Dean's Honor List as an undergraduate. He won the Law and Medicine prize in law school and apprenticed with a top criminal lawyer. It had been Brown's lifelong dream to practice criminal law and search for the truth in the courtroom. But then on the verge of opening a law practice, he heard a little voice inside telling him to stop just stop. With great difficulty, he honored this voice and began a heartfelt quest for the truth that lived within him. Although he didn't realize it at the time, Brown was actually questing for his innate image, the essential being that he came into this lifetime to embody. He was searching for his authentic face. By going inside and connecting his spirituality with his emotional life, he learned essential lessons. By learning to surrender to the School of Heart Knocks, the school of life, he found his authentic face and embraced the call to write. Soulshaping is an inspiring memoir for anyone who has heard a whisper of something truer calling out to them amid the distractions of modern life. Jeff's dramatic and often funny story takes readers through remarkably human experiences, emotional, physical, and economic, as he vividly recounts his journey to discover his soul's purpose. A work of courageous self-creation, Soulshaping reminds us that we are all truly connected; that our seemingly isolated struggles are actually part of the shared human challenge to live a life that is heart-centered and soul-driven. A House Called Tomorrow

Michael Wieggers, 2023-02-28. Copper Canyon Press celebrates its first 50 years of poetry publishing in anticipation of the next 50 years. Poetry is vital to language and living. This anthology celebrates 50 years of Copper Canyon Press publications, one extraordinary poem at a time. Since its founding, Copper Canyon has been entirely dedicated to publishing poetry books. Here, Editor in Chief Michael Wieggers invites press staff and board past and present to help curate a retrospective. The result is a collection of beloved poems from books spanning half a century, representing Pulitzer Prize-winning books, debut collections, works in translation, and rare books from Copper Canyon's early days. This book is a tribute to Copper Canyon poets and readers everywhere, because as Gregory Orr writes, "Certain poems. In an uncertain world. The ones we cling to. They bring us back." The New Georgia Encyclopedia Companion to Georgia Literature. Hugh Ruppersburg, John C. Inscoe, 2011-08-15.

Georgia has played a formative role in the writing of America. Few states have produced a more impressive array of literary figures among them: Conrad Aiken, Erskine Caldwell, James Dickey, Joel Chandler Harris, Carson McCullers, Flannery O'Connor, Jean Toomer, and Alice Walker. This volume contains biographical and critical discussions of Georgia writers from the nineteenth century to the present, as well as other information pertinent to Georgia literature. Organized in alphabetical order by author, the entries discuss each author's life and work, contributions to Georgia history and culture, and relevance to wider currents in regional and national literature. Lists of recommended readings supplement most entries. Especially important Georgia books have their own entries, works of social significance such as Lillian Smith's Strange Fruit, international publishing sensations like Margaret Mitchell's Gone With the Wind, and crowning artistic achievements including Jean Toomer's Cane. The literary culture of the state is also covered with information on the Georgia Review and other journals, the Georgia Center for the Book, which promotes authors and reading, and the Townsend Prize given in recognition of the year's best fiction This is an essential volume for readers who want both to celebrate and learn more about Georgia's literary heritage

Southern Crossings Daniel Cross Turner, 2012-08-30 Daniel Cross Turner has made a key contribution to the critical study and appreciation of the diverse field of contemporary Southern poetics Southern Crossings crosses a gulf in contemporary poetry criticism while using the idea or ideas many and contrary of Southernness to appraise poetries created from the profuse tangled histories of the region Turner's close readings are dynamic even lyrical He offers a new understanding of rhythm's central place in contemporary poetry while considering the work of fifteen poets Through his focus on varied yet interwoven forms of cultural memory Turner also shows that memory is not in fact past The way we remember has as much to say about our present as our past memory is living shifting culturally formed and framed This is a valuable and important book that entwines new visions of poetic forms with forms of regional remembrance and identity

Natasha Trethewey Pulitzer Prize winner and author of Native Guard Poems Offering new perspectives on a diversity of recent and still practicing southern poets from Robert Penn Warren and James Dickey to Betty Adcock Charles Wright Yusef Komunyakaa Natasha Trethewey and others this study brilliantly illustrates poetry's value as a genre well suited to investigating historical conditions and the ways in which they are culturally assimilated and remembered Daniel Cross Turner sets the stage for his wide ranging explorations with an introductory discussion of the famous Fugitive poets John Crowe Ransom Allen Tate and Donald Davidson and their vision of a constant southernness that included an emphasis on community and kinship remembrance of the Civil War and its glorified pathos of defeat and a distinctively southern white voice Combining poetic theory with memory studies he then shows how later poets with their own unique forms of cultural remembrance have reimagined and critiqued the idealized view of the South offered by the Fugitives This more recent work reflects not just trauma and nostalgia but makes equally trenchant uses of the past including historiophoty the recording of history through visual images and countermemory resistant strains of cultural memory that disrupt official historical accounts As Turner demonstrates the range of poetries produced within and about the American South from the 1950s to the present helps us to recalibrate theories of collective remembrance on regional national and even transnational levels With its array of new insights on poets of considerable reputation six of the writers discussed here have won at least one Pulitzer Prize for poetry Southern Crossings makes a signal contribution to the study of not only modern poetics and literary theory but also of the U S South and its place in the larger world Daniel Cross Turner is an assistant professor of English at Coastal Carolina University His articles which focus on regional definition in national and global contexts and on aesthetic forms potential to record historical transitions appear in edited collections as well as journals including Genre Mosaic the Southern Literary Journal the Southern Quarterly and the Mississippi Quarterly

Everglades: River of Grass Marjory Stoneman Douglas, 2021-10-15 Before 1947 when Marjory Stoneman Douglas named The Everglades a river of grass most people considered the area worthless She brought the world's attention to the need to preserve The Everglades In the Afterword Michael Grunwald tells us what has happened to them since then Grunwald points out that in 1947 the government was in the midst of establishing the Everglades National Park and turning loose the Army Corps of Engineers to control floods both of which seemed like saviors for the Glades But neither turned out to be the answer Working from the research he did for his book The Swamp Grunwald offers an account of what went wrong and the many attempts to fix it beginning with Save Our Everglades which Douglas declared was not nearly enough Grunwald then lays out the intricacies and inanities of the more recent and ongoing CERP the hugely expensive Comprehensive Everglades Restoration Plan
