Migration Histories of the Medieval Afroeurasian Transition Zone ,2020-05-06 The transition zone between Africa Asia and Europe was the most important intersection of human mobility in the medieval period The present volume for the first time systematically covers migration histories of the regions between the Mediterranean and Central Asia and between Eastern Europe and the Indian Ocean in the centuries from Late Antiquity up to the early modern era Within this framework specialists from Byzantine Islamic Medieval and African history provide detailed analyses of specific regions and groups of migrants both elites and non elites as well as voluntary and involuntary Thereby also current debates of migration studies are enriched with a new dimension of deep historical time Contributors are Alexander Beihammer Lutz Berger Florin Curta Charalampos Gasparis George Hatke Dirk Hoerder Johannes Koder Johannes Preiser Kapeller Lucian Reinfandt Youval Rotman Yannis Stouraitis Panayiotis Theodoropoulos and Myriam Wissa Monasticism in Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Republics Ines Angeli Murzaku, 2015-08-27 This book looks at Eastern and Western monasticism s continuous and intensive interactions with society in Eastern Europe Russia and the Former Soviet Republics It discusses the role monastics played in fostering national identities as well as the potentiality of monasteries and religious orders to be vehicles of ecumenism and inter religious dialogue within and beyond national boundaries Using a country specific analysis the book highlights the monastic tradition and monastic establishments It addresses gaps in the academic study of religion in Eastern European and Russian historiography and looks at the role of monasticism as a cultural and national identity forming determinant in the region The Two Eyes of the Earth Matthew P. Canepa, 2017-03-10 This pioneering study examines a pivotal period in the history of Europe and the Near East Spanning the ancient and medieval worlds it investigates the shared ideal of sacred kingship that emerged in the late Roman and Persian empires Bridging the traditional divide between classical and Iranian history this book brings to life the dazzling courts of two global powers that deeply affected the cultures of medieval Europe Byzantium Islam South Asia and China Medieval Fortifications in Cilicia Dweezil Vandekerckhove, 2019-11-26 In Medieval Fortifications in Cilicia Dweezil Vandekerckhove offers an account of the origins development and spatial distribution of fortified sites in the Armenian Kingdom 1198 1375 Despite the abundance of archaeological remains the Armenian heritage had previously not been closely studied However through the examination of known and newly identified castles this work has now increased the number of sites and features associated with the Armenian Kingdom By the construction of numerous powerful castles the Armenians succeeded in establishing an independent kingdom which lasted until the Mamluk conquest in 1375 Dweezil Vandekerckhove convincingly proves that the medieval castles in Cilicia are of outstanding architectural interest with a significant place in the history of military architecture The City Lament Tamar M. Boyadjian, 2018-12-15 Poetic elegies for lost or fallen cities are seemingly as old as cities themselves In the Judeo Christian tradition this genre finds its purest expression in the book of Lamentations which mourns the destruction of Jerusalem in Arabic this genre is known as the ritha al mudun In The City Lament Tamar M Boyadjian traces the trajectory of the genre across the Mediterranean world during the period commonly referred to as the early Crusades 1095 1191 focusing on elegies and other expressions of loss that address the spiritual and strategic objective of those wars Jerusalem Through readings of city laments in English French Latin Arabic and Armenian literary traditions Boyadjian challenges hegemonic and entrenched approaches to the study of medieval literature and the Crusades The City Lament exposes significant literary intersections between Latin Christendom the Islamic caliphates of the Middle East and the Armenian kingdom of Cilicia arguing for shared poetic and rhetorical modes Reframing our understanding of literary sources produced across the medieval Mediterranean from an antagonistic orientalist model to an analogous one Boyadjian demonstrates how lamentations about the loss of Jerusalem whether to Muslim or Christian forces reveal fascinating parallels and rich cross cultural exchanges The Eclectic review. vol. 1-New [8th] ,1833 without Borders ,2023-08-14 Byzantium is more and more recognized as a vibrant culture in dialogue with neighbouring regions political entities and peoples Where better to look for this kind of dynamism than in the interactions between the Byzantines and the Armenians Warfare and diplomacy are only one part of that story The more enduring part consists of contact and mutual influence brokered by individuals who were conversant in both cultures and languages The articles in this volume feature fresh work by younger and established scholars that illustrate the varieties of interaction in the fields of literature material culture and religion Contributors are Gert Boersema Emilio Bonfiglio Bernard Coulie Karen Hamada Robin Meyer Johannes Preiser Kapeller Claudia Rapp Mark Roosien Werner Seibt Emmanuel Van Elverdinghe Theo Maarten van Lint Alexandra Kyriaki Wassiliou Seibt and David Zakarian The Heritage of Armenian Literature Agop Jack Hacikyan, Gabriel Basmajian, Edward S. Franchuk, Nourhan Ouzounian, 2000 Preserving Armenia s rich literary tradition from a multitude of viewpoints has been the aim of this three volume work This third volume joins the previous two in making excerpts of Armenian masterpieces accessible in beautifully rendered English translations while enabling readers to enjoy the immediacy of these works through lively discussions of the authors and their times Here the focus is on the eighteenth through twentieth centuries The volume begins with a comprehensive overview of the entire historical social and literary panorama of the periods covered the Armenian Renaissance the development of modern Armenian with its Western and Eastern versions the emergence of a national identity and democratic thinking with their impact on literature and theater and such literary schools as Romanticism Realism and Aestheticism Biographies of more than 130 prominent authors appear in these pages together with critical comments concerning their works and extensive excerpts from the works themselves The texts are edited annotated with footnotes and presented in a format that permits easy comprehension Literature unveils a rich pageant of works in historical perspective The varied experiences from the Armenian past come alive allowing for new understandings and comparisons to literatures of other nations Newsletter .1995 The Evolution of Taste in American

Collecting René Brimo, 2016-12-13 The Evolution of Taste in American Collecting is a new critical translation of Ren Brimo s classic study of eighteenth and nineteenth century patronage and art collecting in the United States Originally published in French in 1938 Brimo s foundational text is a detailed examination of collecting in America from colonial times to the end of World War I when American collectors came to dominate the European art market This work helped shape the then fledgling field of American art history by explaining larger cultural transformations as manifested in the collecting habits of American elites It remains the most substantive account of the history of collecting in the United States In his introduction Kenneth Haltman provides a biographical study of the author and his social and intellectual milieu in France and the United States He also explores how Brimo s work formed a turning point and initiated a new area of academic study the history of art collecting Making accessible a text that has until now only been available in French Haltman's elegant translation of The Evolution of Taste in American Collecting sheds new critical light on the essential work of this extraordinary but overlooked scholar Geographers of the Ancient Greek World: Volume 2 D. Graham J. Shipley, 2024-04-18 Ancient Greek geographical writing is represented not just by the surviving works of the well known authors Strabo Pausanias and Ptolemy but also by many other texts dating from the Archaic to the Late Antique period Most of these texts are however hard for non specialists to find and many have never been translated into English This volume the work of an international team of experts presents the most important thirty six texts in new accurate translations In addition there are explanatory notes and authoritative introductions to each text which offer a new understanding of the individual writings and demonstrate their importance no longer marginal but in the mainstream of Greek literature and science The book includes twenty eight newly drawn maps images of the medieval manuscripts in which most of these works survive and a full Introduction providing a comprehensive survey of the field of Greek and Roman geography The Oxford Dictionary of Late Antiquity Oliver Nicholson, 2018-04-19 The Oxford Dictionary of Late Antiquity is the first comprehensive reference book covering every aspect of history culture religion and life in Europe the Mediterranean and the Near East including the Persian Empire and Central Asia between the mid 3rd and the mid 8th centuries AD the era now generally known as Late Antiquity This period saw the re establishment of the Roman Empire its conversion to Christianity and its replacement in the West by Germanic kingdoms the continuing Roman Empire in the Eastern Mediterranean the Persian Sassanian Empire and the rise of Islam Consisting of over 1 5 million words in more than 5 000 A Z entries and written by more than 400 contributors it is the long awaited middle volume of a series bridging a significant period of history between those covered by the acclaimed Oxford Classical Dictionary and The Oxford Dictionary of the Middle Ages The scope of the Dictionary is broad and multi disciplinary across the wide geographical span covered from Western Europe and the Mediterranean as far as the Near East and Central Asia it provides succinct and pertinent information on political history law and administration military history religion and philosophy education social and economic history material culture art and architecture science literature and many other areas Drawing

Armenian People Ancient Mod Vol 1: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of topselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read: Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best: Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic: Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a guiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
