance the discussion by separating out three topics essential to the very idea of magic The three major sections of this volume address

1 indigenous terminologies for ambiguous or illicit ritual in antiquity 2 the ancient texts manuals and artifacts commonly designated magical or used to represent ancient magic and 3 a series of contexts from the written word to materiality itself to which the term magic might usefully pertain The individual essays in this volume cover most of Mediterranean and Near Eastern antiquity with essays by both established and emergent scholars of ancient religions In a burgeoning field of magic studies trying both to preserve and to justify critically the category itself this volume brings new clarity and provocative insights This will be an indispensable resource to all interested in magic in the Bible and the Ancient Near East ancient Greece and Rome Early Christianity and Judaism Egypt through the Christian period and also comparative and critical theory Contributors are Magali Bailliot Gideon Bohak Vronique Dasen Albert de Jong Jacco Dieleman Esther Eidinow David Frankfurter Fritz Graf Yuval Harari Naomi Janowitz Sarah Iles Johnston Roy D Kotansky Arpad M Nagy Daniel Schwemer Joseph E Sanzo Jacques van der Vliet Andrew Wilburn Tracking the Wild Woman Archetype Stacey Shelby, 2018-01-22

Integral Relationships: A Manual for Men Martin Ucik, 2010-08 A Practical Guide to the Psychology of Relationships John Karter, 2012-04-05 Understanding psychological techniques can help you make your relationships happier and more fulfilling This Practical Guide will help you achieve new and healthier ways of relating by explaining some of the major underlying psychological drivers that permeate relationships and identify and work on these unconscious motivating factors to eliminate knee jerk reactions Filled with straightforward practical advice case studies and examples Introducing Psychology of Relationships will help you understand your relationship and make it more loving and mutually supportive as well as be better equipped for entering into a new relationship The Making of the Good Person Nora Hämäläinen, 2023-04-03 This book provides a philosophical assessment of the idea of personhood advanced in popular self help literature It also traces within academic philosophy and philosophical scholarship a self help culture where the self is brought forth as an object of improvement and a key to meaning progress and profundity Unlike other academic treatments of the topic of self help this book is not primarily concerned with providing a critique of popular self help and self transformative practices Rather it is concerned with how they work to shape contemporary forms and ideals of moral personhood and are conducive to moral renegotiation and change The book consists of two parts with somewhat different argumentative strategies Part 1 consists of an overview and reassessment of popular self help literature and its sociological and journalistic critics written from a moral philosophical perspective Part 2 opens with discussion of the current attraction among a range of philosophers to self transformative themes The chapters assess the strand of self transformative philosophy found in the work of Ludwig Wittgenstein Michel Foucault Pierre Hadot Stanley Cavell and Iris Murdoch Finally the book concludes with a discussion of the theme of social change and moral renegotiation in contemporary societies which is a central but underestimated undercurrent in discussions on contemporary self transformative practices The book's dual perspective on both popular self help and self transformative currents in philosophy enables a cultural and moral philosophical analysis of contemporary ethical ideals of personhood as well as reflection on the literatures available for its development The Making of the Good Person will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in moral philosophy history of philosophy psychology sociology and literary studies
