Arms And The Women The:

Arms and the Woman Helen M. Cooper, Adrienne Auslander Munich, Susan Merrill Squier, 2000-11-15 Although the themes of women's complicity in and resistance to war have been part of literature from early times they have not been fully integrated into conventional conceptions of the war narrative Combining feminist literary criticism with the emerging field of feminist war theory this collection explores the role of gender as an organizing principle in the war system and reveals how literature perpetuates the ancient myth of arms and the man The volume shows how the gendered conception of war has both shaped literary texts and formed the literary canon It identifies and interrogates the conventional war text with its culturally determined split between warlike men and peaceful women and it confirms that women's role in relation to war is much more complex and complicitous than such essentializing suggests The contributors examine a wide range of familiar texts from fresh perspectives and bring new texts to light Collectively these essays range in time from the Trojan War to the nuclear age The contributors are June Jordan Lorraine Helms Patricia Francis Cholakian Jane E Schultz Margaret R Higonnet James Longenbach Laura Stempel Mumford Sharon O'Brien Jane Marcus Sara Friedrichsmeyer Susan Schweik Carol J Adams Esther Fuchs Barbara Freeman Gillian Brown Helen M Cooper Adrienne Auslander Munich and Susan Merrill Squier

Arms and the Women Reginald Hill, 2000 Luminously written thrilling unexpectedly erudite and beautifully structured Geoffrey Wansell Daily Mail Arms And The Enlisted Woman Judith Stiehm, 1989-12-04 This book is about America's most unknown soldiers enlisted women in the Army Air Force Navy and Marines Focusing on the decade from 1972 to 1982 Judith Stiehm uses personal narratives interviews policy statements and other material to explore the experience of American women in the military their reasons for enlisting their roles their self image and the way they are viewed by civilians Although there are now more than 200 000 women in uniform Stiehm asks why the policies concerning enlisted women so often appear to fly in the face of both logic and evidence Her analysis of the effects of change in military policy on women of different ranks and ages reveals how certain functional myths e g war is manly are challenged by the presence of women The result has been an uneasy accommodation Arms and the Enlisted Woman includes a vivid first person account by a female veteran of one woman's experience in the Air Force Honorably discharged as a Staff Sergeant after six years of working as an airplane mechanic this woman describes the struggle to be taken seriously and treated equally and to excel in a non traditional field She also relates the joys of seeing a job well done and being part of a cohesive team Her mixed reaction to her military career epitomizes the difficulty with which enlisted women have been assimilated Stiehm also analyzes the rapidly shifting military policies concerning women as well as the reasons for certain erroneous but persistent beliefs about them and remarks One thing seems to be certain To the professional military the enlisted woman is a raw nerve Arms and the Woman Berend Johann Friedrich Freiherr von Uexküll, Boris von Uexküll, 1966 Your Questions as to Women in War Industries: Types of Jobs Dorothy Krall Newman, Martha Jean Ziegler, Caroline A. Women Writers of the Renaissance and Reformation Katharina M. Wilson, 1987 The dawn of humanism in the Renaissance presented privileged women with great opportunities for personal and intellectual growth Sexual and social roles still determined the extent to which a woman could pursue education and intellectual accomplishment but it was possible through the composition of poetry or prose to temporarily offset hierarchies of gender to become equal to men in the act of creation Edited by Katharina M Wilson this anthology introduces the works of twenty five women writers of the Renaissance and Reformation among them Marie Denton a Swiss evangelical reformer whose writings were so successful they were banned during her lifetime Gaspara Stampa a cultivated courtesan of Venetian aristocratic circles who wrote lyric poetry that has earned her comparisons to Michelangelo and Tasso Helene de Crenne a French aristocrat who embodied the true spirit of the Renaissance feminist writing both as novelist and as champion of her sex Helene Kottanner Austrian chambermaid to Queen Elizabeth of Hungary whose memoirs recall her daring theft of the Holy Crown of Saint Stephen for her esteemed mistress and Lady Mary Sidney Wroth the first Englishwoman known to write a full length work of fiction and compose a significant body of secular poetry Offering a seldom seen counterpoint to literature written by men Women Writers of the Renaissance and Reformation presents prose and poetry that have never before appeared in English as well as writings that have rarely been available to the nonspecialist The women whose writings are included here are united by a keen awareness of the social limitations placed upon their creative potential of the strained relationship between their gender and their work This concern invests their writings with a distinctive voice one that carries the echoes of a male aesthetic while boldly declaring battle against it

Promoting adoption of sustainable land management technologies by women and couples in Ethiopia: Evidence from a randomized trial Leight, Jessica, Bahiru, Kibret Mamo, Buehren, Niklas, Getahun, Tigabu, Gilligan, Daniel O., Mulford, Michael, Tabet, Heleene, 2025-02-14 Sustainable land management SLM technologies including composting and agro forestry are widely promoted as strategies to counter land degradation and enhance resilience against adverse weather shocks Given that women are disproportionately vulnerable to such shocks promoting their uptake of these technologies may be particularly important We conducted a randomized trial in rural Ethiopia analyzing a bundled intervention providing training and inputs designed to encourage uptake of three interrelated SLM technologies fruit tree planting composting and home gardening The trial included 1900 extremely poor households in 95 subdistricts randomly assigned to treatment arms in which women only or couples were included in the intervention The findings one year post baseline suggest a positive and large effect on take up of all three technologies the probability of reporting any trees increased by eight percentage points and the probability of reporting a garden and or composting increased by 20 to 30 percentage points symmetrically across treatment arms There are also significant reported increases in household vegetable production and consumption as well as in women s dietary diversity There is however some evidence that tree survival rates and tree health are weakly lower in intervention households compared to control households who spontaneously planted trees Some positive effects on equitable intrahousehold decision making and task sharing are observed especially in the couples training arm but in general there is no robust evidence that either intervention significantly shifted intrahousehold gender dynamics

Governing the Feminist Peace Paul C. Kirby, Laura Shepherd, 2024-04-02 The Women Peace and Security WPS agenda is celebrated as a landmark global framework for achieving gender equality in peace and security governance Its power is visible in two decades of United Nations resolutions national action plans regional initiatives and countless activist academic and philanthropic projects Yet despite this vitality it is haunted by failure as a lack of political will and stubborn patriarchal resistance frustrate its promise This book offers a groundbreaking critical account of the WPS agenda exploring its evolution in relation to the wider politics of global governance and feminism Paul Kirby and Laura J Shepherd argue that WPS is not a settled cohesive policy but a field in flux defined and disrupted by a growing number of national supranational subnational and transnational agents who in turn act on an expanding catalogue of threats from climate change to homophobia challenging traditional boundaries of peace and security Kirby and Shepherd reconceptualize WPS as a policy ecosystem tracing interaction and contestation around the agenda across levels from the UN Security Council to military alliances to feminist activists They combine analysis of a vast dataset of policy documents with key informant interviews and close readings of diplomacy statecraft the politics of indigeneity counterinsurgency antimilitarism human rights and the arms trade across the first twenty years of WPS Far reaching and incisive Governing the Feminist Peace poses a provocative question What if we abandoned the idea of the WPS agenda as a unified political project altogether

Krummradt Lie,2002 This book edited by a team of leading European bioethicists is in all respects an innovative publication As part of the core materials project of the European Ethics Network this book collects European perspectives on health care ethics reflecting both the rich philosophical tradition and the broad interdisciplinary network in the field of European health care ethics In the first part of the book on the physician patient relationship the authors present different views on the integration of patient autonomy in the relational structure of the medical profession Here the focus is on the reception of patient autonomy in the European context and on European alternatives for the radical understanding of patient autonomy In the second part of this book the contributions deal with the ethical problems of clinical research with patients and with the ethical values involved in human experimentation In the third part of the book the just organisation of the health care system and the consequent resource allocation are critically examined With their common European background the authors want to enrich and encourage the ongoing discussion on the physician patient relationship human experimentation and justice in health care from various perspectives and different points of departure Therefore this volume is suitable for the interested reader as well as for educational purposes      Changing Women, Changing Nation Yajaira M. Padilla,2012-06-14

Changing Women Changing Nation explores the literary representations of women in Salvadoran and US Salvadoran narratives during the span of the last thirty years This exploration covers Salvadoran texts produced during El Salvador s civil war 1980 1992 and the current postwar period as well as US Salvadoran works of the last two decades that engage the topic of migration and second generation ethnic incorporation into the United States Rather than think of these two sets of texts as constituting separate literatures Yajaira M Padilla conceives of them as part of the same corpus what she calls trans Salvadoran narratives works that dialogue with each other and draw attention to El Salvador s burgeoning transnational reality Through depictions of women in trans Salvadoran narratives Padilla elucidates a story of female agency and nationhood that extends beyond El Salvador s national borders and imaginings
