issues in developing national freshwater policies for the mainland countries of the South Asian sub continent Ray suggests that freshwater policy must cover all aspects of physical environment and human life by noting that food and drought management are parts of freshwater policy and acknowledging that water is a scarce natural resource and has economic value He calls for the development of basin wide policies to minimize conflicts within riparian countries as well as a freshwater policy baseline to minimize internal conflicts on water sharing arrangements By pointing out the need for full participation of all stakeholders in developing a baseline policy including people displaced by the construction of large dams Ray suggests a new system in which riparian countries are guaranteed that no water related project proceeds without a transparently developed environmental impact assessment and evaluation of alternative options New Statesman ,2003

The City of Grace David Wadley,2019-11-29 In this sweeping appraisal of the urban condition David Wadley argues that anything less than high level resolution in modelling the well being of inhabitants is wasting precious time Humanity is encountering rising entropy caused by unsustainable economic and demographic expansion Supported by a strong interdisciplinary backdrop featuring systems and crisis theories The City of Grace tackles these obstacles by picturing gracious function and graceful form in a human scale settlement In an attempt to salvage things lost in the teleology of urban development over the last 100 years the outlook is both heterodox and contrarian How long can we all go on in the present way In addressing grace a more elevated concept than those focusing previous urban analyses this manifesto aims not to placate or please but instead to get humanity to face the encompassing realities it tries so hard to forget The Generation Game David McWilliams,2015-09-10 After ten years of a boom and on the eve of a downturn Irish society has been turned on its head by a Generation War The clear winners have been the middle aged Jagger Generation enormously enriched by the property boom while the younger generation the cash stripped Jugglers will be badly exposed as the credit wave recedes Then there are the Bono Boomers wedged between the winners and losers who are not about to grow up just because the economy is doing badly preferring instead to enjoy life as permalescents a permanently adolescent generation too young to be old too old to be hip As the Jaggers Jugglers and Bono Boomers struggle to maintain their slice of a diminished pie David McWilliams explains how it s time to take stock learn from history and harness the collective power of past generations He argues that if Ireland can exploit its unique economic resource it s global tribe Ireland as a nation will be reinvigorated He believes that now is the time to play the Generation Game Fabian Review ,2003 Military Review ,1998
