Creation Christology Pb 2002:

PB Handbook for the Study of the Historical Jesus (4 vols) Tom Holmén, Stanley E. Porter, 2010-12-24 A hundred years after A Schweitzer's Von Reimarus zu Wrede the study of the historical Jesus is again experiencing a renaissance Ongoing since the beginning of the 1980s this renaissance has produced an abundance of Jesus studies that also display a welcome diversity of methods approaches and hypotheses The Handbook of the Study of the Historical Jesus is designed to handle this diversity and abundance Drawing from first class scholarship throughout the world the four large volumes of the Handbook offer a unique assembly of leading experts presenting their approaches to the historical Jesus as well as a thought out compilation of original studies on a large variety of topics pertaining to Jesus research and adjacent areas Signs of Salvation Anthony M Moore, 2013-09-26 Was Mary Magdalene really mistaken when she took the Risen Lord to be a gardener working near the tomb where Christ was laid after the crucifixion In this compelling volume Anthony M Moore persuasively argues that Jesus must be recognised at atheological level as the Gardener the Creator God Himself The author skilfully examines the strong evidence available to the reader that the narrative material of the Book of Signs John 2 12 together with the High Priestly Prayer of John 17 is deliberately infused with the fundamental theme of creation The first sentence of the Gospel in the beginning meaningfully echoes the start of Genesis and sets the tone for what is to come Creation indicators or leitmotifs which link the signs narratives in the Fourth Gospel to the sequence of the days of creation are unpicked in this volume in a careful survey of the placement of particular nouns and verbs within the narratives and how often they occur Upon these foundations the author builds his strikingly original thesis that each miraculous sign of John 2 12 corresponds to a day of creation and that subtly but unmistakably John intends to reveal Jesus as the Creator in all His glory A book that offers a novel and enlightening way of reading John's Gospel Signs of Salvation will interest any reader seeking a deeper understanding of a fundamental truth about Christ's nature He is the God of creation at one with and participating in the creative work of the Father Mapping Systematic Theology in Africa Ernst M Conradie, Charl E Fredericks, 2004-08-01 The emergence of an indigenous African theology especially since the 1960s is well documented A wealth of literature has been published in the context of African theology especially over the last two or three decades This indexed bibliography contains a number of publications in and for the African context specifically relevant to the fields of systematic theology and ethics Theology Is for Preaching Chase R. Kuhn, Paul Grimmond, 2021-03-10 Is it right to just preach the text Why do we preach and do theology How do we relate them And how do they relate to God's word Theology Is for Preaching helps preachers with theology and theologians with preaching Though diverse in contexts and disciplines the contributors share a commitment to equipping the saints to rightly handle the word of truth Through essays on foundations methods employing theology for preaching and preaching for theology this volume will equip preachers and theologians to engage deeply with the text of the Bible and communicate its meaning with clarity All God's Creatures Daniel P.

Horan,2020-07-07 The predominant stewardship model of creation is the result of an intentional effort to correct approaches that reinforce human sovereignty and the resulting environmental degradation However as All God s Creatures argues the stewardship model actually does not offer a correction but rather reinscribes many of the very same pitfalls After close analysis of the stewardship model this book identifies scriptural theological and philosophical sources to support the adoption of a community of creation paradigm Drawing on postcolonial theory this book proposes the concept of planetarity as a framework for conceiving the relationship between human and nonhuman creation and the Creator in a new way This theoretical framework is grounded by a retrieval of the medieval Franciscan theological and philosophical tradition The result is what can be called a postcolonial Franciscan theology of creation imagined in terms of planetarity providing a constructive and nonanthropocentric response to the need for a new conceptualization of the doctrine of creation Indian National Bibliography B. S. Kesavan,2007-08 Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2002-04 The Oxford Dictionary of Late Antiquity Oliver Nicholson,2018-04-19 The Oxford Dictionary of Late Antiquity is the first comprehensive reference book covering every aspect of history culture religion and life in Europe the Mediterranean and the Near East including the Persian Empire and Central Asia between the mid 3rd and the mid 8th centuries AD the era now generally known as Late Antiquity This period saw the re establishment of the Roman Empire its conversion to Christianity and its replacement in the West by Germanic kingdoms the continuing Roman Empire in the Eastern Mediterranean the Persian Sassanian Empire and the rise of Islam Consisting of over 1 5 million words in more than 5 000 A Z entries and written by more than 400 contributors it is the long awaited middle volume of a series bridging a significant period of history between those covered by the acclaimed Oxford Classical Dictionary and The Oxford Dictionary of the Middle Ages The scope of the Dictionary is broad and multi disciplinary across the wide geographical span covered from Western Europe and the Mediterranean as far as the Near East and Central Asia it provides succinct and pertinent information on political history law and administration military history religion and philosophy education social and economic history material culture art and architecture science literature and many other areas Drawing on the latest scholarship and with a formidable international team of advisers and contributors The Oxford Dictionary of Late Antiquity aims to establish itself as the essential reference companion to a period that is attracting increasing attention from scholars and students worldwide Silhouettes of the Soul Otto Von Busch,Jeanine Viau,2022-02-10 What is the relationship between the soul or inner life and what we wear in the making of identity and belief What bearing do religious and political belonging respectability and resistance have on the way in which we dress Why have more traditional religious practices been so prescriptive about body adornment Historically fashionable dress and religion have been positioned as polar opposites Silhouettes of the Soul brings them together placing them in conversation with each other By moving beyond traditional social scientific and historical analysis of religious attire and adornment the book presents a variety of disciplinary approaches from across regional social and religious locations

Paul Among the Gentiles: A "Radical" Reading of Romans Jacob P. B. Mortensen, 2018-08-13 This exciting new interpretation of Paul's Letter to the Romans approaches Paul's most famous letter from one of the newest scholarly positions within Pauline Studies The Radical New Perspective on Paul also known as Paul within Judaism As a point of departure the author takes Paul's self designation in 11:13 as apostle to the gentiles as so determining for Paul's mission that the audience of the letter is perceived to be exclusively gentile The study finds confirmation of this reading strategy in the letter's construction of the interlocutor from chapter 2 onwards Even in 2:17 where Paul describes the interlocutor as someone who calls himself a Jew it requests to perceive this person as a gentile who presents himself as a Jew and not an ethnic Jew If the interlocutor is perceived in this way throughout the letter the dialogue between Paul and the interlocutor can be perceived as a continuous unified and developing dialogue In this way this interpretation of Romans sketches out a position against a more disparate and fragmentary interpretation of Romans

Religion, Equalities, and Inequalities Dawn Llewellyn, Sonya Sharma, 2016-07-22 Presenting cutting edge research on how religion can confront and obscure social inequalities in everyday life Religion Equalities and Inequalities argues that when religion is left out of social scientific analyses it can result in incomplete analyses that conceal pathways to social inclusion and exclusion Bringing together an international and interdisciplinary group of contributors who operate at the vanguard of theoretical and empirical work on how social structures of power institutions and bodies can generate equalities and inequalities in religion the collection shows how religion can enable and challenge the inequities that affect people s everyday lives Academics and students of religious studies sociology politics and social policy will all find this book offers useful insights into the relationship between religion and contemporary culture

The Power of Saving Wisdom Cornelis Bennema,2002 Cornelis Bennema elucidates the soteriological function of the Spirit in the Fourth Gospel and analyzes the interrelationship between John s pneumatology and soteriology along the trajectory of wisdom As a possible conceptual background for aspects of Johannine pneumatology he selects the Jewish wisdom tradition and suggests that sapient Judaism understood salvation as an intensification of that work of the Spirit that is already immanent to a person namely the mediation of life and wisdom The development of an overall model of Johannine soteriology which holds together both the relational and cognitive aspects of salvation assists in identifying the specific activities in which the Spirit is involved The author argues that the soteriological function of the Spirit is twofold First the Spirit creates a saving relationship between the believer and the Father and Son by mediating to people the saving wisdom present in Jesus life giving teaching The Spirit thus enables the believer to come to an adequate understanding and belief response Second the Spirit sustains this saving relationship through further mediation of wisdom that enables the believer to demonstrate discipleship as an ongoing belief response Hence the Spirit accomplishes his soteriological role precisely in his function as a life giving cognitive agent i e through the mediation of saving wisdom the Spirit provides cognitive perception understanding and so life This concept of the Spirit is the most important continuity between the models of salvation in sapient Judaism and in the Fourth Gospel

Christ and Creation Noel O'Sullivan,2009 This book sets out to interpret Henri de Lubac s theology of creation from a christological perspective The challenge of this research has been the absence of a systematic christology in the writings of de Lubac Yet it is possible to posit a Lubacian christology by sifting through the author s work on a myriad of subjects The point of entry is the patristic distinction between image and likeness whereby image is understood as an inamissible seal which bestows the divine prerogatives of reason freedom immortality and dominion over nature Likeness is a potential given at creation and realised in the course of the economy of salvation De Lubac describes it variously as divinisation divine union the supernatural dignity of the human being and participation in the internal movement of the Trinity The originality of this book consists in the gradual emergence of the role of Christ in the process whereby image becomes likeness De Lubac records his intention to publish a book on Jesus Christ an ambition he never realised The present book does not just illustrate the omnipresence of Christ in the writings of de Lubac but dares to delineate what a Lubacian christology would look like

Creation and Christology Masanobu Endō,2019 Since previous scholarship has searched for figures equivalent to the personified Logos in the Johannine Prologue scholars have often ignored the context of which the Genesis creation account is the center Masanobu Endo examines that reference to the Genesis creation account as it appears in contexts where the unique identity of God is maintained In eschatological contexts the realization of eschatological salvation is strongly expected on the grounds of the sovereignty of God which is known in his work of creation This observation of the theological function of the Genesis creation account in the Second Temple period may shed light on the question of why reference is made to the Genesis creation account in the Johannine prologue What this means is that the descriptions of the identity of the Word the Son in the Johannine prologue were made on the grounds of Jewish monotheistic speculation about the identity of God the Creator
