Arms Trade And Nonproliferation:

Arms Trade and Nonproliferation United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee. Subcommittee on Technology and National Security,1992 Arms Trade and Nonproliferation: September 21, 1990 and April 23, 1991 United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee. Subcommittee on Technology and National Security,1992 Arms Trade and Nonproliferation: March 13, 1992 United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee. Subcommittee on Technology and National Security,1992 Arms Trade and Nonproliferation United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee. Subcommittee on Technology and National Security,1992 China, Arms Control, and Non-Proliferation Wendy Frieman,2014-04-08 This is an empirically and conceptually path breaking book that documents China s participation in international arms control and non proliferation regimes from 1985 to 2001 Non-Proliferation Export Controls Daniel Joyner,2017-03-02 This volume provides a comprehensive and interdisciplinary examination of the Multilateral Non Proliferation Export Control system and the national and international context within which it functions Key features The Law of Arms Control and the International Non-proliferation Regime Tom Coppen,2016-12-08 Nuclear proliferation poses a serious threat to international peace and security The non proliferation regime is the body of public international law that aims to counter this threat It has been a cornerstone of global security for decades This book analyses its main instruments The book focuses on the Nuclear Non proliferation Treaty international trade controls and the International Atomic Energy Agency It describes the internal mechanics of these mechanisms their development and their strengths and weaknesses It shows how they together are the basis of a political legal order that is more than the sum of its parts offering new insights on the role of international law in an area dominated by security driven politics Chinese Civil-Military Relations Nan Li,2010-04-05 This new book addresses three key issues What has changed in Chinese civil military relations What can account for changes And what are the implications for Chinese security policy and strategic behaviour It tackles these questions by sharply assessing civil military dynamics in elite politics such dynamics in national security and arms control policy relations between commanders and political commissars relations between the PLA and society civil military dynamics regarding defence economics and logistics and such dynamics regarding dual use technologies and defence industry These analyses build into the central theme that the emphasis of Chinese civil military relations is shifting from politics to military tasks This is an extremely important new development by a nation many predict to become a super power in the twenty first century This is therefore essential reading for all students and scholars of strategic and security studies Chinese studies and international relations Sanctions for Nuclear Disarmament and Non-Proliferation Armend Bekaj,Peter Wallensteen,2024-09-02 This book examines the interplay between sanctions and nuclear disarmament and non proliferation The volume aims to tackle three separate but closely intertwined issues It aims to revisit the debate on and deconstruct the concept of sanctions to provide a working theoretical framework to differentiate between positive sanctions or incentives or carrots and negative sanctions to identify the actors who may initiate sanctions i.e. states regional and or international organizations to ascertain the legality and legitimacy of such sanctions taking place to problematize and discuss the utility of sanctions and so on It aims to disentangle the concepts of nuclear disarmament and non proliferation particularly in light of the most recent geopolitical global shifts on nuclear powers interplay taking place in the background of the war in Ukraine and rising tensions in Southeast Asia and so on Finally it aims to conjoin the cause and effect cases between the application of sanctions on the one hand and the decision by states to pursue nuclear disarmament and non proliferation on the other By doing so the volume helps to update and stimulate the academic and policy debate on the inter relation between sanctions and nuclear disarmament and non proliferation This book will be of much interest to students of nuclear non proliferation economic sanctions security studies and International Relations
