Smith,2017-07-05 In Art as Politics in Late Medieval and Renaissance Siena contributors explore the evolving relationship between image and politics in Siena from the time of the city state s defeat of Florence at the Battle of Montaperti in 1260 to the end of the Sienese Republic in 1550 Engaging issues of the politicization of art in Sienese painting sculpture architecture and urban design the volume challenges the still prevalent myth of Siena s cultural and artistic conservatism after the mid fourteenth century Clearly establishing uniquely Sienese artistic agendas and vocabulary these essays broaden our understanding of the intersection of art politics and religion in Siena by revisiting its medieval origins and exploring its continuing role in the Renaissance The Architectural and Other Art Societies of Europe Alfred Janson Bloor,1869 The Art of Solidarity in the Middle Ages Gervase Rosser,2015-03-19 Guilds and fraternities voluntary associations of men and women proliferated in medieval Europe The Art of Solidarity in the Middle Ages explores the motives and experiences of the many thousands of men and women who joined together in these family like societies Rarely confined to a single craft the diversity of guild membership was of its essence Setting the English evidence in a European context this study is not an institutional history but instead is concerned with the material and non material aims of the brothers and sisters of the guilds Gervase Rosser addresses the subject of medieval guilds in the context of contemporary debates surrounding the identity and fulfilment of the individual and the problematic question of his or her relationship to a larger society Unlike previous studies The Art of Solidarity in the Middle Ages does not focus on the guilds as institutions but on the social and moral processes which were catalysed by participation These bodies founded schools built bridges managed almshouses governed small towns shaped religious ritual and commemorated the dead perceiving that association with a fraternity would be a potential catalyst of personal change Participants cultivated the formation of new friendships between individuals predicated on the understanding that human fulfilment depended upon a mutually transformative engagement with others The peasants artisans and professionals who joined the guilds sought to change both their society and themselves The study sheds light on the conception and construction of society in the Middle Ages and suggests further that this evidence has implications for political subversion In this rich collection of writings by artists scholars and revolutionaries the transgressions of the past are recaptured and transvalued for the benefit of the struggles of today and tomorrow Along the way new light is shed on the radical sensibilities of Novalis Friedrich Holderlin and Friedrich Schlegel while the poetics of Percy Bysshe Shelley John Keats Lord Byron and William Blake are revealed to be profoundly oppositional to the reigning culture The social romanticism of Jules Michelet the nineteenth century historian of the French Revolution is acclaimed for its visionary quasi religious breadth The Paris Commune is figured by the arch Romantics Karl Marx Jules Valles and Arthur Rimbaud The all but forgotten Bavarian Council Republic of 1919 is recalled a milieu steeped in Expressionism and anarchism the matrix out of which B Traven author of The Treasure of the Sierra Madre emerged by the skin of his teeth The romantic outlook of Walter Benjamin and Herbert Marcuse both strongly influenced by Surrealism the prehensile tail of Romanticism is relocated in their absolute negation of the social order And at the end of the twentieth century there s Guy Debord and the Situationist International the passionate detournement of the Romantic project Max Blechman writes When today aesthetic life is increasingly defined by advertising and corporate culture and democracy has more to do with the power of private interests than the power of the public imagination the romantic insistence on the liberatory dimension of aesthetics and on radical democracy may yet prove crucial to contemporary efforts to envision a new political freedom Revolutionary Romanticism includes Blechman s investigation of the German idealist roots of European Romanticism Annie Le Brun on the possibility of romantic women Peter Marshall on William Blake Maurice Hindle on the political language of the early English Romantics Arthur Mitzman on Jules Michelet Christopher Winks on the Paris Commune Miguel Abensour on William Morris Peter Lamborn Wilson on the 1919 Bavarian Workers Council Michael Lowy on Walter Benjamin and Herbert Marcuse Marie Dominique Massoni on Surrealism and Daniel Blanchard on his youthful friendship with Guy Debord
