Leonard Maltin

Coup De Torchon Clean Slate:

Film Noir Jennifer Fay, Justus Nieland, 2009-12-04 The term film noir still conjures images of a uniquely American malaise hard boiled detectives fatal women and the shadowy hells of urban life But from its beginnings film noir has been an international phenomenon and its stylistic icons have migrated across the complex geo political terrain of world cinema This book traces film noir's emergent connection to European cinema its movement within a cosmopolitan culture of literary and cinematic translation and its postwar consolidation in the US Europe Asia the Middle East and Latin America The authors examine how film noir crosses national boundaries speaks to diverse international audiences and dramatizes local crimes and the crises of local spaces in the face of global phenomena like world wide depression war political occupation economic and cultural modernization decolonization and migration This fresh study of film noir and global culture also discusses film noir's heterogeneous style and revises important scholarly debates about this perpetually alluring genre

Landscapes of Loss

Naomi Greene, 1999-04-18 In this book Naomi Greene makes new sense of the rich variety of postwar French films by exploring the obsession with the national past that has characterized French cinema since the late 1960s Observing that the sense of grandeur and destiny that once shaped French identity has eroded under the weight of recent history Greene examines the ways in which French cinema has represented traumatic and defining moments of the nation's past the political battles of the 1930s the Vichy era decolonization the collapse of ideologies Drawing upon a broad spectrum of films and directors she shows how postwar films have reflected contemporary concerns even as they have created images and myths that have helped determine the contours of French memory This study of the intricate links between French history memory and cinema begins by examining the long shadow cast by the Vichy past and shifting political and historical perspectives toward the nation's more distant past which also emerged in these years Finally the mood of nostalgia and melancholy that appears to haunt contemporary France is analyzed in the context of films about the nation's imperial past as well as those that hark back to a golden age a remembered paradis perdu of French cinema itself

Mystery Classics on Film

Ron Miller, 2017-02-20 Watching the screen version of a classic mystery novel can be disappointing By necessity or artistic license or possibly just ego changes are often made by the filmmakers many of them ineffective or even detrimental This book focuses on the screen adaptations of 65 famous mysteries and examines how the filmmakers either succeeded or failed in the telling of the story Interviews with several famous mystery writers are included with their comments on how filmmakers treated their work

Seen That, Now What? Andrea Shaw, 1996-04-09 This revolutionary reference offers viewers a variety of ways to hone in on the right choice for an evening's entertainment Going beyond the broad categories Action Comedy Drama etc found in most guides this book features small groups of films arranged according to specific categories as historical swashbucklers screwball comedies and Busby Berkeley musicals Shaw eschews the standard star rating system to focus on more telling criteria

Film and Video Editing Roger Crittenden, 2003-12-16 This book traces the history and

current practice in film and television arguing that a solid base of knowledge of the craft of the skill is essential for the proper application of the new techniques Based on the highly acclaimed and well used first edition published by Thames and Hudson a decade and a half ago this second edition has been thoroughly updated revised and extended The aesthetics and techniques of editing are examined in depth and illustrated with numerous examples from past and present films and individual editors work Of relevance to the directors camera and sound people as well as editors and aspiring editors it will provide an invaluable reference tool to all students of film and video TLA Film, Video, & DVD Guide, 2002-2003 David Bleiler, 2025-09-23 The TLA Film Video from This Is Spinal Tap to Ma Vie en Rose Jean-Luc Godard's Pierrot Le Fou David Wills, 2000-04-28 Jean Luc Godard s Pierrot le fou 1965 made at the height of the French New Wave remains a milestone in French cinema More accessible than his later films it represents the diverse facets of Godard s concerns and themes a bittersweet analysis of male female relations an interrogation of the image personal and international politics the existential dilemmas of consumer society This volume brings together essays by five prominent scholars of French film They approach Pierrot le fou from the perspectives of image and word play aesthetics and politics history and high and popular culture A full filmography and a selection of reviews are included Bertrand Tavernier Lynn A. Higgins, T. Jefferson Kline, 2016-09-23 Bertrand Tavernier 1941 2021 was widely considered to be the leading light in a generation of French filmmakers who launched their careers in the 1970s in the wake of the New Wave In just over forty years he directed twenty two feature films in an eclectic range of genres from intimate family portrait to historical drama and neo Western Beginning with his debut feature L Horloger de Saint Paul 1974 which won the prestigious Louis Delluc Prize Tavernier showed himself to be a public intellectual Like his films he was deeply engaged with the pressing issues facing France and the world the consequences of war colonialism and its continuing aftermath the price of heroism and the power of art A voracious cinephile he was immensely knowledgeable about world cinema and American film in particular Tavernier s roots were in Lyon the birthplace of the cinema He founded and presided over the Institut Lumi re which hosts retrospectives and an annual film festival in the factory where the Lumi re brothers made the first films In this collection containing numerous interviews translated from French and available in English for the first time he discusses the arc of his career following in the lineage of the Lumi re brothers in that his goal like theirs is to show the world to the world It is no surprise then that an interview with Tavernier is a treat Beginning with discussions of his own films the interviews in this volume cover a vast range of topics At the core are his thoughts about the ways cinema can inspire the imagination and contribute to the broadest possible public conversation Goodbye Cinema, Hello Cinephilia Jonathan Rosenbaum, 2010-10-15 The esteemed film critic Jonathan Rosenbaum has brought global cinema to American audiences for the last four decades His incisive writings on individual filmmakers define film culture as a diverse and ever evolving practice unpredictable yet subject to analyses just as diversified as his own discriminating tastes For Rosenbaum there is no high or low cinema only more interesting or less interesting films and the pieces collected here from an appreciation of Marilyn Monroe's intelligence to a classic discussion on and with Jean Luc Godard amply testify to his broad intellect and multi faceted talent Goodbye Cinema Hello Cinephilia gathers together over fifty examples of Rosenbaum's criticism from the past four decades each of which demonstrates his passion for the way we view movies as well as how we write about them Charting our changing concerns with the interconnected issues that surround video DVDs the Internet and new media the writings collected here also highlight Rosenbaum's polemics concerning the digital age From the rediscovery and recirculation of classic films to the social and aesthetic impact of technological changes Rosenbaum doesn't disappoint in assembling a magisterial cast of little known filmmakers as well as the familiar faces and iconic names that have helped to define our era As we move into this new decade of moviegoing one in which Hollywood will continue to feel the shockwaves of the digital age Jonathan Rosenbaum remains a valuable guide Goodbye Cinema Hello Cinephilia is a consummate collection of his work not simply for fans of this seminal critic but for all those open to the wide variety of films he embraces and helps us to elucidate

The Crime Novel Tony Hilfer, 2014-07-03 Although rarely distinguished from the detective story the crime novel offers readers a quite different experience In the detective novel a sympathetic detective figure uses reason and intuition to solve the puzzle restore order and reassure readers that right will always prevail In the crime novel by contrast the hero is either the killer the victim a guilty bystander or someone falsely accused and the crime may never be satisfactorily solved These and other fundamental differences are set out by Tony Hilfer in The Crime Novel the first book that completely defines and explores this popular genre Hilfer offers convincing evidence that the crime novel should be regarded as a genre distinct from the detective novel whose conventions it subverts to develop conventions of its own Hilfer provides in depth analyses of novels by Georges Simenon Margaret Millar Patricia Highsmith and Jim Thompson He also treats such British novelists as Patrick Hamilton Shelley Smith and Marie Belloc Lowndes as well as the American novelists Cornell Woolrich John Franklin Bardin James M Cain and Fredric Brown In addition he defines the distinctions between the American crime novel and the British showing how their differences correspond to differences in American and British detective fiction This well written study will appeal to a general audience as well as teachers and students of detective and mystery fiction For anyone interested in the genre it offers valuable suggestions of what to read next

East-West Encounters Sylvie Blum-Reid, 2003 This book examines Franco Asian film and literary productions in the context of France's colonial history Includes analysis of such key film texts as Indochine Cyclo and The Lover
