The Call of the Homeland Allon Gal,Athena S. Leoussi,Anthony David Smith,2010 This book brings together an array of distinguished scholars to consider diaspora nationalism Through theoretical typological and case specific essays that discuss the Jewish Greek Armenian Irish Turkish Sikh Ukrainian Hindu Pentecostal and Muslim diasporas the book shows the varieties and qualities of attachment of diaspora communities to their ancestral homelands and the role that hostlands as well as the immigrants play in the form and intensity of these attachments Setting contemporary diaspora nationalisms in the context of globalisation with its ever developing methods of transportation and communication the book further shows the emergence of new concepts of diaspora new notions of being at home and away from home and of new ways of creating and sustaining ethnic networks and contact with the homeland such as the internet and tourism

Modern Hatreds Stuart J. Kaufman,2015-06-22 Ethnic conflict has been the driving force of wars all over the world yet it remains an enigma What is it about ethnicity that breaks countries apart and drives people to acts of savage violence against their lifelong neighbors Stuart Kaufman rejects the notion of permanent ancient hatreds as the answer Dissatisfied as well with a purely rationalist explanation he finds the roots of ethnic violence in myths and symbols the stories ethnic groups tell about who they are Ethnic wars Kaufman argues result from the politics of these myths and symbols appeals to flags and faded glories that aim to stir emotions rather than to address interests Popular hostility based on these myths impels groups to follow extremist leaders invoking such emotion laden ethnic symbols If ethnic domination becomes their goal ethnic war is the likely result Kaufman examines contemporary ethnic wars in the Caucasus and southeastern Europe Drawing on information from a variety of sources including visits to the regions and dozens of personal interviews he demonstrates that diplomacy and economic incentives are not enough to prevent or end ethnic wars The key to real conflict resolution is peacebuilding the often overlooked effort by nongovernmental organizations to change hostile attitudes at both the elite and the grassroots levels
