emerging scholars in the field present key concepts for the study of cultural memory from divided narratives to the platformization of memory and the memory of activism The volume includes voices from literary studies media studies history sociology political science anthropology and psychology Eight sections discuss innovations in the major research areas of cultural memory studies today 1 History Narrative Literature 2 The Dynamics of Memory 3 Mediation and Remediation 4 Lives and Afterlives of Texts 5 National and Transnational Memory 6 The Matter of Memory 7 The Agency of the Aesthetic 8 The Memory Activism Nexus This new handbook will be an indispensable resource for cultural memory research across disciplines opening up this exciting field to interested students and advanced academics alike

The Kaleidoscope of Gendered Memory in Ahlam Mosteghanemi's Novels Nuha Baaqeel, 2019-07-12 Through its unique kaleidoscopic lens this book analyzes the work of Algeria's first postcolonial woman writer to publish a novel in Arabic Ahlam Mosteghanemi Her novels Memory in the Flesh and Chaos of the Senses return to the trauma of the Algerian War of Independence to address the lingering anxieties of national belonging and memory in postcolonial Algeria at a time when the nation is caught between two forces entrenched bureaucratic political elites and populist Islamists who imagine a return to a pre modern utopian past This book argues that Mosteghanemi's polyphonic narratives reveal that national narratives are always multiple unity is not one all encompassing narrative but instead an ever evolving Bakhtinian dialogism accommodating multiple perspectives memories and stories The study interprets Mosteghanemi's metaphor of the bridge as a powerful device for exploring tensions between reality and imagination exile and belonging and traditional concepts of gender in ways that reimagine nationhood and gesture towards a new collective future

Regimes of Memory Katharine Hodgkin, Susannah Radstone, 2003-09-02 A focus on memory has come to prominence across a wide range of disciplines History literature philosophy anthropology and cultural studies have placed memory at the heart of their interrogations of subjectivity narrative time and imagination At the same time memory has emerged as a central theme and preoccupation in popular literature film and television and the emergence of memory as an academic theme cannot be separated from its prominence in the wider culture This volume represents explores and interrogates the current developments engaging directly with the place of memory in culture and with memory's meanings and history

Theatre and Empowerment Richard Boon, Jane Plastow, 2004-08-19 Theatre and Empowerment examines the ability of drama theatre dance and performance to empower communities of very different kinds and it does so from a multi cultural perspective The communities involved include poverty stricken children in Ethiopia and the Indian sub continent disenfranchised Native Americans in the USA and young black men in Britain victims of violence in South Africa and Northern Ireland and a threatened agricultural town in Italy The book asserts the value of performance as a vital agent of necessary social change and makes its arguments through the close examination from inside practice of the success not always complete of specific projects in their practical and cultural contexts Practitioners and commentators ask how performance in its widest sense can play a part in community activism on a scale larger than the individual one off project by helping communities find their own liberating and creative voices Text and Image Richard Smith, 2017-07-28 Expanding upon longstanding concerns in cultural history about the relation of text and image this book explores how ideas move across and between expressive forms The contributions draw from art and architectural history film theater performance studies and social and cultural history to identify and dissect the role that the visual and performing arts can play in the experience and understanding of the past The essays highlight the role of oral history in the documentation of the visual and performing arts They share a common set of questions as they explore firmly grounded in their distinctive disciplinary standpoints the circuit of word gesture object in the formation and reproduction of knowledge identity and community Blending theory and case study they cover subjects such as the response of artists to the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission violence in Columbia and Mexico and the Balkan Wars the circuit of sexual desire in contemporary art and photography and sites of collective and personal memory including the Internet the urban landscape family photographs and hip hop Stressing the relationship of media to the formation of collective memory the volume explores how media intertextuality creates overlapping repertoires for understanding the past and the present Scholars of art history media and cultural studies literature and performance studies will all find this work a valuable resource Issues in Cultural Tourism Studies Melanie K. Smith, 2009-12-04 The extensively revised second edition of Issues in Cultural Tourism Studies provides a new framework for analyzing the complexity of cultural tourism and its increasing globalization in existing as well as emergent destinations of the world The book will focus in particular on the need for even more creative tourism strategies to differentiate destinations from each other using a blend of localized cultural products and innovative global attractions The book explores many of the most pertinent issues in heritage arts festivals indigenous ethnic and experiential cultural tourism in urban and rural environments alike This includes policy and politics impact management and sustainable development interpretation and representation marketing and branding and regeneration and planning As well as exploring the inter relationships between the cultural and tourism sectors local people and tourists the book provides suggestions for more effective and mutually beneficial collaboration New edition features include an increased number of topical case studies and contemporary photographs which serve to contextualize the issues discussed a re orientation towards global rather than just European issues three brand new chapters on The Geography of Cultural Tourism The Politics of Global Cultural Tourism and The Growth of Creative Tourism an extensively revised chapter on Experiential Tourism At the interface between the global and the local a people centred approach to planning and development is advocated to ensure that benefits are maximized for local areas a sense of place and identity are retained and the tourist experience is enhanced to the full The text is unique in that it provides a summary and a synthesis of all of the major issues in global cultural tourism which are presented in an accessible way using a diverse range of international case studies This is a beneficial and valuable resource for all tourism students American Poets in the 21st Century Claudia

Rankine, Lisa Sewell, 2007-07-09 The ideal introduction to the current generation of American poets Animation and Memory Maarten van Gageldonk, László Munteán, Ali Shobeiri, 2020-08-20 This book examines the role of memory in animation as well as the ways in which the medium of animation can function as a technology of remembering and forgetting By doing so it establishes a platform for the cross fertilization between the burgeoning fields of animation studies and memory studies By analyzing a wide range of different animation types from stop motion to computer animation and from cell animated cartoons to painted animation this book explores the ways in which animation can function as a representational medium The five parts of the book discuss the interrelation of animation and memory through the lens of materiality corporeality animation techniques the city and animated documentaries These discussions raise a number of questions how do animation films bring forth personal and collective pasts What is the role of found footage objects and sound in the material and affective dimensions of animation How does animation serve political ends The essays in this volume offer answers to these questions through a wide variety of case studies and contexts The book will appeal to both a broad academic and a more general readership with an interest in animation studies memory studies cultural studies comparative visual arts and media studies Chapter Introduction is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com The Ethiopian Jewish Exodus Gadi BenEzer, 2003-09-02 Between 1977 and 1985 some 20 000 Ethiopian Jews left their homes in Ethiopia and motivated by an ancient dream of returning to the land of their ancestors Yerusalem embarked on a secret and highly traumatic exodus to Israel Due to various political circumstances they had to leave their homes in haste go a long way on foot through unknown country and stay for a period of one or two years in refugee camps until they were brought to Israel The difficult conditions of the journey included racial tensions attacks by bandits night travel over mountains incarceration illness and death A fifth of the group did not survive the journey This interdisciplinary ground breaking book focuses on the experience of this journey its meaning for the people who made it and its relation to the initial encounter with Israeli society The author argues that powerful processes occur on such journeys that affect the individual and community in life changing ways including their initial encounter with and adaptation to their new society Analysing the psychosocial impact of the journey he examines the relations between coping and meaning trauma and culture and discusses personal development and growth Teaching and Studying the Americas A. Pinn, C. Levander, 2010-11-08 This book considers how interdisciplinary conversation critique and collaboration enrich and transform humanities and social science education for those teaching and studying traditional Americanist fields Virtual Dayz Elayne Zalis, 2008 This book preserves the musings on media and memory that Elayne Zalis posted on her blog VirtualDayz from June 27 2005 to July 15 2006 see <http://www.virtualdayz.blogspot.com> Both private and public archives inspire her reflections which explore media in transition a range that encompasses film video print digital arts and the Web She is interested in what artists and writers are doing and in what critics and scholars are saying
