Armchair Travels:

Mind-Travelling and Voyage Drama in Early Modern England D. McInnis, 2012-12-15 Drawing on a wide range of drama from across the seventeenth century including works by Marlowe Heywood Jonson Brome Davenant Dryden and Behn this book situates voyage drama in its historical and intellectual context between the individual act of reading in early modern England and the communal act of modern sightseeing

Best and Worst Travels Ramon Carver, 2007-04 Carver writes in a style not unlike Bill Bryson candidly regaling readers with tales of his worst experiences Some of the worst were worse than others as well as the best I enjoyed a great Abercrombie Kent trip to China because it was a great adventure a great itinerary a great tour group with a great tour director great hotels except for a noisy Sheraton in Guilin great weather and great tour management Seven greats out of seven ain't bad He says Great expectations when traveling are usually the source of my greatest disappointments I'm like the guy in a New Yorker cartoon studying a brochure telling his travel agent I am so looking forward to this I can't wait to be disappointed He writes How to Survive Disasters like Theft Accidents etc and at the risk of seeming disingenuously obvious he provides an exhaustive list covering every possible thing that can go wrong Getting Sick Getting Killed Getting Lost etc offering suggestions for solving dilemmas He concludes with Did I fail to mention Getting Bored to Death He describes trips with Yale Exes and travels to Italy China and Romania where he taught English with Global Volunteers

The Art of Travel Philip Dodds, 2013-08-21 First published in 1982 The Art of Travel is the first collection of critical essays to be devoted to British travel writing It attempts to give a sense of the wealth of such writing to map some of its forms and conventions and implicitly to claim a place for travel writing in any revised definition of literature For this collection travel includes sea voyages European tours commissioned enquiries into social conditions and urban writing travel writing ranges from works such as Sea and Sardinia by D H Lawrence whose status as a novelist guarantees his travel books some attention through the essays and books of Victorian middle class travellers into working class London to the work of V S Naipaul a contemporary writer who has increasingly preferred the travel book to the novel

The Undiscover'd Country Markus Zisselsberger, 2010 W G Sebald 1944-2001 is the most prominent and perhaps the most enigmatic German language writer of recent decades His books have had a more profound impact outside the German speaking world than those of any other His innovative approach to writing brings to the fore concerns that are central to contemporary culture the relationship between memory history and trauma the experience of exile and our relation to place and the role of literature and photography in the remembrance of the past This collection of essays places travel at the center of Sebald's poetics and shows how his appropriation of travel in its myriad historical and cultural forms tourism the pilgrimage the walking vacation travel as escape works to craft intertextual narratives in which the pursuit of individual life stories is mapped onto a wider European cultural history of loss and destruction Following these cues the contributors wander the various modalities of travel in

Sebald's writing in order to discover how walking flying sojourning and other kinds of peregrination inform the relationship between writing reading memory and place in Sebald's work At the same time the essays uncover in innovative ways the affinities between Sebald and literary travelers like Bruce Chatwin Franz Kafka Adalbert Stifter Christoph Ransmayr and Joseph Conrad Contributors Christian Moser J J Long Carolin Duttlinger Martin Klebes Alan Itkin James Martin Brad Prager Neil Christian Pages Margaret Bruzelius Barbara Hui Dora Osborne Peter Arnds Markus Zisselsberger is Assistant Professor of German at the University of Miami Florida

Travelling Concepts in the Humanities Mieke Bal, 2002-11-02 Attempting to bridge the gap between specialised scholarship in the humanistic disciplines and an interdisciplinary project of cultural analysis Mieke Bal has written an intellectual travel guide that charts the course beyond cultural studies As with any guide it can be used in a number of ways and the reader can follow or willfully ignore any of the paths it maps or signposts Bal s focus for this book is the idea that interdisciplinarity in the humanities necessary exciting serious must seek its heuristic and methodological basis in concepts rather than its methods Concepts are not grids to put over an object The counterpart of any given concept is the cultural text or work or thing that constitutes the object of analysis No concept is meaningful for cultural analysis unless it helps us to understand the object better on its own terms Bal
