Courageous Christianity:

No Compromise (eBook) Errol Naidoo, 2012-10-26 It often happens that people compromise their faith to suit their lifestyle Their black and white sense of right and wrong gets trapped in a gray area In NO COMPROMISE founder and president of Family Policy Institute FPI Errol Naidoo maintains that the major reason for the moral decline in the world today is the lack of conviction and commitment of Christians to be salt and light in society Even though prayer is the foundation of everything a Christian does NO COMPROMISE states that Christians shouldn't just pray and not engage in politics and social issues Naidoo spurs readers on not only to be people of prayer but also people of action They should adjust their lifestyle according to their faith no compromise Fake Christianity C.B. Matthew 25 Christianity Donald Heinz, 2022-09-23 A new movement in American Christianity calls itself Matthew 25 Christians It follows a long train of new religious movements founded in a rediscovered biblical text that migrates to a new context and sets the church on a new course Good news to the poor is Matthew's story grounded in the entire biblical witness In Jesus's famous last judgment story all the world is questioned whether they saw Christ the king enthroned by way of the cross in the least of these the poor the homeless the hungry the sick the imprisoned Are the corporal works of mercy Jesus requires to become new marks of the church in our times Is Matthew 25 the new John 3 16 a new sign to be held up to the world at football games Following this new social gospel comes another question Will the American church succeed in taking this public as a new errand into the wilderness Could the nonconforming resistance movement that is Christianity find a new voice in the public square collaborate with the academy and politicians and turn Matthew s call for social justice into a new deal for social democracy A Bonhoeffer moment in perilous times for the poor calls for no less

The Sovereign God and the Christian Disciple Robert M Solomon,

The sovereignty of God is a doctrine that has been debated by Christians for centuries For some this remains a passionate topic creating different camps among Christians endlessly arguing about whether God s sovereignty and human free will can co exist For the majority the doctrine is a vague concept that remains to be explored This book deals with these issues by examining what the Bible says about God s sovereignty and human responsibility It explores the sovereignty of God by looking at God as the Creator Saviour Shepherd and Judge and tackles questions that commonly emerge If we believe that God is truly sovereign then we must live out the implications by living faithfully and responsibly by trusting and obeying Him amid the challenges of life praying to Him sharing about Him with others and serving and hoping in Him Our relationship with Him is an important way to understand how His grace purpose and power invite us to respond responsibly to Him in active discipleship

Our

Hearts Were Strangely Lukewarm John Elford,2023-05-26 Our Hearts Were Strangely Lukewarm summons the reader on a most unusual journey through Methodist history Along the way we discover how the White American Methodist Church became deeply entangled with White supremacy From the founding of the church in the late eighteenth century to the present we have too often been silent bystanders or active accomplices in the enormous harm caused by racism It s a complicated and shameful story few Methodists know And yet if we want to transform the world toward a different and better future for all one free of the stranglehold of racism we must come to terms with the story of our past the whole story Our Hearts Were Strangely Lukewarm is a trustworthy guide into the church s troubled history It s also a present day call to action that finds inspiration in those Methodists who stood against the tide and those guiding the church today toward the horizon of racial justice

Romans Michael J. Gorman,2022-03-03 Above all Romans is a letter about Spirit enabled participation and transformation in Christ and his story and thus in the mission of God in the world This commentary engages the letter to the Romans as Christian scripture and highlights the Pauline themes for which Michael Gorman is best known participation and transformation cruciformity and new life peace and justice community and mission With extensive introductions both to the apostle Paul and to the letter itself Gorman offers background information on Paul s first century context before proceeding into the rich theological landscape of the biblical text In line with Paul s focus on Christian living Gorman interprets Romans at a consistently practical level highlighting the letter s significance for Christian theology daily life and pastoral ministry Questions for reflection and sidebars on important concepts make this especially useful for those preparing to preach or teach from Romans the epistle of life as Gorman calls it for its extraordinary promise that through faith we might walk in newness of life with Christ

Faith, Doubt, and Courage in 15 Great People of Faith John R. Tyson, 2013-09-01 How have Christians over the centuries demonstrated faith worked through doubt acted with courage How can great people of faith inspire our Christian journey Can we really be like they were Dr Tyson believes we can and he offers fifteen short biographies of significant Christians from various periods of history to prove it We see in their lives specific examples of faithful responses to God and how their examples of faith can be put into practice in concrete real life situations Dr Tyson looks at the faith of the following great people of Christian faith Vibia Perpetua ca 181 203 Athanasius of Alexandria ca 296 373 Augustine of Hippo ca 354 430 Anselm of Canterbury 1033 1109 Francis ca 1181 1226 and Clare ca 1193 1254 of Assisi Thomas Aquinas 1225 1274 Catherine of Siena 1347 1380 Julian of Norwich ca 1342 1423 Martin Luther 1483 1546 John Calvin 1509 1564 John 1703 1791 and Charles 1707 1788 Wesley Karl Barth 1886 1968 Dietrich Bonhoeffer 1906 1945 Martin Luther King Jr 1929 1968 and Mother Teresa of Calcutta 1910 1997
