Introduction to Peruvian Archaeology Henry Tantalean, 2025-10-31 An Introduction to Peruvian Archaeology The Excavated Past offers an accessible and up to date guide to Peru's rich archaeological heritage Through a broad vision of archaeology as a discipline and historical reality Henry Tantalean offers a fascinating immersion into the past of Peru This book is structured in three parts an introduction to the key concepts of global and local archaeology a brief history of Peruvian archaeology and a tour of the societies of ancient Peru from the first settlers to the fall of the Inca Empire Furthermore the author highlights the role of archaeology in daily life education and popular culture This book is an invaluable resource not only for students and professionals of Peruvian archaeology but also for anyone interested in understanding the cultural legacy that these findings contribute to our understanding of human history Caribbean Modernist Architecture Gustavo Luis Moré, 2010 In February and March 2008 the International Program and the Department of Architecture and Design at The Museum of Modern Art organised the Museum's first symposium on the modernist architecture of the Caribbean and bordering Latin American countries in collaboration with the Caribbean School of Architecture at the University of Technology Kingston Jamaica The goal was to encourage scholarly curatorial and broader educational awareness Topics covered included regional and international legacies preservation environmental sustainability and urban planning as they relate to modernist architectural history and contemporary practice The presenters were leading architects and architectural historians from the region and attendees included their colleagues as well as local and international university students policy makers civic leaders and developers from Jamaica the surrounding Caribbean islands and the United States This illustrated volume co published by MoMA and Archivos de Arquitectura Antillana AAA an architectural journal based in the Dominican Republic presents the papers from this critical symposium in both English and Spanish making them accessible to a broader public A Guide to Mexican Art Justino Fernández, 1969-08-15 A Guide to Mexican Art a survey of more than twenty centuries of art has a double purpose It provides an ample version of one of the great national arts by a leading art historian and it serves simultaneously as a practical guide to the art's outstanding masterpieces The Guide will thus be of value to specialists and students of Latin American art and to sightseers as an introduction and guide to the art and architecture of Mexico To facilitate its use for the latter purpose Professor Fernández has based his exposition on the sensitive analysis of works to be found almost exclusively in museums and public buildings accessible to the tourist The book was originally published in Spanish in 1958 and revised in 1961 This English translation from the second edition has been brought up to date by the author and translator Cosmopolitanism in Mexican Visual Culture María Fernández, 2014-01-06 Since the colonial era Mexican art has emerged from an ongoing process of negotiation between the local and the global which frequently involves invention synthesis and transformation of diverse discursive and artistic traditions In this pathfinding book María Fernández uses the concept of cosmopolitanism to explore this important aspect of Mexican art in which visual culture and power relations unite the local and the global the national and the international the universal and the particular She argues that in Mexico as in other colonized regions colonization constructed power dynamics and forms of violence that persisted in the independent nation state Accordingly Fernandez presents not only the visual qualities of objects but also the discourses ideas desires and practices that are fundamental to the very existence of visual objects Fernandez organizes episodes in the history of Mexican art and architecture ranging from the seventeenth century to the end of the twentieth century around the consistent but unacknowledged historical theme of cosmopolitanism allowing readers to discern relationships among various historical periods and works that are new and yet simultaneously dependent on their predecessors She uses case studies of art and architecture produced in response to government commissions to demonstrate that established visual forms and meanings in Mexican art reflect and inform desires expectations memories and ways of being in the world in short that visual culture and cosmopolitanism are fundamental to processes of subjectification and identity

The Architecture of Luxury Annette Condello, 2016-03-16 Over the past century luxury has been increasingly celebrated in the sense that it is no longer a privilege or attitude of the European elite or America's leisure class It has become more ubiquitous and now practically everyone can experience luxury even luxury in architecture Focusing on various contexts within Western Europe Latin America and the United States this book traces the myths and application of luxury within architecture interiors and designed landscapes Spanning from antiquity to the modern era it sets out six historical categories of luxury Sybaritic Lucullan architectural excess rustic neo-European and modern and relates these to the built and unbuilt environment taking different cultural contexts and historical periods into consideration It studies some of the ethical questions raised by the nature of luxury in architecture and discusses whether architectural luxury is an unqualified benefit or something which should only be present within strict limits The author argues how the ideas of permissible and impermissible luxury have informed architecture and how these notions of ethical approval have changed from one context to another Providing voluptuous settings for the nobles and the leisure class luxury took the form of not only grand palaces but also follies country and suburban houses private or public entertainment venues and ornate skyscrapers with fast lifts The Architecture of Luxury proposes that in Western societies the growth of the leisure classes and their desire for various settings for pleasure resulted in a constantly increasing level of luxury sought within everyday architecture Archaeology of Ancient Mexico and Central America Susan Toby Evans, David L. Webster, 2001 This reference is devoted to the pre-Columbian archaeology of the Mesoamerican culture area one of the six cradles of early civilization It features in depth articles on the major cultural areas of ancient Mexico and Central America coverage of important sites including the world renowned discoveries as well as many lesser known locations articles on day to day life of ancient peoples in these regions and several bandw regional and site maps and photographs Entries are arranged alphabetically and cover introductory archaeological facts flora fauna human growth and development nonorganic resources chronologies of various periods Paleoindian Archaic Formative Classic and Postclassic and Colonial cultural features Maya regional summaries research methods and resources ethnohistorical methods and sources and scholars and research history Edited by archaeologists Evans and Webster both of whom are associated with Pennsylvania State University c Book News Inc Twin Tollans Cynthia Kristan-Graham, 2007 This volume had its beginnings in the two day colloquium Rethinking Chich n Itz Tula and Tollan that was held at Dumbarton Oaks The selected essays revisit long standing questions regarding the nature of the relationship between Chichen Itza and Tula Rather than approaching these questions through the notions of migrations and conquests these essays place the cities in the context of the emerging social political and economic relationships that took shape during the transition from the Epiclassic period in Central Mexico the Terminal Classic period in the Maya region and the succeeding Early Postclassic period The Aztec Templo Mayor Elizabeth Hill Boone, 1987 El Perú-Waka' Keith Eppich, Damien B. Marken, David Freidel, 2024-04-09 Presenting the most current research on the Maya rainforest city El Per Waka this volume discusses occupation at the site spanning from 300 BC to 1000 CE and offers researchers an unmatched view of ancient life in a tropical urban environment
