Paul Delaroche Patricia Smyth,2022-06-15 Paul Delaroche Painting and Popular Spectacle explores the connections between painting and an emergent popular visual culture in the early nineteenth century which included new forms of optical entertainment such as Panoramas and Dioramas and innovation in fields such as illustration art reproduction and stage decor Delaroche s paintings caused a sensation at the Paris Salon with critics comparing the emotional response they elicited to that of popular melodrama Yet his appeal to a certain type of spectator lay behind the increasingly hostile criticism to which his works were subjected and has in our own time led to his uncertain status in the art historical canon This book focuses on Delaroche s popularity with a newly expanded audience Lacking in specialist knowledge but nevertheless keen to engage with and deeply affected by art the behaviour of this new public prompted lively discussions about who has the right to judge art and on what grounds Working across disciplinary boundaries this book proposes a new reading both of Delaroche and of the connections between the arts in this period The artist emerges as a figure at the cutting edge of an emergent trans medial popular visual culture in which we see the formation of modern spectatorship

The Global Work of Art Caroline A. Jones,2017-06-01 Global biennials have proliferated in the contemporary art world but artists engagement with large scale international exhibitions has a much longer history that has influenced the present in important ways Going back to the earliest world s fairs in the nineteenth century this book argues that globalism was incubated in a century of international art contests and today constitutes an important tactic for artists As world s fairs brought millions of attendees into contact with foreign cultures products and processes artworks became juxtaposed in a theater of nations which challenged artists and critics to think outside their local academies From Gustave Courbet s rebel pavilion near the official art exhibit at the 1855 French World s Fair to curator Beryl Madra s choice of London based Cypriot Hussein Chalayan for the off site Turkish pavilion at the 2006 Venice Biennale artists have used these exhibitions to reflect on contemporary art speak to their own governments back home and challenge the wider geopolitical realm changing art and art history along the way Ultimately Caroline A Jones argues the modern appetite for experience and event structures which were cultivated around the art at these earlier expositions have now come to constitute contemporary art itself producing encounters that transform the public and force us to reflect critically on the global condition
