Professional Practice in Health, Education and the Creative Arts Joy Higgs, Angie Titchen, 2008-04-15 Society is rapidly changing its expectations of professionals in all arenas. In this book we focus on changing patterns of professional practice in health, education and the creative arts. In each of these areas professional practice is undergoing major reform in a complex and rapidly changing environment. This multi-authored text explores professional practice in four key dimensions: doing, knowing, being and becoming. These concepts have been chosen to represent professional practice as much more than applying learned knowledge in practice situations. The authors present professional practice as a lived and dynamic experience as well as a process, a service for and with others, and a way of being and behaving. The text explores the essential unity of knowledge and practice through discourse, narrative, imagery and critical debate. This is a book for all those seeking to learn and to improve practice.

The Mind of the Artist William Todd Schultz, 2022 This book takes a deep, multi-angled psychological approach to understanding the personality-based roots of creativity and the creative process. It draws on decades of scientific research focused on the central, mysterious trait of Openness, the true unifying glue behind everything creative.

Adventures in the Arts Marsden Hartley, 2022-09-04 In Adventures in the Arts, Marsden Hartley invites readers on an extraordinary journey through the vibrant world of early 20th-century American art and culture. Employing a vivid and impressionistic literary style, Hartley combines personal anecdotes with astute observations, creating a rich tapestry that captures the essence of artistic movements such as Modernism and Expressionism. The book brims with the passion and fervor of an artist deeply engaged with his milieu, often reflecting on the transitory nature of creativity and the interconnectedness of various art forms, from painting to poetry. Marsden Hartley, a pioneering figure of American Modernism, drew from his own experiences as a painter and poet to craft this illuminating work. Having traveled extensively across Europe, Hartley grappled with the complexities of identity, nationality, and artistic expression. His engagement with influential contemporary artists and avant-garde circles undoubtedly shaped his perspectives, infusing this collection with authenticity and emotional depth. Adventures in the Arts is a must-read for scholars, art enthusiasts, and anyone interested in the transformative power of creativity. Hartley's insightful explorations and candid reflections not only enlighten readers about the artistic landscape of his time but also resonate with timeless truths about the nature of art itself.

The Waverley Novels Walter Scott, 1855 The Waverley Novels Scott, Sir Walter Scott, 1867 The Novels of Sir Walter Scott, Bart. With All His Introductions and Notes Walter Scott, 1847 War in Heaven/Heaven on Earth Stephen D. O'Leary, Geln S. McGhee, 2014-12-18 The apocalypse is a motif that lies behind many religious beliefs and practices. War in Heaven/Heaven on Earth theorizes the apocalyptic as it has arisen in a variety of religious traditions, from Native American religion to Islam in Northern Nigeria, and new terrorist movements. Millennial theory and history are explored from the perspective of social psychology, sociology, and post-modern philosophy. The volume is unique in applying an analysis of millennial themes to a comparative study of religion.
