Investigation of Damage to Structures in the McCutchanville-Daylight Area of Southwestern Indiana: Geologic and unconsolidated materials in the McCutchanville-Daylight Area, 1994 Whiteout Alexander Cockburn, Jeffrey St. Clair, 2014-12-16 On March 16 1998 the CIA's Inspector General Fred Hitz finally let the cat out of the bag in an aside at a Congressional Hearing Hitz told the US Reps that the CIA had maintained relationships with companies and individuals the Agency knew to be involved in the drug business Even more astonishingly Hitz revealed that back in 1982 the CIA had requested and received from Reagan's Justice Department clearance not to report any knowledge it might have of drug dealing by CIA assets With these two admissions Hitz definitively sank decades of CIA denials many of them under oath to Congress Hitz's admissions also made fools of some of the most prominent names in US journalism and vindicated investigators and critics of the Agency ranging from Al McCoy to Senator John Kerry The involvement of the CIA with drug traffickers is a story that has slouched into the limelight every decade or so since the creation of the Agency Most recently in 1996 the San Jose Mercury News published a sensational series on the topic Dark Alliance and then helped destroy its own reporter Gary Webb In Whiteout Alexander Cockburn and Jeffrey St Clair finally put the whole story together from the earliest days when the CIA's institutional ancestors the OSS and the Office of Naval Intelligence cut a deal with America's premier gangster and drug trafficker Lucky Luciano They show that many of even the most seemingly outlandish charges leveled against the Agency have basis in truth After the San Jose Mercury News series for example outraged black communities charged that the CIA had undertaken a program stretching across many years of experiments on minorities Cockburn and St Clair show how the CIA imported Nazi scientists straight from their labs at Dachau and Buchenwald and set them to work developing chemical and biological weapons tested on black Americans some of them in mental hospitals Cockburn and St Clair show how the CIA's complicity with drug dealing criminal gangs was part and parcel of its attacks on labor organizers whether on the docks of New York or of Marseilles and Shanghai They trace how the Cold War and counterinsurgency led to an alliance between the Agency and the vilest of war criminals such as Klaus Barbie or fanatic heroin traders like the mujahed in Afghanistan Whiteout is a thrilling history that stretches from Sicily in 1944 to the killing fields of South East Asia to CIA safe houses in Greenwich Village and San Francisco where CIA men watched Agency paid prostitutes feed LSD to unsuspecting clients We meet Oliver North as he plotted with Manuel Noriega and Central American gangsters We travel to little known airports in Costa Rica and Arkansas We hear from drug pilots and accountants from the Medellin Cocaine Cartel We learn of DEA agents whose careers were ruined because they tried to tell the truth The CIA drugs and the press Cockburn and St Clair dissect the shameful way many American journalists have not only turned a blind eye on the Agency's misdeeds but helped plunge the knife into those who told the real story Here at last is the full saga Fact packed and fast paced Whiteout is a richly detailed excavation of the CIA's dirtiest secrets For all who want to know the truth about the Agency this is the book to start with United States Earthquakes, 1951 Complete Stories Rudy Rucker, 2018-07-06 Collected together in one ebook every single one of Rudy Rucker's science fiction stories a trove of gnarl and wonder dating over more than forty years This the updated 2021 edition of Complete Stories includes stories from 1976 through 2021 Along with Rucker's solo stories we have collaborations with Bruce Sterling Marc Laidlaw Paul Di Filippo John Shirley Terry Bisson and Eileen Gunn Wind and Seismic Effects United States-Japan Cooperative Program in Natural Resources. The Media Show Edwin Diamond, 1991 The Media Show is a lively analysis of one of the underreported major stories of our time the growing power and influence of the media In these essays and reports critic Edwin Diamond takes a hard look at the methods of the American media during a period of heightened competition and increased conglomeration focusing on the way news stories are shaped and sometimes distorted Diamond first considers some of the consequences of the new order created by richer technologies and lowered aspirations He explores the mixed results of this new system including marked changes in American broadcasting as the networks downsize their expenditures to news and public affairs coverage There is he notes often a serious conflict within networks between the public good and the bottom line a conflict that the news media generally chooses not to examine Diamond then scrutinizes the role of style and personality on television Next he turns to specific examples of television coverage of the defining topics of the late 1980s and early 1990s including the arrival of cable technology and CNN which changed the way wars and crises are covered how some members of the media practiced unsafe journalism in their reports on AIDS the role the media assumed as the moral police in recent election campaigns the way race and class influenced crime stories such as the Tawana Brawley and the Central Park jogger cases how the media has often seemed married to the mob in its reporting about reputed godfather John Gotti and the changes in White House press coverage as Ronald Reagan was succeeded by George Bush Diamond concludes by proposing several ideas for creating new media structures Edwin Diamond is Professor of Journalism at New York University where he directs the News Study Group and he is media columnist for New York magazine His previous books include Good News Bad News Sign Off The Last Days of Television and The Spot The Rise of Political Advertising on Television
