Reynolds,1884 The History of Creation Ernst Heinrich Philipp August Haeckel,1876 Faith in the Living God, 2nd Edition John Polkinghorne,Michael Welker,2019-04-12 In this book John Polkinghorne and Michael Welker explain how they understand faith in the living God Between them they offer a binocular vision from their twin perspectives to yield helpful insight in relation to the important issues Part of the fascination of this book is how two people with such different backgrounds approach central theological questions relating to the faith they both share Their concerns are truth rather than polemics reliability rather than simple certainty They seek to anchor their thought in concrete particulars rather than abstract generalizations They ask the questions that trouble the inquiring mind and meet head on the challenge as well as the reassurances of belief This second edition provides a new Preface and updated bibliographies Christian Faith B. A. Gerrish, 2015-08-24 At the beginning of Christian Faith B. A. Gerrish reminds us that dogmatics involves critical transmission of the Christian heritage The dogmatic theologian must interpret and assess the traditional beliefs of the church while also considering the new and changing conditions in which that tradition is being embodied With that Gerrish goes on to outline the various presuppositions and affirmations of the Christian faith before ultimately offering a powerful and compelling restatement of Christian faith for the twenty first century As part of his framework Gerrish includes a critical comparison of Calvin's Institutes of the Christian Religion and Schleiermacher's Christian Faith while still paying close attention to the great cloud of theological witnesses from across the spectrum of Christian traditions Gerrish's book provides a robust and penetrating revisioning of Christian theology one that is thoroughly grounded in the classical traditions of the church

Creation and Judgement Stefan Paas, 2021-10-11 This book explores how the books of Amos Hosea and Isaiah use language of creation This is done by a religion of history approach of ancient Israel with respect to its belief in YHWH as a Creator and by an exegetical survey of the relevant texts in the prophets mentioned It is established that creation language was introduced in Israel long before the Exile and is used in a flexible manner depending on context and situation Elaborate attention is given to its use in contexts of judgement This study is relevant for students of the prophets who are looking for a thorough discussion of many texts and a critical examination of some popular views on creation in the Bible From Logos to Christos Ellen M.
