Arnold Kubler:

Rebel Angel Pdraig Rooney,2025-04-15 Annemarie Schwarzenbach was one of the twentieth century s most remarkable women possibly the greatest sexual and political radical of the 1930s But until now she s been largely ignored Born to a wealthy family in Switzerland as a teenager she rebelled against her domineering pro Nazi mother She immersed herself in the antifascist queer and artistic circles of the German diaspora of the 1930s Her edgy glamour and androgynous beauty turned heads in the lesbian nightclubs of Weimar Berlin on the ski slopes of St Moritz and in New York s luxury hotels and jazz bars Constantly on the move Annemarie chronicled the low and dishonest decade leading to war through her unique journalism writing and photography Her work was as adventurous and uncompromising as her personal life and reveals a deep courage intelligence and ambition tragically curtailed by her untimely death 1 Brief, 1 Photo an Arnold Kübler Emil Hess,1978 The destiny station beyond the mountains Richard Deiss,2020-11-27 Englischsprachige Ausgabe der kleinen Geschichten und Anekdoten zu 111 Bahnhöfen in den Alpenländern Short stories and anecdotes about 111 railway stations in the Alpine countries The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress,American Library Association. Kauffman,2013-03-09 A Concise History of Photography Helmut Gernsheim,1986-01-01 Highly acclaimed scholarly volume examines technological advances and artistic development with nearly 300 examples of photographic art 285 black and white photos The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 The Flight of the Angels Alistair Charles Rolls,2023-11-27 It is a close study of four novels by Boris Vian It aims to show how L'automne Plein l'herbe rouge and L'Arrache-cœur form a unified and coherent tetralogy By establishing close links between these four texts it becomes possible to achieve a more comprehensive understanding not only of the significance of the tetralogy in exposing a complex and multi layered novelistic strategy at the heart of the vianesque but of the individual novels as autonomous creations An examination of the novels reveals that they are not merely joined to one another via a superficial network of textual similarities that which I refer to as intratextuality but that this intertwining is emblematic of a common method of narrative construction Each Vian novel is dependent for a thorough understanding of the text to be possible upon the multiple lines of external influence running through it The sources of this influence which I refer to as intertextuality are located in various major texts of twentieth century literature anglophone as well as francophone Thus in each instance the narrative is driven by a complicated interaction of intratextuality and intertextuality

Letters of C. G. Jung C. G. Jung, 2015-06-05 In May 1956 in his eighty second year Jung first discussed with Gerhard Adler the question of the publication of his letters Over many years Jung had often used the medium of letters to communicate his ideas to others and to clarify the interpretation of his work quite apart from answering people who approached him with genuine problems of their own and simply corresponding with friends and colleagues Many of his letters thus contain new creative ideas and provide a running commentary on his work From some 1 600 letters written by Jung between the years 1906 1961 the editors have selected over 1 000 Volume 1 published in 1973 contains those letters written between 1906 and 1950
