The Morality of Self-Defense and Military Action David B. Kopel, 2017-02-16 Shedding new light on a controversial and intriguing issue this book will reshape the debate on how the Judeo Christian tradition views the morality of personal and national self defense Are self defense national warfare and revolts against tyranny holy duties or violations of God s will Pacifists insist these actions are the latter forbidden by Judeo Christian morality This book maintains that the pacifists are wrong To make his case the author analyzes the full sweep of Judeo Christian history from earliest times to the present combining history scriptural analysis and philosophy to describe the changes and continuity of Jewish and Christian doctrine about the use of lethal force He reveals the shifting patterns of thought in both religions and presents the strongest arguments on both sides of the issue The book begins with the ancient Hebrews and Genesis and covers Jewish history through the Holocaust and beyond The analysis then shifts to the story of Christianity from its origins through the Middle Ages and the Reformation up the present day Based on this scrutiny the author concludes that contrary to popular belief the legitimacy of self defense is strongly supported by Judeo Christian scripture and commentary by philosophical analysis and by the respect for human dignity and human rights on which both Judaism and Christianity are based The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1910 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1892 The Publisher, 1902 British Books, 1900 Trajectories of Memory Melani Budianta, Sylvia Tiwon, 2023-08-28 This book is a collection of essays in Indonesian history and archaeology dealing with different and multiple trajectories along four broad themes The first part of the book covers competing or evolving representations of events customs or traditions and historical personae in Indonesian official and popular expression as they are shaped by economic political and cultural forces The second part deals with memories of war and peace examining transnational conflict and collaboration the role of political elites and state projects dealing with the aftermath of military aggression while also focusing on the impact and responses of civilians The third part focuses on how state and civil societies frame historical figures in ways that transcend the dichotomy of heroes and victims The fourth part of the book looks at the way Indonesian museums and museology serve as sites where new kinds of memory work occur in a post 1998 era The book is designed with the aim of clearing a space for a plurality of memory works Discussions in this volume extend from Loloda island in Eastern Indonesia to Sabang island at the north westernmost end of the archipelago and to the cosmopolitan centers Temporally it covers the colonial the post independence and contemporary eras By juxtaposing diverse works the book offers a new vista of multiple trajectories of memory being traced out in and about Indonesia This is an open access book Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Social and historical sciences, philosophy and religion Alan Day, Marilyn Mullay, Priscilla Schlicke, Joan
