Couples Scenes From The Inside:

The Magic Couple S. Tekvani,2010-06-25 Weird Scenes Inside The Canyon David McGowan,2014-03-19 The very strange but nevertheless true story of the dark underbelly of a 1960s hippie utopia Laurel Canyon in the 1960s and early 1970s was a magical place where a dizzying array of musical artists congregated to create much of the music that provided the soundtrack to those turbulent times Members of bands like the Byrds the Doors Buffalo Springfield the Monkees the Beach Boys the Turtles the Eagles the Flying Burrito Brothers Frank Zappa and the Mothers of Invention Steppenwolf CSN Three Dog Night and Love along with such singer songwriters as Joni Mitchell Judy Collins James Taylor and Carole King lived together and jammed together in the bucolic community nestled in the Hollywood Hills But there was a dark side to that scene as well Many didn't make it out alive and many of those deaths remain shrouded in mystery to this day Far more integrated into the scene than most would like to admit was a guy by the name of Charles Manson along with his murderous entourage Also floating about the periphery were various political operatives up and coming politicians and intelligence personnel the same sort of people who gave birth to many of the rock stars populating the canyon And all the canyon's colorful characters rock stars hippies murderers and politicians happily coexisted alongside a covert military installation

Companion Mike Flaherty,Corinne Marrinan,Anthony E. Zuiker,2004-08-31 Fans can go behind the yellow police tape in the official companion to TVU's most watched drama featuring fifty of the most explosive episodes California Sixties Volume 1 1963-1966 James Elliott McCall,2020-01-03 In Southern Mexico an old man begins to experience vivid hallucinations Fuck man he said silently to himself you did way the fuck too much acid Snapping in and out of reality is a sign of dementia But he had in fact done way the fuck too much acid Return with Malibu Bowman to his teenage years in the turbulence of the 1960s Based on actual experiences If you lived it it will take you back If you didn't it will show you what you missed A drug fueled hitchhike journey into the decade that changed the world This tale requiring five volumes to tell follows a boy born and raised in 1950s Jim Crow Houston who finds himself on the streets of Southern California to navigate his teenage years From the Barrio Echo Park to segregated Glendale and back to a Houston unrecognizable Volume 1 begins a remarkable piece of fiction based in the reality that was California Sixties Lesbianism, Cinema, Space Lee Wallace,2011-01-13 This book notes that stories of lesbianism invariably engage with an apartment setting a spatial motif not typically associated with lesbian history or cultural representation Through the formal analysis of five lesbian apartment films Wallace demonstrates how the standard repertoire of visual techniques and spatial devices are used to scaffold female sexual visibility

Authenticity and Belonging in the Northern Soul Scene Sarah Raine, 2020-06-29 This book which builds on a three year immersive ethnographic study argues that what scene participants do and say within the northern soul scene constitutes a claim to belong For younger members making claims to belong is problematic in a scene where dominant notions of authenticity held by insiders are rooted in a particular past the places people events and soundscapes of particular venues during the 1970s In order to engage with this past young men and women participate in a range of discursive practices This book argues that these practices and the ways they intersect and deviate from dominant notions of authenticity represent shared and individual negotiations of the true soulie In doing so it reveals the rich experiences of the younger generation of this multigenerational music scene and the ways they establish a claim to belong to a scene first formed before they were born

On Bearing Unbearable States of Mind Ruth Riesenberger-Malcolm, 2003-09-02 This is a problem almost all practising psychoanalysts will face at some time in their career yet there is very little in the existing literature which offers guidance in this important area On Bearing Unbearable States of Mind provides clear guidance on how the analyst can encourage the patient to communicate the quality of their often intolerably painful states of mind and how he she can interpret these states using them as a basis for insight and psychic change in the patient Employing extensive and detailed clinical examples and addressing important areas of Kleinian theory the author examines the problems that underlie severe pathology and shows how meaningful analytic work can take place even with very disturbed patients On Bearing Unbearable States of Mind will be a useful and practical guide for psychoanalysts and psychotherapists and all those working in psychological settings with severely disturbed patients

Crowd Scenes Michael Tratner, 2008 The movies and the masses erupted on the world stage together In a few decades around the turn of the twentieth century millions of persons who rarely could afford a night at the theater and had never voted in an election became regular paying customers at movie palaces and proud members of new political parties The question of how to represent these new masses fascinated and plagued politicians and filmmakers alike Michael

Tratner examines the representations of masses the crowd scenes in Hollywood films from The Birth of a Nation through such popular love stories as Gone with the Wind The Sound of Music and Dr Zhivago He then contrasts these with similar scenes in early Soviet and Nazi films What emerges is a political debate being carried out in filmic style In both sets of films the crowd is represented as a seething cauldron of emotions

A Gaffer's Perspective on Independent Filmmaking Rick M. Lord, 2011 In today's digital age thousands and thousands of independent filmmakers are challenging Hollywood's elite best of the best film producers A Gaffer's Perspective on Independent Filmmaking examines why so many first time independent film productions are doomed to failure before the first day of principal photography ever begins Learning what dooms a production is only half of the process teaching successful practices and techniques while revealing many of the tricks of the trade used by the big productions is the other half With examples of actual productions gone awry combined with should have's this book is a must have for a successful filmmaking experience

A New History of German Cinema Jennifer M. Kapczynski, Michael David Richardson, 2012 A dynamic event centered exploration of the hundred year history of German language film This dynamic event centered anthology offers a new understanding of the hundred year history of German language film from the earliest days of the Kintopp to contemporary productions like The Lives of Others Each of the more than eighty essays takes a key date as its starting point and explores its significance for German film history pursuing its relationship with its social political and aesthetic moment While the essays offer ample temporal and topical spread this book emphasizes the juxtaposition of famous and unknown stories granting attention to a wide range of cinematic events Brief section introductions provide a larger historical and film historical framework that illuminates the essays within it offering both scholars and the general reader a setting for the individual texts and figures under investigation Cross references to other essays in the book are included at the close of each entry encouraging readers not only to pursue familiar trajectories in the development of German film but also to trace particular figures and motifs across genres and historical periods Together the contributions offer a new view of the multiple intersecting narratives that make up German language cinema The constellation that is thus established challenges unidirectional narratives of German film history and charts new ways of thinking about film historiography more broadly Jennifer Kapczynski is Associate Professor of German at Washington University St Louis and Michael Richardson is Associate Professor of German at Ithaca College

The Griffith Project, Volume 3 Paolo Cherchi Usai, 2019-07-25 No other silent film director has been so extensively studied as D W Griffith However only a small group of his more than 500 films has been the subject of a systematic analysis and the vast majority of his other works still await proper examination For the first time in film studies the complete creative output of Griffith from Professional Jealousy 1907 to The Struggle 1931 will be explored in this multi volume collection of contributions from an international team of leading scholars in the field Created as a companion to the on going retrospective held by the Pordenone Silent Film Festival The Griffith Project is an indispensable guide to the work of a crucial figure in the arts of the nineteenth century Music Video and the Politics of Representation Diane Railton, 2011-07-07 How can we engage critically with music video and its role in popular culture What do contemporary music videos have to tell us about patterns of cultural identity today Based around an eclectic series of vivid case studies this fresh and timely examination is an entertaining and enlightening analysis of the forms pleasures and politics that music videos offer In rethinking some classic approaches from film studies and popular music studies and connecting them with new debates about the current state of feminism and feminist theory Railton and Watson show why and how we should be studying music videos in the twenty first century Through its thorough overview of the music video as a visual medium this is an ideal textbook for Media Studies students and all those with an interest in popular music and cultural studies The So-called Nonsense Inscriptions on Ancient Greek Vases Sara Chiarini, 2018-08-07 As the first extensive survey of the ancient Greek painters practice of writing nonsense on vases The So called Nonsense Inscriptions on Ancient Greek Vases by Sara Chiarini provides a systematic overview of the linguistic features of the phenomenon and discusses its forms and contexts of reception While the origins of the practice lie in the impaired literacy of the painters involved in it the extent of the phenomenon suggests that at some point it became a true fashion within Attic vase painting This raises the question of the forms of interaction with this epigraphic material An open approach is adopted reading attempts riddles and puns inspired by nonsense inscriptions could happen in a variety of circumstances including the symposium but not limited to it
