Arizona Portrait Of America:

U.S.I.S. Video Library Catalog United States Information Agency, Statewide Audiovisual Service ... Catalog Florida. Statewide Audiovisual Service,1997 American Book Publishing Record ,2003 American Photography Miles Orvell,2003 150 years of American photography come alive in this exciting new book placing it in its cultural context for the first time Orvell examines this fascinating subject through a wide range of well known and less well known images He ranges from portraiture and landscape photography family albums and memory and analyses the particularly American way in which American photographers have viewed the world around them Orvell combines a clear overview of the changing nature of photographic thinking and practice in this period with an exploration of key concepts The result is the first coherent history of American photography which examines issues such as the nature of photographic exploitation experimental techniques the power of the photograph to shock and whether we should subscribe to the notion of a visual history American

Buddhism Christopher Queen,Duncan Ryuken Williams,2013-10-18 This is the first scholarly treatment of the emergence of American Buddhist Studies as a significant research field Until now few investigators have turned their attention to the interpretive challenge posed by the presence of all the traditional lineages of Asian Buddhism in a consciously multicultural society Nor have scholars considered the place of their own contributions as writers teachers and practising Buddhists in this unfolding saga In thirteen chapters and a critical introduction to the field the book treats issues such as Asian American Buddhist identity the new Buddhism Buddhism and American culture and the scholar s place in American Buddhist Studies The volume offers complete lists of dissertations and theses on American Buddhism and North American dissertations and theses on topics related to Buddhism since 1892 American Photo ,2004-11 American Photo - ND ,1993-07

American Illustrated Magazine ,1897 American Archives Shawn Michelle Smith,1999-12-19 Visual texts uniquely demonstrate the contested terms of American identity In American Archives Shawn Michelle Smith offers a bold and disturbing account of how photography and the sciences of biological racialism joined forces in the nineteenth century to offer an idea of what Americans look like or should look like Her varied sources which include the middle class portrait baby picture criminal mugshot and eugenicist record as well as literary scientific and popular texts enable her to demonstrate how new visual paradigms posed bodily appearance as an index to interior essence Ultimately we see how competing preoccupations over gender class race and American identity were played out in the making of a wide range of popular and institutional photographs Smith demonstrates that as the body was variously mapped and defined as the key to essentialized identities the image of the white middle class woman was often held up as the most complete American ideal She begins by studying gendered images of middle class domesticity to expose a transformation of feminine architectures of interiority into the essences of blood character and race She reads visual documents as well as literary texts by Nathaniel Hawthorne Pauline Hopkins and Theodore Dreiser as both indices of and forms of resistance to dominant images of gender class race and national identity Through this analysis Smith shows how the white male gaze that sought to define and constrain white women and people of color was contested and transformed over the course of the nineteenth century Smith identifies nineteenth century visual paradigms that continue to shape debates about the terms of American belonging today American Archives contributes significantly to the growing field of American visual cultural studies and it is unprecedented in explaining how practices of racialized looking and the parameters of American looks were established in the first place
