same time the book emphasizes the value of interdisciplinary analysis in any explication of elite culture in Roman Greece since abundant extant evidence reveals its purveyors were often responsible for the production of both literature and material culture Strazdins shows how these two modes of cultural production in the hands of elites such as Herodes Atticus Arrian Aelius Aristides Lucian Dio Chrysostom Polemon Pausanias and Philostratus exhibit a shared rhetoric oriented towards posterity and informed by a heightened awareness of the fragility of cultural and personal memory over large spans of time The book thus provides a sophisticated analysis of the tensions anxieties and opportunities that attend the fashioning of commemorative strategies against the background of the Second Sophistic and the Roman empire and details the consequences of embroilment with futurity on our understanding of the cultural and political concerns of elite imperial Greeks
