Creating Women:

Creating Women's Theology Monica A. Coleman, Nancy R. Howell, Helene Tallon Russell, 2011-09-22 Creating Women's Theology engages women's questions Can women from different religious traditions engage one theological approach Can one philosophical approach support feminist religious thought What kind of belief follows women's criticism of traditional Christianity Creating Women's Theology offers a portrait of how some women have found room for faith and feminism For the last twenty five years women religion scholars have synthesized process philosophy with their feminist sensibilities and faith commitments to highlight the value of experience the importance of freedom and the interdependence of humanity God and all creation Cutting across cultural and religious traditions process relational feminist thought represents a theology that women have created This volume offers an introduction to process and feminist theologies before presenting selections from canonical works in the field with study questions This volume includes voices from Christianity Judaism goddess religion the Black church and indigenous religions Creating Women's Theology invites new generations of undergraduate seminary and university graduate students to the methods and insights of process relational feminist theology Creating Business Value and Competitive Advantage With Social Entrepreneurship Iyigun, N. Oyku, 2018-07-20 The field of social entrepreneurship is attracting attention from multiple industries Social entrepreneurs are responsible for finding ways to creatively contribute to society by providing affordable products and services Creating Business Value and Competitive Advantage With Social Entrepreneurship is a useful scholarly resource that examines the broad topic of social entrepreneurship by looking at relevant theoretical frameworks and fundamental terms Focused on topics such as creating business value promoting social entrepreneurship and enacting programs of social change this book provides the latest research and practical solutions concerning social entrepreneurship The source proves valuable to academicians researchers entrepreneurship practitioners and individuals interested in learning more about social entrepreneurship Social Status of Women in Developing Countries Man Singh Das, Vijay Kumar Gupta, 1995 The book focuses on the past traditional roles of women and also identifies direction of change rate of change and the causes of change in women's status It has also been pointed out that these recent developments in the status of women may become the future sociology of changing sex roles in the developing countries and may recast marriage and family in new and different molds Stabilizing and Empowering Women in Higher Education: Realigning, Recentering, and Rebuilding Schnackenberg, Heidi L., Simard, Denise A., 2023-09-29 Stabilizing and Empowering Women in Higher Education Realigning Recentering and Rebuilding is a book that addresses the challenges faced by women leaders in higher education during the current pandemic The book is written by experts in the field and draws on emerging evidence based practices and personal narratives to provide insights into strategies for emotional balance self care and wellbeing for women leaders It explores the challenges faced by women leaders in higher education and offers solutions for their wellbeing including reframing and reinventing oneself during the pandemic This volume is an essential read for women in leadership faculty administrators professional staff graduate students and researchers It provides valuable information and perspectives on creating access for marginalized groups using roles as women leaders to create change and nurturing and empowering women in leadership Overall it is a persuasive and powerful book that will help readers to realign recenter and rebuild in their personal and professional lives Women Creating Classics Emily Hauser, Helena Taylor, 2025-07-10 From Madeline Miller's Song of Achilles 2012 to Natalie Haynes A Thousand Ships 2019 there has been a huge rise in women's literary receptions of classics in recent years This first volume in a two volume set explores the different ways that women have retold and responded to classics as well as how these responses might resist or unpack the tensions inherent in notions of gender race canonicity class and cultural heritage Looking at extraordinary women writers such as Sappho Lucrezia Marinella and Virginia Woolf to Toni Morrison Roz Kaveney and Zadie Smith this volume demonstrates centrality of women's creations in the world of classics Growing Women in Ministry Anna R. Morgan, 2024-10-29 While many aspects of leadership development are similar for women and men women face different cultural expectations and have different experiences than their male counterparts Anna Morgan's own experiences in pastoral ministry leadership launched her search for a holistic way to grow the skills influence and authority of women who are gifted and called as leaders This book provides a positive comprehensive research based model for developing women in church and ministry leadership Morgan identifies seven aspects of leadership development that form a woman over her lifetime Three work inwardly as a woman grows in leadership spiritual calling giftedness and emotional intelligence Four work externally to shape her authority and influence home life supports ministry leadership contexts leadership relationships and communication Growing Women in Ministry offers a new way to understand how women leaders are formed and how they rise to become influential leaders in positions of authority in churches and ministries It is written in a clear accessible style for both female ministry leaders and men seeking to promote female leaders It includes policy suggestions strategies values for ideal growing conditions and discussion questions making it an ideal resource for ministry practical theology and leadership courses church and parachurch leaders and pastors Women Re-Creating Classics Emily Hauser, Helena Taylor, 2025-07-10 Drawing together an interdisciplinary range of scholarly and creative voices this volume looks at contemporary discussions surrounding women's engagement with the classical past There is a discussion as to why classical creative retellings are so popular now as well as considerations of what creativity can do to foster new ways of thinking and writing about classics thus blurring the boundary between the creative and the critical In particular the contributors engage with debates on how to make classics more accessible through the medium of creative works so that it is not just a discipline for the selective few Women's Writing and the Circulation of Ideas George Justice, Nathan Tinker, 2002-03-07 It was widely believed that women in Renaissance and early modern England either did not write or did not publish their work It has become clear that instead of using the emerging technology of print

many women writers circulated their works by hand with friends copying and recopying poems plays and novels from each other or with the help of professional scribes Through manuscript publication women s writing reached wide audiences and was collected and admired by both men and women Women s Writing and the Circulation of Ideas contributes to the discovery and re evaluation of women writers by examining the writing and manuscript publication of key authors from 1550 to 1800 The collection s analysis of the range and meaning of women s writing and manuscript publication during the rise of the print industry alters our understanding of the history of the book and early modern British literature alike Gender and Women's Leadership Karen O'Connor,2010-08-18 These volumes provide an authoritative reference resource on leadership issues specific to women and gender with a focus on positive aspects and opportunities for leadership in various domains Bit by Bit Catalyst (Organization),2003 A toolkit loaded with company practices examples tips and advice The four booklets will help you Get a handle on the issues identify and manage talent and make work life effectiveness work
