Harri Baker,Jane Browning,2008-07-01 Once again the State of Arkansas has adopted An Arkansas History for Young People as an official textbook for middle level and or junior high school Arkansas history classes This fourth edition incorporates new research done after extensive consultations with middle level and junior high teachers from across the state curriculum coordinators literacy coaches university professors and students themselves It includes a multitude of new features and is now full color throughout This edition has been completely redesigned and now features a modern format and new graphics suitable for many levels of student readers The Development of the Alternative Black Curriculum, 1890-1940 Alana D. Murray,2018-06-26 This book examines black intellectual thought during from 1890 1940 and its relationship to the development of the alternative black curriculum in social studies Inquiry into the alternative black curriculum is a multi disciplinary project it requires an intersectional approach that draws on social studies research educational history and black history Exploring the gendered construction of the alternative black curriculum Murray considers the impact of Carter G Woodson and W E B DuBois in creating the alternative black curriculum in social studies and its subsequent relationship to the work of black women in the field and how black women developed the alternative black curriculum in private and public settings Creating America ,2002-02-02 Founding Myths Ray Raphael,2014-07-04 The tenth anniversary edition of the book that showed why we must move past historical nonsense so that a truer more democratic national record can emerge School Library Journal Originally published to universal acclaim award winning historian Ray Raphael s Founding Myths has since established itself as a landmark of historical myth busting With Raphael s trademark wit and flair Founding Myths exposed the errors and inventions in America s most cherished tales from Paul

Revere's famous ride to Patrick Henry's Liberty or Death speech. For the thousands who have been captivated by Raphael's eye-opening accounts, history has never been the same. In this revised tenth anniversary edition, Raphael revisits the original myths and further explores their evolution over time, uncovering new stories and peeling back new layers of misinformation. This new edition also examines the highly politicized debates over America's past as well as how our approach to history in school reinforces rather than corrects historical mistakes. A book that explores the truth behind the stories of the making of our nation, National Public Radio's revised edition of Founding Myths will be a welcome resource for anyone seeking to separate historical fact from fiction. Creating America, 2005 Creating America, 2006 Combines motivating stories with research-based instruction that helps students improve their reading and social studies skills as they discover the past. Every lesson of the textbook is keyed to California content standards and analysis skills. Creating America, 2005-12-28
