Art And Its Objects:

Art and Its Objects Richard Wollheim, 1980-09-30 Aims to convey the author's belief that the nature of art has to be comprehensible from both the artist's and the spectator's point of view. In pursuing this, the book considers questions on expression, representation, style, the significance of the artist. Art and Its Objects Richard Wollheim, 1968 Art and Its Objects Richard Wollheim, 1987 Art and Its Objects Richard Wollheim, 1971 Art and its Objects Richard Wollheim, 2015-10-15 This book is an influential study of the central questions and philosophical issues raised by art. Art and Its Objects Richard Wollheim, 1985 Interpretation and Its Objects. RITIVOI, Andreea Deciu, 2003 This volume collects twenty-one original essays that discuss Michael Krausz's distinctive and provocative contribution to the theory of interpretation. At the beginning of the book, Krausz offers a synoptic review of his central claims and he concludes with a substantive essay that replies to scholars from the United States, England, Germany, India, Japan, and Australia. Krausz's philosophical work centers around a distinction that divides interpreters of cultural achievements into two groups. Singularists assume that for any object of interpretation, only one single admissible interpretation can exist. Multiplists assume that for some objects of interpretation, more than one interpretation is admissible. A central question concerns the ontological entanglements involved in interpretive activity. Domains of application include works of art and music as well as literary, historical, legal, and religious texts. Further topics include truth, commissions, ethnocentrism, and interpretations across cultures. Philosophy Looks at the Arts Joseph Margolis, 1987 The first edition of this widely used anthology offered a needed introduction to a new analytic aesthetics, which has in the intervening years become even more influential. This new revised and expanded edition has been designed by one of the leaders of the field to help define the structure of current aesthetics. Of the 24 articles included, more than half are new to this edition. The new edition emphasizes opposing currents in aesthetics with contributions from the most active and influential writers in the field. It is a basic book for any library and is designed to provide both undergraduate and graduate students with a professional orientation in aesthetics. Author note: Joseph Margolis is Professor of Philosophy at Temple University. He is the author or editor of twelve other books as well as numerous articles. A Companion to Aesthetics Stephen Davies, Kathleen Marie Higgins, Robert Hopkins, Robert Stecker, David E. Cooper, 2009-03-30 In this extensively revised and updated edition, 168 alphabetically arranged articles provide comprehensive treatment of the main topics and writers in this area of aesthetics. Written by prominent scholars covering a wide range of key topics in aesthetics and the philosophy of art. Features revised and expanded entries from the first edition as well as new chapters on recent developments in aesthetics and a larger number of essays on non-Western thought about art. Unique to this edition are six overview essays on the history of aesthetics in the West from antiquity to modern times. A World Art History and Its Objects David Carrier, 2008-11-28 Is writing a world art history possible? Does the history of art as such even exist outside the Western tradition? Is it possible to consider the history of art in a way that is not fundamentally Eurocentric In this highly readable and provocative book David Carrier a philosopher and art historian does not attempt to write a world art history himself Rather he asks the question of how an art history of all cultures could be written or whether it is even possible to do so He also engages the political and moral issues raised by the idea of a multicultural art history Focusing on a consideration of intersecting artistic traditions Carrier negotiates the way meaning and understanding shift or are altered when a visual object from one culture for example is inserted into the visual tradition of another culture A World Art History and Its Objects proposes the use of temporal narrative as a way to begin to understand a multicultural art history

Committing the Future to Memory Sarah Clift, 2013-09-01 Whereas historical determinacy conceives the past as a complex and unstable network of causalities this book asks how history can be related to a more radical future To pose that question it does not reject determinacy outright but rather seeks to explore how it works In examining what it means to be determined by history it also asks what kind of openings there might be in our encounters with history for interruptions re readings and re writings Engaging texts spanning multiple genres and several centuries from John Locke to Maurice Blanchot from Hegel to Benjamin Clift looks at experiences of time that exceed the historical narration of experiences said to have occurred in time She focuses on the co existence of multiple temporalities and opens up the quintessentially modern notion of historical succession to other possibilities The alternatives she draws out include the mediations of language and narration temporal leaps oscillations and blockages and the role played by contingency in representation She argues that such alternatives compel us to reassess the ways we understand history and identity in a traumatic or indeed in a post traumatic age

Art and Its Significance Stephen David Ross, 1994-01-27 This anthology has been significantly expanded for this edition to include a wider range of contemporary issues The most important addition is a new section on multicultural theory including important and controversial selections ranging from discussions of art in other cultures to discussions of the appropriation of nonWestern art in Western cultures The material from Kant's Critique of Judgment has been expanded to include his writing on aesthetical ideas and the sublime The selections from Derrida have been updated and considerably expanded for this edition primarily from The Truth in Painting One of Derrida's most interesting provocations has also been added his letter to Peter Eisenman on architecture In addition the section on feminist theory now includes a chapter from Irigaray's Speculum of the Other Woman The anthology includes the most important writings on the theory of art in the Western tradition including selections from Plato Aristotle Hume Kant Hegel and Nietzsche the most important philosophical writings of the last hundred years on the theory of art including selections from Collingwood Langer Goodman Heidegger and Merleau Ponty contemporary Continental writings on art and interpretation including selections from Gadamer Ricoeur Derrida Lyotard and Foucault also writings on the psychology of art by Freud and Jung from the Frankfurt School by Benjamin Adorno and Marcuse in feminist theory multiculturalism and postmodernism The anthology also includes twentieth century writings by artists including discussions of futurism suprematism and conceptual
