Jung and the Jungians on Myth Steven F. Walker, 2002 In this book Steven Walker carefully leads the reader through the fundamentals of the psychology that underlies Jung's theory of myth He defines key terms and distinguishes dream from fantasy in psychological experience He then traces the lineage of Jungian theory from Jung through such disciples as Van Franz and Neumann to contemporary archetypal psychology By applying Jungian psychology to an array of myths to illustrate core concepts of this theoretical tradition Walker fills a conspicuous gap in the current literature on Jung from back cover

A Theological Anthropology of Self-Realization Jennifer Slater O.P., 2012-07-31 The book addresses the intriguing problem of human self realization precisely because of the diverse uses of the term which ranges from abstract philosophical theological theories to practical psychological spiritual applications Jennifer Slater draws the concept from Karl Rahner the twentieth German theologian who uses the term self realization in his theology on freedom and symbolism relating it to the basic free choice which the human person makes to be for or against God Divine Jennifer Slater explores this fundamental free choice which is at the same time a basic choice about oneself She writes from the understanding that the human person is radically free to become the choices she or he makes and freedom is the capacity for definitive self realization In the book she shows that in the exercising of freedom humans precisely as historical beings are also transcendent beings Jennifer grapples with the perception that since human self realization involves the power to make decisions which in reality actualizes a persons own reality how then does this self realization come about and where does the Divine fit into the process If self realization is related to the human self and to the Divine Self she then questions what constitutes the self and self realization This struggle practically employs the woman in general and in particular the woman consecrated to a vowed life The pervasive question throughout is What constitutes the self realization of a human woman being

The Self and the Lotus: A Jungian View of Indian Buddhism, Volume II George R. Elder, 2023-05-30 It is obvious to thoughtful persons that our culture is undergoing a major transition as is our religion the carrier of values and guide to meaning It is essential therefore that we understand how religion functions when a culture is alive and well Observing how it has functioned elsewhere in another time and place is a good way to gain objectivity about the religious life And this survey of ancient Indian Buddhism serves that purpose It is important too that we try to interpret ancient wisdom in a modern way so that it has meaning for us Thus this work on Buddhism introduces the psychology of C G Jung and demonstrates to what extent Jung knew about Buddhism how he used it to comment upon the psychology of religion in general This is the second volume of a two volume work Following the first volume s exploration of the Life of the Buddha and Early Buddhist teaching this volume explores Mahayana teaching Buddhist Philosophy and Tantra At important junctures of the discussion the author pauses to reflect from the point of view of Jungian psychology
