Around the World Pepper Worthington, 2001-01-01 Eco-Architecture IX P. Chias, S. Hernandez, 2022-09-13 Architecture is very multi disciplinary attracting many different professions This is reflected in the contributions contained in this volume that were originally presented at the 9th International Conference on Harmonisation between Architecture and Nature The included works review the challenges and new opportunities of contemporary architecture as a result of advances in design and new building technologies as well as the development of new materials Never before in history have architects and engineers had such a range of new processes and products open to them In spite of that the construction industry lags behind all others in taking advantage of a wide variety of new technologies This is understandable due to the inherent complexity and uniqueness of each architectural project Advances in computer and information systems including robotics offers the possibility of developing new architectural forms construction products and building technologies that are just now starting to emerge Changes have also taken place in the way modern society works and lives due to the impact of modern technologies Patterns of work have been disrupted and changed affecting transportation and the home environment The demand is for a new type of habitat that can respond to the changes and the consequent requirements in terms of the urban environment Such topics are dealt with as building technologies design by passive systems design with nature cultural sensitivity life cycle assessment resources and rehabilitation and many others including case studies from many different places around the world

Twenty-Five Years before the Mast Peter Longley, 2017-04-17 In this fascinating study encompassing a period of rapid growth and change a cruise director looks back over a career that spanned twenty five years on some of the best known luxury ships of the second half of the twentieth century including ten years aboard Cunard s famous ocean liner Queen Elizabeth 2 Peter Longley fell into the industry by accident in 1978 at a time when it could be said that cruising was exclusively for the rich and famous Longley traces this form of travel from its imperial passengers sailing the lifelines of empires to the fabulous world cruises that attracted eccentric passengers Here life and challenges both above and below decks are explored on these floating cities at sea that still hold myths of the past as they leap into the future From gala buffets to labor disputes from entertaining royalty to evacuation at sea Longley takes you there You will go from dry docks to exciting ports of call interspersed with anecdotes of an extraordinary lifestyle You will also witness murder at sea stowaways and the sorting of garbage See how technology changed shipboard pastimes and how the jet plane changed itineraries and entertainment and how the computer changed everything Finally take a look at cruising today with over four hundred ships plying the seven seas Learn how a few corporations now run the industry and vacations range from voyages on mass market mega ships to luxury river cruisers

Yankees in Petrograd, Bolsheviks in New York Milla Fedorova, 2013-03-15 Yankees in Petrograd Bolsheviks in New York examines the myth of America as the Other World at the moment of transition from the Russian to the Soviet version The material on which Milla Fedorova bases her study comprises a curious phenomenon of the waning nineteenth and early twentieth centuries pilgrimages to America by prominent Russian writers who then created travelogues The writers' missions usually consisted of two parts the physical journey which most of the writers considered as ideologically significant and the literary fruit of the pilgrimages Until now the American travelogue has not been recognized and studied as a particular kind of narration with its own canons Arguing that the primary cultural model for Russian writers' journey to America is Dante's descent into Hell Fedorova ultimately reveals how America is represented as the country of dead souls where objects and machines have exchanged places with people where relations between the living and the dead are inverted All Hands, 1986

The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, 2004 Money in the Ocean Ajit Kumar, 2023-02-04 This book is all about how young boys from middle class families join the shipping industry and earn a handsome salary but spend the same extravagantly and invest in less productive financial instruments without realising that this shipping job is contractual This book will guide seafarers on how to invest and make themselves and their family's lives safe and secure which may lead to early happy retirement and financial independence Timeshift Ron Maier, 2007-07 A deluge of rain and a strange hitchhiker combine to transport martial arts champion Noah King on a bizarre course to an alternate world Days whiz by in a fraction of a second when he enters a mysterious fog His passenger Sylv is not what she seems She admits to being a Tabizi the instigator of his fog encased journey to World 5 She has chosen him to intervene in the anarchy of a split world two hundred years in the future Time reversal fails and Sylv is stranded with Noah She deserts him in the forest and becomes known as Dark Seeress Noah discovers he must fight the anarchist leader in blood sport to survive After he defeats his opponent an influential dwarf proclaims him the new king Captive women flee to the forest where Sylv declares all women are under her protection Noah learns this world was split by quakes and volcanic action that left a

100 meter high Great Wall circling the globe Cannibals roam the Wasteland on one side preying on refugees War is imperative to keep the savages out of Noah's lush green kingdom but Sylv refuses to ally herself and the other women with his forces
