130 Ways to Involve Parents in Youth Ministry, 1994 Partnering with Parents in Youth Ministry Jim Burns, Mike DeVries, 2011-08-29 The most powerful force in a young person's life is his or her family. The importance of this is pointed out in the writing of the Torah in Deuteronomy 6:4-9 where believers are mandated to pass their family legacies to the next generations. The newest trend in youth ministry today is a very healthy move toward family-based ministry, a mind set that helps the church act as a support system while placing discipleship and training back into the hands of family. Partnering with Parents in Youth Ministry will help youth workers understand their unique role in helping families succeed and will give an overview strategy of family-based youth ministry as well as practical ideas on implementing this awesome ministry in your church.

How Youth Ministry Can Change Theological Education -- If We Let It Kenda Creasy Dean, Christy Lang Hearlson, 2016-03-29 Since 1993, forty-nine theological seminaries have created opportunities for high school students to participate in on-campus High School Theology Programs (HSTPs) that invite them to engage in serious biblical and theological study. Many of the young people who take part in these programs go on to become pastoral or lay leaders in their churches. What has made these programs so successful, especially given the well-documented crisis of faith among young people today? In this book, thirteen contributors, many of whom have created or led one of these innovative theology programs, investigate answers to this question. They examine the pedagogical practices the HSTPs have in common and explore how they are contributing to the leadership of the church. They then show how the lessons gleaned from these successful programs can help churches, denominations and seminaries reimagine both theological education and youth ministry.
